

Dropped Between Stitches

By Ann

Members of the Junior Catholic Women's League of South Porcupine were the guests of the local branch of the League at the annual banquet held on Thursday evening in the dining-room of the Fern Cottage restaurant, when Miss Charlotte Ogilvie, Diocesan convenor of Juniors, was the featured speaker. Miss Ogilvie congratulated both branches on their fine work during the past year, and urged them to keep up this record. Mrs. J. Martin, president of the Timmins League, extended the welcome to the guests.

Spellbound... that's the word to describe the audience at the recital given on Friday evening in the Harmony Hall by the pupils of Mae Watts' dancing classes. Little tots, aged two and two and one-half years, three years, and up to the early teens, performed intricate routines with the "fineness" of professionals. They seemed entirely "at home" on the stage, and the programme was carried through without an error. The costumes were made with the daintiness and perfection that characterizes large stage shows, and showed that mothers had put into the work the tenderness and pride they felt in their daughters and sons.

To the pupils, to Miss Mae Watts, and to the mothers who helped in every way to make the programme a success, should go especially large bouquets of the prettiest flowers. Of course, it was impossible to present these bouquets to each mother, but on behalf of the pupils, the tiniest tots, little Donna and Monte Cripps, presented two large baskets of peonies and other flowers to their teacher. As well as another basket to Mrs. J. Wilkins, who acted as accompanist. The only disappointment for the audience was that the Juvenile Ball was presented only on one evening, and that the Harmony Hall could not seat as large an audience as the performance deserved.

As a follow-up to the recital by these clever pupils of Miss Mae Watts, comes the good news that Jack Thompson... one of the "stars" of the show, has been offered a professional contract with the orchestra of Benny Palmer at London, Ontario. Jack, who matches his nimble feet with an equally active brain, is only eleven years old, but this year received his graduation from lower school into High School without writing the June examinations. At present, his parents have not decided if they will allow Jack to take up dancing professionally this summer, but they will leave shortly for Southern Ontario, and discuss the matter while on holiday. And a little lady who should receive special mention is Shirley Hornby, who is a good salesman, her charm... and of course the fact that she was doing her best to make a success of an event that should be a success, sold more tickets to the recital than were sold by anyone else. A big "pat on the back" for you, Shirley.

Sincere good wishes are extended to Second Lieutenant Roger Cawley and Mrs. Cawley, whose marriage was a lovely event at the Church of Nativity at 9 o'clock on Saturday morning. The bride is the former Miss Madeleine MacNamara, and at present the couple is honeymooning at points south before taking up residence in Petawawa, where the groom is stationed. The beautiful three-tiered wedding cake which centred the bride's table was made by her, and she also fashioned her own wedding gown and travelling costume.

An early morning wedding on Monday was that of Agatha Mary Enright and Lorne Sheehan at the Church of Nativity. The new Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan are now honeymooning at Renfrew (where they will visit parents of both bride and groom) and Ottawa, and on their return will take up residence on Fifth Avenue in Timmins. Congratulations.

To Mr. and Mrs. J. McChesney, of Schumacher, who celebrated their thirty-seventh wedding anniversary on Sunday, will go the sincere good wishes of a host of friends throughout this district. Mr. and Mrs. McChesney celebrated the event on the same day as one of their three sons overseas, Clayton, celebrated his birthday. They are true old-timers of the North, and have that spirit of friendliness and good will that has always been linked with Northern pioneers.

Members of the Ladies' Guild of St. Matthew's Anglican Church are asked to remember that the regular work meeting will take place to-morrow (Friday) evening, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Cosentine, 397 Pine Street north. As regular business meetings have been discontinued for the summer months, it is hoped that a large number of members will join in knitting during the evening.

A sparkling diamond adorns the third finger, left hand of Miss Estelle Chalut, who will soon become the bride of Mr. Bill Harrison. Estelle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Chalut, and Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Harrison. The definite date of the marriage has not yet been announced.

Tuesday morning's wedding was that of Miss Marie-Ange Groulx and Mr. Fernand Beauchamp, who said "I do" at the Notre Dame des Lourdes Church. That evening they received a large number of friends at a reception at the Lions' Club Hall, and they have taken up residence in town. Congratulations and good wishes.

Sergeant Observer Bert Hornby and his bride, the former Miss Ethel Meadows, of Montreal expect to visit Timmins during their honeymoon. If leave is granted the groom from his duties with the R.C.A.F. Ferry Command. Bert and Ethel were united in marriage at St. Andrew's and St. Paul's Anglican Church in Montreal on Friday and from all reports, seems that the Timmins alman has a bride who is not only lovely but talented as well. Ethel Hornby is a member of a musical family, as shown at the reception which followed the ceremony in Montreal. Each of the bride's six sisters took her turn at the piano during the evening, and the treat came when the bride herself sat down to play. She is a very popular young lady. She was given numerous showers before her marriage. Bert and his many friends here will be glad to welcome her as a friend of theirs.

Visitors to the Legion Carnival on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings have been especially pleased with the fine programme presented each night. The Monday evening programme was repeated on Wednesday, and will be shown once again on Friday, while Tuesday's programme will win applause to-night and Saturday. Featured are Miss Jeannette Garrette, the dancing lady who is a favourite with Northern audiences. She has been since her first appearance here several years ago. Woodhouse and Hawkins, talented radio comedy team. Miss Bernice McGrath, vocal soloist, and one of the "prides" of this North Land. And the dainty little dancing stars of Margaret Easton Shields. The carnival will close Saturday midnight, but there are three nights left in which you can enjoy it.

