

Dropped Between Stitches

By Doris

The strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin" formed the chief interest on Saturday. The scene was the marriage of Shirley Daly to Bill Cocklin. And despite the rain, they carried on anyway with a matron of honour and two bridesmaids, and a flower girl. One of the loveliest wedding of this season, too. You've heard of this saying "Something old, something new, etc." Well, Shirley followed that out. And her something old, was a very old necklace of fine gold, something that was in the family for years. It is very finely worked, and just completed her lovely outfit. Present for the wedding was the bride's brother Sapper J. R. Daly, who barely made it for the wedding, and AW2 Iris Cocklin, the groom's sister, who recently joined the W. A. A. F. Iris says the air-force is marvelous, and is definitely the place for a girl to be.

Wedding bells chimed on Monday morning. They were happily ringing for the wedding of Germaine Maurice and Zoel Dionne. A very lovely wedding, with fall flowers in St. Anthony's Cathedral, and the bride radiant in blue triple sheer. Honeymoon trip will take them to the groom's home in New Brunswick, where the bride will meet her new parents-in-law. Your social correspondent gazed at all the lovely gifts at the house on Monday, and amid them, she beheld a wonderful $100.00 check from Bucovetsky's. Nice gift, eh? The couple are taking up residence in Welland, Ontario, where the groom is employed.

Friday night is the big dance night. The annual Lions Club dance takes place at the Riverside Pavilion, and everyone is promised a good time. You'll be dancing to the music of Henry Kelnick's band, but of course, it will be minus Henry Kelnick. The music will be good, anyway. During the evening, there will be a $1,000.00 draw, and what an opportunity for some of you lucky people. A nice gift, just to attend a dance. Dress is optional, but it seems like a nice idea to wear evening gowns, as we have so few formal ones. And at this time of the season, there should be a lot of fall and winter evening gowns in view. That evening gown, with so many surprises promised for all who attend. So come one, come all, to the Lion's Club dance on Friday night, at the Riverside Pavilion, and enjoy yourself.

This week-end holds weddings of interest to many. Friday, wedding vows will be spoken by Joan Mills and Ray Eddy, while Saturday, there are two couples. One is Rita Mitchell, cashier at a local grocery store, who says her "I do's" with Donald Tetlock, and the other is Winnie Atkinson and Gordon Finlayson at St. Matthew's Anglican Church. More news of the weddings later. And on Sunday we have a big night. The Women's Institute are holding a concert at the Empire theatre. This should provide plenty of entertainment for everyone who attends as there is an excellent programme drawn up, including dancing, singing, music being provided by the Timmins Citizen's Band, under the direction of F. J. Wolno.

We seem to have another wedding day. Tuesday's couple was Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leo Venn, the bride being the former Louise Hueser, of Timmins. Louise, in case you didn't know it, was that lovely brunette with the pleasant smile, who worked at the lunch counter at the Goldfield's Drug Store. Perhaps you know her. Nice, isn't she? Well, wedding bells rang for her and Leo on Tuesday. They are going to live in town.

Another local recruit. A woman, I mean. Bertha Sheridan leaves this week for the Women's Branch of the R. C. A. F. Good Luck, Bertha. Saturday night, at the home of Barbara Haystead, her friends gathered there, and presented her with a smart air force wallet. Something handy, when you are in a branch of the service.

The maid-of-honour, Sylvia Niffin, wore a gown of pink organdie sheer over taffeta, with long pink gloves and pink shoulder-length veil with pink roses. She also carried pink roses. Both gowns were styled similarly to the bride's.

Anne Fitzgerald served as flower girl wearing a gown of mauve net over taffeta. With pink and white flowers in her hair, she carried a basket of pink and white sweet peas. The groom's gift to the bride was a pen and pencil set, while that of the bride was a gold signet ring. The bride's gift to the bridesmaids was a compact, while a gold heart-shaped locket was presented to the flower girl. The groom's gift to the best man was a birthstone tie clip, while lighters were given to the ushers.
