Kirkland Lake, Aug 12th. - The body of 25-year-old Mrs. Verna Davis, 11 Second Street was taken from the waters of neighbouring Gull Lake at noon Friday by Provincial Constable Bud Lebar. Mrs. Davis had been reported missing since Monday, At that time Corporal McDougal of the Provincial Police detachment here carried out a search but found no traces of the missing woman Teck Township Police participated in the search in co-operation with provincial authorities throughout the week but Mrs. Davis could not be located.

Acting on his own initiative Provincial Constable Lebar procured the assistance of assistant forest ranger Frank Miller and journeyed to the Gull Lake area where the two men carried out an intensive search. Scouring the banks and shoreline of the lake the men found no clues. With the aid of a cance Lebar discovered the missing woman's body in the western portion of the lake approximately 75 yards from the high-

It was ascertained the body had been in the lake for five days before discovery. Mrs. Davis was buried at Kirkland District Cemetery Saturday morning. She is survived by her husband, George, in Trenton, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, 11 Second Street.