Friendship is a chain of gold Shaped in God's most perfect mould. Each link a laugh, a smile, a tear, A shakedown of the hand, a word of cheer, As steadfast as the ages roll, Binding closer soul to soul, No matter how far or heavy the load, Sweet is the journey in friendship's road.

The above poem on friendship was quoted by Mrs. Gerry Morrow at the Eastern Star banquet held on Tuesday evening in the McIntyre Auditorium, as part of her toast to the visitors. It was appropriate and timely, and seemed so perfect that Ann asked Mrs. Morrow if she might use it in this column. Thank you.

That banquet, held by Arbutus Chapter in honour of the visiting Grand officers from Southern Ontario, was perhaps one of the very finest attended by this writer. The speeches were of the kind that would interest all who had the opportunity to hear them. The tables were attractively set with yellow candles and mixed flowers from the garden of Mrs. Malcolm MacMillan of the McIntyre. The menu was excellent, and best of all, an air of friendliness and hospitality made even the guests feel as if they were members of the Chapter.

Elsewhere in to-day's paper is a complete account of the banquet but here are a few notes on the activities of the visitors. Mrs. Lottie Davidson, Worthy Grand Matron. Mrs. Florence Eastman, Associate Grand Matron. Mrs. Violet Stewart, Past District Deputy Grand Matron of No. 10 District. On Saturday they were entertained by the Past Matrons at a banquet in the Coffee Shop of the McIntyre Community building, followed by bridge at the home of Mrs. A. H. Cooke on the McIntyre Property. On Sunday, they were the guests of Mrs. N. Carrier at a luncheon at her home at the Dome, followed by supper at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. King at Bayside Beach in the early evening. Mrs. Malcolm MacMillan was hostess to the visitors, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Jackson, at Monday luncheon, and the South Porcupine branch entertained at a banquet that evening in the United Church there. Mrs. Fred Jackson, Worthy Matron of Arbutus Chapter, entertained the visitors. Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Phillips, and Mrs. MacMillan on Tuesday, with the final event the banquet on that evening. The guests left on Wednesday for Cochrane, and on Thursday they will be at Troquois Falls. Several local members will be in the paper town to-day as guests of the Chapter there.

For those who like a good time, comes the welcome announcement that the annual Kinsmen Barn Dance will be held on Friday, July 10th, in the barn of the Goldridge Stock Farm at Golden City. Remember the fun it was last year. The committee has been making all kinds of grand new plans for the event, and it will be an evening long to be remembered. Then, of course, to those who missed the Intercollegiate dance last year (remember, it was cancelled) the following will be truly good news. A committee has been appointed to complete plans for the event this year, and this committee has decided that July 26th will be the big day. The date of the Intercollegiate dance. Two good dances in one month!

Miss Valerie Morley, who leaves today for Toronto where she will join the R. C. A. F., will take with her to the Queen City a fine fitted travelling bag, the gift of her friends here. Miss Morley was honoured on Tuesday evening by a group which met at the home of Mrs. Owen Farnan, 23 Kimberley Avenue. Joint hostesses with Mrs. Farnan were Mrs. Lorne Jenkins and Miss Lillie Sullivan.

Miss Jeannette Garrette and Woodhouse and Hawkins, who are the featured artists on the programme at the Legion Carnival this week, have been the special guests at numerous events this week. Yesterday afternoon they were entertained by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, where blonde Jeannette once again "stole the show" with her personality and attractive appearance. Jeannette was indeed a charming picture in her two piece suit and matching coat of turquoise wool, wearing the smile that always says "we're friends". On Monday evening the group was honoured at a party in the staff house of the Hoyle Mines, with Mr. Dunlop as host. It was fun.

Ethel Meadows is Bride of Sergeant-Observer Hornby

Wedding in Montreal on Friday of Timmins Man now With R.C.A.F.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized in St. Andrew's and St. Paul's Anglican Church in Montreal, on Friday, June 19th, at 4.30 o'clock, when Miss Ethel Meadows, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Meadows, of 8113 Casgrain Avenue, Montreal, was united in holy matrimony to Sergeant-Observer Albert William ("Bert") Hornby, of 12 Bannerman Avenue, Timmins.

Due to the illness of the bride's father, she was given in marriage by her eldest sister, Mrs. A. Perry. The bride made a lovely picture in an ensemble of Queen's blue silk, with matching accessories, and a bouquet of roses. Her attendants were Miss Peggy Caldry, of St. Agathe, and her sister, Miss Muriel Meadows.

Mr. A. Perry acted as groomsman. Following the ceremony, the bride's parents received friends at their home at dinner. Mrs. V. Short and Mrs. A. Perry, sisters of the bride, presiding at the tea table.

A large number of friends attended the reception later in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hornby will reside in Montreal, where the groom is waiting Ferry Command in the R. C. A. F. It is expected that they will visit Timmins on their wedding trip, if arrangements can be completed for Sergeant-Observer Hornby's leave from his unit.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hornby, of Timmins, parents of the groom; Misses Beverley Moore and Audrey Bloom, of St. Albans, Vt., U.S.A.; Miss Peggy Caldry of St. Agathe; Messrs. J. Williams and D. Sherry of the R.C.N.V.R.

Prior to her marriage the bride was feted at numerous showers and other social events.
