

Dropped Between Stitches

By Ann

O God in Heaven we ask of Thee Protection for our men at sea. And in these troubled times of ours Save from destruction's dreadful powers; And for our army on the land We pray for victory by Thy hand We know if we believe in Thee For us there will be victory.

Lord we breathe a silent prayer. For gallant men who in their. Fight nobly and are glad to give Their own dear lives that we may live.

(—"Young Canada Prays", by a Canadian Girl)

The cactus plant, which does not bear pretty blossoms with dainty perfumes, was one of the featured attractions at the Annual Rose Show held on Friday evening in the Masonic Hall. . . . to the many who visited the hall, the cactus had as great an attraction as the roses, peonies, pansies, and other flowers that made a colourful garden of the hall. . . . seventy varieties of the southern plant were displayed by Mr. W. Eeclstone, the plants being all shapes and sizes and names. . . . One of the oddities was the grafting of a cactus to a rose tree. . . . while also in the display were two Chinese maples of different varieties.

Of course, the blossoms of the cut flowers were beautiful enough to be amazing. . . . to the onlooker it seemed that the judges were to be sympathized with, for they had a difficult task in choosing the three winning exhibits in each group. . . . special displays included those of the McIntyre, Hollinger and Buffalo-Ankerite Mines, and the guests who visited the hall, marvelled at the variety and perfection of the blooms. . . . all proceeds go to the Bombed Victims fund.

To-morrow night. . . . at the Gold Ridge Stock Farm. . . . in Golden City. . . . will take place the Second Annual Kinsmen Barn Dance. . . . are you ready for a good time. . . . an evening of informal fun and merriment. . . . an evening that you'll remember till the next time. . . . better plan on a costume that will give you plenty of freedom for both square and round dancing. . . . and get together all your friends who like to enjoy life. . . . music will be by Henry Keelock's orchestra.

Members of the Gold Nugget Rebeccah Lodge are already making plans for their activities in the fall. . . . although there will be no business meetings until September. . . . one of the events planned for the same month, is the draw for a pair of white wool blankets. . . . this event was discussed at the knitting meeting held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. T. Scott. . . . and further plans will probably be made at the next few meetings.

Wedding plans. . . . on August 3rd, at the home of the bride-to-be, Miss Marjorie Judd will become the bride of Mr. Herb Mitchell of Timmins. . . . Marj, as she is known to her many friends, is one of the popular employees of the Sam Bucovetsky store in Timmins, and was entertained on Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Babe Thiffault, a "counter friend". . . . among the guests were the members of the store staff, who showered her with many lovely gifts for her new home.

Engaged. . . . Doris Wright, of the S. N. Kregge staff, is wearing a brand new diamond on her third finger, left hand, placed there by John Barabus. . . . wedding plans indefinite, but both Doris and her fiance are receiving the best wishes of their many friends.

Miss Jeannette Garrette, the lovely dancer whose performances highlighted the Legion Carnival at the McIntyre

Community Building this year, postponed her farewells to the district by one full week, and left on Monday for Ottawa from where she will motor to New York to continue her dancing career. . . . Jeannette is always a welcome visitor to this district, and her friends here were pleased to have an extra week of her company. . . . now they're making plans to welcome the dancer if she returns again next year.

From Toronto comes the news of the engagement of a former Timmins man, Mervyn Barnes, now of the R.C.A.F., to Miss Black, of Hamilton. . . . no definite wedding date is announced, but his many friends in this district will extend sincere good wishes to Mervyn and his bride-to-be.

For all who appreciate the efforts of the Chinese people in their war against the aggressor, Sunday evening will bring an important event. . . . on that date, at the Palace theatre, will take place a Chinese concert, from which all proceeds will be used for the Chinese War Relief Fund. . . . featured on the programme will be Mow Ong Sue, famous Chinese actress who has done volunteer war relief work for her country in Canada during the past five years. . . . she is very well known to the people of her native land, and during her stay in Canada has made friends with the various nationalities who form the population of this great country. . . . born in Singapore, Mow Ong Sue, has been singing to audiences since the age of eight years, and made her first recording at the age of nine years. . . . that recording, by the way, is included among those at the local Chinese reading room. . . . the talented singer and actress made her first visit to Timmins last week, and will return during the week-end to take part in the programme.

