More Letters of Thanks for Parcels Sent Overseas

Since early in the war the Parcels Committee of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion has been busy sending parcels regularly overseas. Mrs. J. Gay is the convener of this committee and she and her capable committee have never slackened in their efforts for the lads across the sea. That these parcels are appreciated is proven by the fact that soldiers are continually writing to express their thanks and appreciation. Letters and cards were recently received from the following:—

Back on the bench here again after a three weeks' holiday, Magistrate S. Atkinson on Tuesday dealt with a long docket with the facility and effectiveness for which he is noted. Traffic cases once more formed a considerable proportion of the charges. Chief Gagnon and his able staff continue to watch auto traffic very closely in the public interest. With the idea of preserving public safety and adding to the effectiveness of the over effort all the traffic rules designed for the common safety and for conserving materials are being very carefully enforced.

Six minor traffic charges brought $1.00 and costs each, while another similar charge failed to bring the defendant and so a summons will be personally served.

For defective brakes a fine of $10 and costs was imposed. A summons was issued for a similar charge the defendant failing to appear.

Two careless driving charges resulted in fines of $25 and costs each. Another careless driving charge was dismissed.

Four charges laid under the Wartime Prices and Trade Board regulations for using commercial trucks for passenger conveyance brought fines of $10 and costs each.

A careless driving charge against Giovanni Giangalano was dismissed.

A remand to Sept. 10th was given in the case of M. C. Sullivan, charged with driving a car while under the influence of liquor. Bail of $1,000 property was renewed.

E. Stapleton, charged with dangerous driving was remanded to Sept. 8th, while a similar charge against T. Noel was remanded to Sept. 15th.

Timmins Citizens' Band Enjoy Pleased Picnic

For the first time in a good many years the members of the Timmins Citizens' Band and their families enjoyed a picnic at the Buffalo-Ankerite picnic grounds on Sunday. Years ago these band picnics were regular annual occasions. Transportation on Sunday was made by members who had cars making several trips.

While waiting for the crowd to gather some of the picnickers got a little warm-up at softball the mixed teams being in the hands of the secretary. Races for the children followed, and then similar events for adults. Lunch was served at the long table. After lunch, Bandmaster F. J. Wolno spoke of the members who had joined the armed forces, and wished them the best of luck. He then called on the oldest bandsman present, but not now an active member of the band, for a few words. In response, Mr. J. B. Pare spoke briefly but appropriately, and concluded by handing a box of cigars to the youngest member of the band to pass around. Other members of the band also spoke briefly. After another sport session of softball (married versus single men) the gathering was brought to an end.

Ice-cream and soft drinks were enjoyed by young and old during the day.

John Huboly, aged 39 years and making his residence at the Timmins hotel, was arrested this week for illegally distributing literature after dark. He will come before Magistrate Atkinson for trial on the charge.
