

One of the World's Greatest Pictures Coming to Palace

New Play, "Mrs. Miniver" Hailed by Critics and Public Alike.

Seldom has a picture taken such a grip on critics and public alike as has "Mrs. Miniver," showing at the Palace theatre all next week, commencing Sunday midnight. It grips the heart as few pictures can do so completely. One critic writes, "It is more than entertainment. It is inspiration." The Robert Simpson Co. of Toronto were so impressed by the picture that they devoted a full page to free publicity for it—as a patriotic service and for the very hearts of humanity.

The general opinion appears to be that "Mrs. Miniver" will rank with the very greatest of the motion picture industry's productions. It has the art of simplicity, the genius of sincerity, the appeal of the heart of a great woman to the souls of all.

The sermon given by Henry Wilcoxon as the Vicar in "Mrs. Miniver" takes its place among the greatest of this world's eloquence and beauty. Here are the words of the Vicar:—

"We, in this quiet corner of England, have suffered the loss of friends very dear to us. Some—close to this church.

"George West, choir boy, James Ballard, station master and bell ringer, and the proud winner, only an hour before his death of the Beldon Cup for his beautiful Miniver Rose. And our hearts go out in sympathy to the two families who share the cruel loss of a young girl who was married at this altar only two weeks ago.

"The homes of many of us have been destroyed and the lives of young and old have been taken. There is scarcely a household that hasn't been struck to the heart. And why? Surely you must have asked yourselves this question. Why, in all conscience, should these be the ones to suffer? Children, old people, a young girl at the height of her loveliness. Why these? Why should they be sacrificed?

"I shall tell you why. Because this is not only a war of soldiers in uniform, it is a war of the people—of all the people—and it must be fought, not only on the battlefield, but in the cities and in the villages, in the factories and on the farms, in the home and in the heart of every man, woman and child who loves freedom!

"Well, we have buried our dead but we shall not forget them. Instead, they will inspire us with an unbreakable determination to free ourselves and those who come after us from the tyranny and error that threaten to strike us

Marriage at St. Mary's Church at Brudenell

The following of local interest is from the Killaloe column of last Thursday's issue of The Pembroke Standard-Observer:

A wedding of interest to residents of Killaloe took place Monday, when Margaret Mary Wingle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick T. Wingle, Rochefort, became the bride of Lawrence Joseph Stack, Killaloe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stack, Timmins, formerly of Killaloe. The marriage took place at 8:30 a.m. in St. Mary's church, Brudenell with Very Rev. J. J. Hogan officiating. The bridesmaid was Margaret Carty, Brudenell and the groomsmen were Patrick Wingle, Rochefort, brother of the bride. The bride wore a white chiffon gown with bishop sleeves, fitted waist, high neck and a finger-tip veil in halo effect and carried a bouquet of gladioli and baby's breath. The bridesmaid wore a gown of turquoise blue chiffon, with shirred waistline, high neck, bishop sleeves, and a hat of mohair and roses, and carried pink mums and baby's breath. After the wedding, a breakfast was served to immediate friends at the bride's home. In the evening, a reception was held for the couple who left for a short trip to Kirkland Lake and Timmins for one week. They will reside in Killaloe. Out-of-town guests included Miss Pearl Colton, Montclair, N.J.; Mrs. H. Costello and daughter, Fern, North Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wingle and Mr. Thomas Wingle, Sudbury and Mr. Michael Stack, Cobden."

Veterans of Last War Meet Again in New Service

Strange Co-incidence When Former Officer Swears in One of His Men of the Last War.

The following clipping from a recent issue of The Northern News of Kirkland Lake will be of double interest. The coincidence referred to is so striking as to be of interest in itself, while further interest is added by the fact that the Private Plouffe referred to is a brother of Mrs. Ernie Tisdale Korson Block, First avenue Schumacher. The following is the article from The Northern News:

Veterans of Last War Meet Again
Out at No. 1 District Depot, the Canadian Army's Wolseley Barracks they're talking about one of the strangest coincidences of the war—hinging around down! This is the people's war! It is our war! We are the fighters! Fight it, then! Fight it with all that is in us! And may God defend the right."

Kapuskasing Couple Spend Honeymoon Here

The following wedding announcement is taken from the Hearst page of The Northern Tribune, of Kapuskasing, last week:

The altar beautifully banked with autumn flowers set the scene for an interesting and pretty wedding in St. Paul's United church here on Wednesday afternoon, when Gladys Elizabeth Rouse, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Rouse of Hearst, became the bride of Roy Mitchell of Ryland.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. Watt Smith, D.D., in the presence of a large gathering of friends and invited guests.

The bride becomingly attired in white with full length veil and carrying a bouquet, entered the church on the arm of her father to the strain of the wedding march from "Lohengrin." She was charming. Her bridesmaids were Miss Ruby Rouse, her sister, in blue and Miss Impi Nevala in pink, each

When the returned soldier went to Toronto to enlist little did he think that the first officer he'd run into would be the lieutenant he served under the last time. Captain Smith has resided in London since returning from overseas after the last war. He had been employed by the C.P.R. there for more than 20 years when he enlisted again.

Police Chief at North Bay Passes Suddenly

Chief Constable Wm. Clark of North Bay, head of the North Bay police department for the past nineteen years, died suddenly at his home in North Bay shortly before one o'clock on Saturday morning. A native of Scotland Chief Clark was 58 years of age at the time of his death. He was chief of police at Copper Cliff before going to North Bay. He was buried on Monday of this week, under I. O. O. F. honours, being a prominent Oddfellow for many years. He was highly regarded in North Bay for his efficiency and genial good humour. For over a year past he has been suffering from heart trouble, but the end came unexpectedly. He was on duty at his office at 10 o'clock on Friday evening and seemed his usual self, but on going home he told his family that he was not feeling any too good. Not long afterwards he was stricken and died in a short time.

Compulsory Now to Turn in Empty Tubes for New Ones

Several people have mentioned this week that they were unable to buy new tooth paste or shaving cream as they did not have with them the old empty container. One man was in considerable temper over the refusal. He said that he could not turn in his old tube as there was still some perfectly good paste in the old tube, and he is Scottish. On the other hand he wanted a new tube of tooth paste so that he would not be without a supply.

The Wartime Prices and Trade Board on Monday night announced the regulation which says in effect that an empty metal tube must be turned in before a new tube of paste or shaving cream may be purchased.

• The valiant film "Mrs. Miniver" is being presented locally by the Palace Theatre for one week starting Sunday midnight, Sept. 13th.

"How good is A GOOD PICTURE?"

Once in a lifetime, seldom oftener, we each and every one of us hear a speech, read a story, or see a picture that leaves us speechless—where applause would be anticlimax. Such a picture—we believe—is "MRS. MINIVER."

Yes—it will hit you between the eyes—it will bring a lump into your throat, for it reaches down within you with a heart-rending simplicity.

But it does even more than that and that's why we're not apologizing for paying tribute to it here.

It gives us stark incontestable evidence that "this is not only a war of soldiers in uniform, it is a war of the people—of all the people—and it must be fought not only on the battlefield, but in the cities and in the villages, in the mines, factories, and on the farms, in the home and in the heart of every man, woman and child who loves Freedom".

This is our war! We are the fighters! Fight it then! Fight it with all that is in us! We know "how good is a Good Picture".

We're learning, "how great - is a Great Cause."