The concert begins at 8.30 o'clock in the evening, and Mow Ong Sue will not only sing Chinese selections but will entertain in other manner. . . . A tennis "fan", the Chinese actress brought a complete new ensemble for the sport during her last visit to town. . . . as a souvenir of the gold district. . . . she has travelled throughout the United States, visiting New York and Hollywood, where she met another noted Chinese lady, the actress, Anna May Wong. . . . another highlight of the performance will be a Chinese fashion show, which will include the display of ancient Chinese costumes bearing the heavy sequins, and made of the bright colours of the past. . . . several Chinese girls from other points in Canada will be in town for the modelling, and a few of the local Chinese women will offer their services.

Just as the new Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wismer left the First United Church on Tuesday afternoon, the sun came from behind the cloud, just to say "happy the bride the sun shines on to-day". . . . Sergeant-Observer Frank Wismer and the bride, the former Alice Dodge, were followed by the bride's six attendants, the groomsmen, and the ushers, making a very attractive bridal party. . . . at the reception which followed the ceremony, and was held at the home of the bride's parents on Tamarack Street the bride's cake brought many compliments to the friend, Mrs. John Gurnell, who had prepared and led it. . . . and, in keeping with the war-time restrictions the bride's table bore "war cakes," prepared without butter, eggs or sugar. . . . the table decorations were supplied by Mrs. W. W. White, Mrs. John Gurnell, and Miss Eugenia Young, and were a masterpiece of clever decorating. . . . the summer flowers which adorned the church were from the gardens of Mrs. Ronald Vary, Mrs. Maurice Williams, Mrs. John Gurnell, Miss Ellen Hartness, and Mrs. W.W. White. . . . unfortunately, another friend, Miss Betty Simpson, who was to have attended the bride, was called to Toronto just before the wedding. . . . and unfortunately, also, the bride's father was taken ill the day of the wedding, but his daughter was given in marriage by a family friend, Mr. Ronald Vary.

Women's Institute Holds Successful Afternoon Tea

Mrs. A. J. MacDonald is Hostess at Very Enjoyable Afternoon Event. All Proceeds to be Used for W. I. War Work. Summer Flowers Brighten Attractive Setting.

The attractive home of Mrs. A. J. MacDonald, Riverside Drive, was the setting on Wednesday afternoon for a successful and very enjoyable afternoon tea, held under the auspices of the Women's Institute, Gold Star branch, with all proceeds for the W.I. war work. Originally arranged as a lawn tea, the event was held indoors due to the cool and cloudy weather, but the many guests who attended were pleased with the afternoon provided for them.

Pansies, bachelor buttons, pale pink roses and other flowers centred each of the six individual tables, which bore dainty china and sparkling silver tea services, while vases of mixed flowers adorned the sun room and living room. The hostess, Mrs. A. J. MacDonald, the past president, Mrs. P. G. Howard, and the first vice-president, Mrs. J. Harnden, received the guests, and were assisted by three daughters of the hostess, Misses Doris, Edna, and Enid MacDonald.

Mrs. H. J. McGarry and Mrs. B. Drummond were in charge of tickets, while Mrs. W. Johnson convoked the serving, assisted by Mrs. G. Kirk, Mrs. A. Atkinson, Mrs. A. Cassidy, Mrs. A. McCharles, Mrs. C. McClesney, and Mrs. C. Surman. Kitchen convener was Mrs. J. Griffin, with the assistance of Mrs. E. Lory, Mrs. H. Macintosh, and Mrs. A. Jack.

During the afternoon, Mrs. C. Surman played several piano selections, and accompanied Mrs. J. Griffin, whose talented singing is one of the features of many social events in this district. Mrs. S. L. Whitehead was another vocal soloist whose songs pleased the group, while Miss Doris MacDonald gave several fine piano solos.

Mrs. C. Briggs, war services convener, was in charge of the raffling of a beautiful hooked rug, donated by Mrs. Campbell, 192 1/2 Cedar street south, and won by Mrs. Fred Charbonneau, formerly of Timmins, but now of Arnprior. Mrs. Charbonneau was District Director of Timmins W. I. for two years during her residence here.

long the banks of the Mattagami River, only a few yards over the bridge, and yesterday afternoon the guests at the tea envied the hostess her home. . . . which acts as a summer home and winter home, too. . . . those guests, of course, were numerous, as they are at all W.I. events, and the proceeds of the successful tea will go a long way in helping the organization in its war work. . . . a special feature was the drawing for a beautiful hooked rug donated by Mrs. Campbell, of 192 1/2 Cedar street south, and won by Mrs. Fred Charbonneau, now of Arnprior but while resident in Timmins, was District Director of the Women's Institute. . . . and to those who are wondering about the sugar, since the new rationing came into effect. . . . some of the sugar used was donated by the hostess, while most of it was left over from the last W. I. event.

