Old-Fashioned Corn Roast Party at South Porcupine

South Porcupine, Aug. 19th. Special to The Advance. Miss Marie Tokar and Mr. Tony Anthony were hosts to eleven young couples at a real old-fashioned corn roast last Friday. They went to "the ol' swimming hole," ably chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Byrnes, and really had the time of their lives. Three large camp fires were already burning with boilers in place when the guests arrived and after a swim, they all sat round and "shucked the corn,"—while waiting for eats and after—they had a sing song and camp fire games. The party was in honor of Jack Pecore of H. M. Navy and Miss Kay Pecore—home on holiday from St. Michael's hospital in Toronto. The guests were: Joyce Eames, Ken Terry, Doreen Ralston and escort, Lyla Ralston and Alec Kosik, Irene Libby, Fred Tokar, Valerie Bessette, George Wooley, Betty Cumming, Jack Pecore, Kathleen Pecore and escort, Irene Disher, Ab. Roach, Lillian Kaufman, Evelyn Clark, Stan Henderson and the host and hostess, Tony Anthony and Marie Tokar. The unanimous vote was: "A Swell Time."
