Marriage at Regina of Former Schumacher Girl

Friends in Schumacher and district will be interested in the following account of the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Marjorie Briden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Briden, the Briden family being for so many years popular and esteemed residents of Schumacher and well and favourably known through the North—

Wedding at Regina Saturday, July 18th, at 2:30 p.m. Westminster United Church, Regina, was the setting for the marriage of Elizabeth Marjorie Briden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Briden, Upper Canada Mine, Dobie, Ont., to Lieut. Richard Oliver Brett, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Brett, Regina, Sask. The Rev. Dr. A. D. MacKenzie officiated. Mrs. Fisher presided at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her mother, was gowned in white silk net and chantilly lace over taffeta. Her finger tip veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis. Miss Margaret Brett, as bridesmaid, was gowned in yellow sheer with matching hat of yellow and mauve and she carried a bouquet of yellow asters and mauve and yellow daisies. Mr. Gerald Thompson was best man.

A reception was held at the home of the groom's parents at which about thirty guests were present. The bride's mother received in a powder blue costume and navy and white accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses. The groom's mother wore turquoise with brown accessories and a corsage of Johanna Hill roses. The table was decorated with a tiered cake set in a bed of tulle and orange blossoms. Pink sweet peas and tall pink tapers completed the appointments. Mrs. H. R. Blair poured tea and Miss Sue Brett, Miss Betty Brett and Corporal Mary Brett served the refreshments. The rooms were tastefully decorated with a variety of summer flowers in harmonizing shades. Dr. MacKenzie proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom responded. Lieut. and Mrs. Brett left on a short honeymoon to the Qu'Appelle Lakes, the bride travelling in a powder blue redingote dress with navy accessories. They will reside in MacLeod, Alberta.

WHAT TO SAY

Bobby was in a store with his mother when he was given candy by one of the clerks.

"What must you say, Bobby?"

"Charge it," he replied — Exchange.

Another South Porcupine Doctor Joins the Forces

Other News from South Porcupine and the Dome.

South Porcupine, July 29—(Special to The Advance)—We are sorry to lose (temporarily, we hope) Dr. A. and Mrs. Miller as South Porcupine residents. Their lovely home on Powell Ave. was vacated this week and Mr. and Mrs. Gladwood of Connaught Hill, have taken up residence there. Dr. Miller reports for the army in his capacity as medical doctor on August 1st. He is a graduate of the University of Toronto, served his internship in Chicago hospitals, and came to South Porcupine to practice in 1936, later marrying Miss Rosalind Cantor, a South Porcupine young lady. We wish Dr. Miller every success in his new duties and a safe return after the war.

S. Porcupine Boys Had Happy Time at Night Hawk Camp

Programme for Camp Proved Interesting and Helpful.

South Porcupine, July 29th. Special to The Advance.

The boys who went to Night Hawk Lake camping with the Trail Rangers at Camp Waskasieu, are back, having had a wonderful time.

Besides being healthier and tanned with open air living they have acquired knowledge in other things of a practical and spiritual nature. Ninety-three badges were earned by the boys at camp and a full programme each day left no time for anything but pleasant occupations.

After morning watch and breakfast Rev. Lytle took a group of 12, instructing them in a course of Youth Leadership (Curriculum Study).

Camp Craft, Photograph (under Mr. Lytle 12 badges were won), Wild Flower Study (7 badges), Hand Work and Sheet Metal Work (under Rev. A. J. Manson of J. Matheson), are only a few of the interesting studies pursued.

First aid, and group games and Council came before supper, followed by Vesper service and campfire, when all the fun of the camp was allowed full sway.

On Thursday the boys "gotup" a circus, and they tell us that the giraffe (a compound animal) the camel and the buffalo took high honours, although the clowns and smaller animals deserved praise.

On Friday, the closing night, the older boys gave a dramatic impersonation of the "Life of St. Paul" in five scenes.

Dr. J. H. Macdonald, of Connaught, was Camp doctor.

During the time a project was completed of making an easy approach (steps) down the hill to Chapel Point which is now an island.

A rustic bridge (last year's project) connects the island with the camp. All the boys have had a grand time.

Mrs. Ridgeway Watts Passes in Hospital at South Porcupine

Popular and Esteemed Resident of Timmins Since 1919.

South Porcupine, July 29—(Special to The Advance)—The death of Mrs. John Ridgeway Watts, of Timmins, which occurred at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Fairhurst, in South Porcupine, early on Sunday morning, was a great shock to her friends and it is with deep regret that we record it.

She had been ill for some weeks, but it was thought that a month's complete rest would restore her to health.

She came to her sister's home a week previously and appeared to be recuperating, but on Saturday night the disease of the heart from which she was suffering took its toll, and she passed away.

Our very sincere sympathy is extended to her sorrowing relatives in their great loss.

Mrs. Watts was born in the Isle of Man, coming to Canada in 1919 and residing in Timmins ever since with the exception of two years spent in South Porcupine, about ten years ago.

Her sweet and lovely character was a matter of comment by all who knew her; she was beloved deeply in her small circle of friends, and the beauty she created lives on after her. She loved flowers and her garden on Balsam St., N. Timmins, is a picture of beauty, due to her daily care and loving tending.

On Tuesday afternoon she was laid to rest in Tisdale cemetery, after a short service was read by Archdeacon Woodall in the chapel of Walker's Undertaking Parlors, Timmins. Neighbours and friends were in attendance and the flowers she loved were in profusion around her.

Old friends carried her as pallbearers—Messrs Jack and Art Skelly, Mr. J. Paynter, Mr. W. S. Skinner (South Porcupine), Mr. Nat Huyten and Mr. Ted Huyten.

Among the lovely floral tributes were: Wreaths from her husband Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fairhurst, Miss Nora Spur, Sprays from Mr. and Mrs. Sky, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Spurr (Bill and Stella) (Cleveland), Mr. and Mrs. N. Huyten, and Mrs. and Mrs. T. Huyten; the W.A. of St. Paul's Anglican Church, South Porcupine; Mr. and Mrs. Ackroyd; Mr. and Mrs. Kevin; Mr. and Mrs. Skelly and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. Paynter and Earl; Mrs. F. C. Evans, Mrs. M. Bessette and Mrs. Maxwell Smith.