Mrs. M. E. Williams Tells of Rice Bowl Party Seen in 1940

Gives Picture of What Timmins People May Expect On Saturday.

The local Chinese people are staging a Rice Bowl parade on Saturday and a Chinese concert on Sunday evening, and many here wonder just what the event will be like. There has never been an event of this kind in Timmins of the North, and only a few here have seen an entertainment of this kind. Mrs. M. E. Williams, who saw a Rice Bowl party in San Francisco a couple of years ago has been kind enough to give The Advance the following notes on the event for the public information.

"Timmins is going to have a Rice Bowl Party. As this may be a new form of entertainment to many I should like to tell you of one that I attended in San Francisco in 1940. All of San Francisco Chinatown played host for this pageant which lasts for three days and which was staged to provide funds so that the rice bowls of the Children of China might not be empty.

"We went in the evening and found all the streets brilliantly lighted and decorated with flags and banners. One didn't get far without purchasing an official Rice Bowl button from one of the many taggers and the customary price was at least fifty cents. But this opened the door to many entertainments.

"Traffic was closed on most streets and the crowds surged through, sometimes following a band or procession or visiting different shops and shows. A decorated truck with a huge Rice Bowl in the center and musicians playing to attract attention went slowly along the street and small boys jumped off and on, darting into the crowd holding out empty rice bowls to receive offerings. We didn't see a procession with a Dragon, but there must have been one, for it seems to be a part of most Chinese parades. I have often seen them at the Spanish Fiesta celebrations in Los Angeles in which the Chinese always took part, putting on a wonderful display of vivid color and entertainment. The huge Dragon head is held high by sticks and the cloth body and tail draped over the head of about thirty men who made it writhe most realistically as they marched along.

"The streets were a mixture of the old and the new. The older people clung to the familiar dress and hair-do, but the younger ones wore either the more modish Chinese dress or up to date American, and they both looked very smart and lovely. One band of tiny Chinese girls who had been performing a dance seemed very un-Chinese in their ruffled pink dresses and poke bonnets, but the faces that peeked out from the bonnets were truly Chinese, their dark eyes dancing with excitement.

"There were small dimly lighted stores displaying strange oriental spices and herbs, presided over by three or four aged, calm and inscrutable Chinese of another country and generation. Newer stores with the goods of China which appeal to the tourist were well lighted and modern and one was served with true Yankee hustle and vim.

"Of course in Timmins we haven't a large Chinese population and their celebration must of necessity be on a more modest scale but I am sure that it will be none the less interesting and entertaining to everyone who attends."

Funeral Services to be Held Friday for Late T. Couch

Funeral services will be held to-morrow (Friday) afternoon at 4.30 o'clock, at the First United Church for the late Thomas Alfred Couch, who passed away at his home, 49 Laurier avenue, after an illness of several weeks. The late Mr. Couch had been in St. Mary's Hospital for five weeks, but hope was held for his recovery when he was brought home on Sunday.

The Rev. E. Gilmour Smith will conduct the services, and pall-bearers will be Messrs. Evans, Williams, F. Maw, H. Smith, J. Farrer, H. Bourne and Chas. Phillips.

Born in Davenport, England, thirty-seven years ago, the late Mr. Couch came to Timmins first in 1924, returning to his home in England for one year, and then bringing his family to Timmins where they have resided since that time. For several years he was a popular member of the Cornish Social Society, and later joined the Welsh Society of which he has been a respected member for many years past.

Left to mourn his loss are his wife, now at the home of her father, Mr. Joseph Brain, Balsam street; three children, Derek, Betty, and Audrey; his mother in England; and two sisters, Mrs. Nancarrow and Mrs. Hobbs, also in England.

IRON FIREMAN STOKER

Any piece of mechanical equipment, which is subject to hard, steady use, and which must be depended upon for continuous, efficient, and uninterrupted operation, should be given at least one thorough, mechanical servicing, inspection and lubrication each year.

With the war on there is no need to tell you that piece of equipment last longer and use fewer repairs, by giving careful attention while in apparent good condition.

Take advantage of our summer plan now!

1. Remove all coal and ash from stoker and furnace.
2. Vacuum clean hopper and furnace firebox.
3. Vacuum clean furnace or boiler.
4. Clean and inspect air passages in tyure.
5. Clean plenum chamber.
6. Clean auxiliary air line.
7. Clean and paint inside hopper.
8. Oil motor.
9. Flush gear box and refill with oil.
10. Inspect fan and tighten or adjust.
11. Inspect belts.
12. Oil and check all controls.
13. Check machine for any air or coal dust leaks.

Providing we have your order so that we may do the work during July and August our charge for this service will be:
