

Dropped Between Stitches

By Doris

The cleverest articles were on display at the Catholic Girl Guide hobby show in the basement of St. Anthony's Church on Wednesday evening. Painted jars, knitted wear, cakes, novelties of all sorts were on sale, and they certainly sold rapidly. . . . The parents of the Guides and the Ladies of the French Federation also had tables. . . . Profits were for the Guide fund, for their summer camp. . . . And the evening was fittingly closed with Guide songs, and a birthday selection for Mrs. B. H. Harper, divisional commissioner of the Guides, and also one of the judges. . . . The other judge was Miss Dorothy Wilkins, district supervisor of the Guides. . . . Prizes were given to the best tables and it was definitely close competition.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. V. Davidson, president of the Women's Institute, has handed in her resignation, owing to the fact that she has moved to the Delinte. . . . This was noted at the regular monthly meeting of the Institute on Wednesday afternoon. . . . Mrs. J. Harnden, 1st vice-president, was appointed president for the rest of the season. . . . And it was decided that on Oct. 28th, Miss Lulu Row will be at the Hollinger Hall lecturing on "Nutrition" from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. . . . Should be very instructive and interesting. . . . The climax of the meeting, was the pumpkin pie contest, held. . . . All the members had a taste of the pies, and were they good. . . . There were two prize winners picked out. . . . Congratulations to Mrs. W. Hawes, and Mrs. T. Marriott, the winners.

Attended the Children's Story Hour at the Timmins Public Library on Saturday morning, and found it most interesting. . . . Between 10 a.m. and 11, Public School children of all ages meet at the Library and are told fairy tales, play games, and read books. . . . Doris was present for one of the fairy tales, told by Miss Freda Campbell, one of the librarians, and was enraptured at the way Freda charmed her little guests. . . . And the other young lady, Miss Gwen Appleby, assistant librarian, co-operated in keeping the children amused and occupied for the hour. . . . Games such as "blockade", and "passing the beans" were played, and the kids had a lot of fun. . . . In fact, Doris had a lot of fun watching them. . . . Every Saturday morning, between the hours of 10 and 11 a.m. a Story Hour is held, and all little children are invited to an entertaining hour. . . . You must attend one of these meetings. . . . You'll certainly enjoy yourself.

Beautiful fall evening gowns were worn by nearly all the ladies for the Easy Aces Bridge Club dance on Saturday evening at the Hollinger Hall. . . . The hall was filled to overflowing, and everyone was in gay spirits throughout the evening. . . . There were nine hostesses who saw that the evening ran smoothly, and they did an excellent job of it. . . . Kenny Tomkinson and his band, supplied the music and played wonderfully the whole evening. . . . To "top" the evening off, refreshments were served to the guests. . . . General remarks were that it was the best time had in a long time. . . . The purpose of this dance is to raise money for cigarettes for local boys overseas, and a grand crowd turned out to help in this patriotic purpose. . . . In fact $100.00 profit was cleared, which is rather good. . . . This will make up about 30,000 cigarettes to send to local boys overseas, they will certainly appreciate it.

Guest speaker at the Ladies' Rally on Friday evening at the Legion Hall was Lieutenant Beatrice Munro, C.W.A.C. . . . Lieut. Munro pointed out that the girls in the army were the "leaders of the future". . . . They took the places of soldiers behind the lines. . . . In other words they were a non-combatant unit. . . . And she stressed the fact that to have victory, you must buy victory bonds, or give your services in this national crisis. . . . The appeal that Lieut. Munro made touched the hearts of all the ladies present. . . . Everyone was simply enraptured by her direct simplicity. . . . The programme for the rally was completed by vocal solos and war pictures shown by the Victory Loan Campaign. . . . Acting as chairman was Mrs. W. A. Devine.

It seems that if you needed an article or a piece of clothing, you wouldn't be at a loss to buy it. . . . In fact, you could get a very good choice. . . . For on Friday, the Dime Club held a very successful rummage sale and Saturday there were two. . . . The Senior Catholic Women's League Sale, and The Mountjoy United Church Sale. . . . Both quite successful. . . . And there'll be more in the near future. . . . But you'll be posted on them in lots of time.

Friday is the night you can take your costume out of moth balls, and wear it to the Timmins Firefighter's annual Halloween Ball at the Riverside Pavilion. . . . Or if you care to, evening dresses may be worn. . . . And afternoon wear is always quite popular. . . . In any case, dress is optional, the main thing is that a good time is had by all. . . . Novelties will be handed out and the evening promises to be full of surprises. . . . And to "top" the evening off, refreshments will be served. . . . The dance sounds like fun, so girls get your best beau to take you down. . . . See you there.

Bouquets to Miss Gloria Stuart, popular actress of Stage, Radio, and Screen for her outstanding performance at the Victory Stage Radio Show at the Palace Theatre on Sunday evening. . . . Blonde and petite Miss Stuart won all hearts with her friendliness and charm. . . . Wearing a pale orchid afternoon frock, with red lining and red sandals, she made her appearance on the stage, with smiles, and spoke a few simple direct phrases, for which she received thunderous applause. . . . The three lucky owners of the bond pledges, who had their bonds delivered personally by Miss Stuart were Misses Yolande Dubien, aged 6 years, Miss Joy Weir, and Miss Norma Claire Bailey, aged 10 years. . . . And assisting in making the show a success was Don Basset, of Toronto, who produced the show, and brought in the sound effects at the right time. . . . Local artists combined talents to make the show one of the finest of the year. . . . The dramatic play presented by Miss Stuart, Vic Coppins and Cy Strange, was touching to all who heard and saw it. . . . And of course, no show would be complete without a touch of humour. . . . Everyone did their bit in the show to make it successful, so we can all help by buying Victory bonds. . . . So come on, everyone, a little helps a lot.

A note of reminder to the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary. . . . On Monday at the general meeting of the L. A., an election of officers will take place. . . . So members, keep this in mind and attend. . . . The annual election which usually took place in December, is taking place in November. . . . Next Monday, in fact.

There hasn't been much news of weddings lately, but to make up for it, there was one on Tuesday morning. . . . The couple are Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Landry, the bride being the former Florence Gendreau. . . . She looked so sweet in the palest of turquoise blue with two of the smartest silver foxes as a neck piece. . . . And of course, accessories in black with a spray bouquet. . . . There was a wedding breakfast, wedding supper, and to climax the day, a large reception in the Harmony Hall in the evening. . . . All the happiness in the world for the young couple.

The members of the Matagami Ladies' Club packed seven boxes for boys overseas on Monday evening at their weekly meeting. . . . The boxes contained all sorts of "goodies", including pickles, fruit, candies, cigarettes, razor blades, a Christmas cake each that one of the members of the club, Mrs. R. Lazenby had made herself, and many other necessary articles. . . . In fact, they even included combs. . . . They say that combs cannot be bought in England at all, so it wouldn't be a bad idea if you people would include a comb in the next box you send over there. . . . But remember to hurry and send your Christmas parcels. . . . You haven't much time left. . . . The Government wants you to have your parcels mailed before the end of the month. . . . And the boys certainly look forward to the little things they receive from home so don't disappoint them. . . . Mail early.

Monday is rehearsal night for the Crusader Chorus at CKGB radio station, commencing at 8 p.m. . . . This is the chorus that performed at the Victory Loan show, and owing to the fact that there were several numbers they didn't render at the show, they wish to have a rehearsal again on Monday to practice these and many others, as they will give a radio performance sometime next week. . . . The Chorus, under the baton of Geo. Hale, can use new voices, particularly male ones, so ladies, get after your husbands to join this choir. . . . And of course, ladies are always welcome.

Friday night at the Lion's Club hall there is going to be a Hard Time Party for the members of the Lion's Club, their wives, and their friends. . . . There will be dancing all evening, completed by refreshments. . . . If you are going wear your oldest clothes, for there will be a prize for the worst-looking outfit. . . . The party starts around 9 p.m. at the Lion's hall. . . . The older the outfit the better it is, so there'll probably be plenty of laughs.

Here is news of interest. . . . Taking place in Windsor on Tuesday, Oct. 27th, was the marriage of Patricia Carson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Carson, Timmins, and William Frederick Wigle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wigle, Amhurstburg, Ont. . . . Rev. Scarrh Macdonald was the officiating minister. . . . The marriage was rather sudden as the groom was notified in the latter part of last week that he was to be transferred to Jacksonville, Florida, thus the hasty marriage, as papers and passports had to be gotten. . . . Remember Pat? . . . She was a popular local girl until a few years ago. . . . She graduated in Occupational Therapy at Toronto University a few years ago, and had been for the past year employed in the Essex Sanatorium in Windsor where the romance started. . . . In fact, she opened the Therapy department there. . . . Well, the couple will be taking up residence in Jacksonville, Florida. . . . I know everyone joins Doris in wishing Pat and her husband all the happiness in the world in their new home, and hope that they can some day in the near future make a trip to Timmins, so that we can congratulate them in person.

Sunday night, following the Victory Loan Show, Lieutenant Beatrice Munro, C.W.A.C., was rushed to St. Mary's Hospital with a bad cold, and a sore throat. . . . But we are very happy to here that Lieut. Munro is rapidly recovering from her cold, and it will be a matter of a few days before she will be discharged from there. . . . A great deal of credit should be given to Lieut. Munro for being such a good trouper. . . . Sunday she had made about three speeches, although being quite ill, and she appeared at the Victory Loan Show with a very hoarse voice, and bad cold. . . . But the good sport that she is, she carried through, and it was not until later, that she weakened. . . . We know that everyone will be glad to see her well and out of the Hospital soon.

Have you filled a ditty bag yet? . . . If not, time is getting very short. . . . Make a sailor happy won't you? . . . Fill a ditty bag. . . . For any information or material, call either Mrs. S. Crews, 111 Hemlock street, or Mrs. H. W. Lloyd, 159 Spruce north. . . . A bag will be delivered to your door immediately.

Geoffrey Morris Back After Two Years in Hospital

The many friends of Geoffrey Morris, who was seriously injured in the accident of Sept. 1940, when a car ran into the rear of a group of Algonquins, on the highway, will be pleased to learn that after 25 months in Christie street hospital, he has been discharged and is now resting at home. Geoffrey during his stay in hospital has had several major operations and has come through with flying colours. At the present time he feels fine and is looking forward to an early return to civil employment. No words of praise can express Mr. Morris's thoughts of the kindnesses shown by the medical and nursing staff of Christie street hospital, during his enforced and prolonged stay.

South Porcupine Pupils Doing Much War Work

South Porcupine, Oct. 28th. Special to The Advance.
The unceasing effort of our public school children in war work should not be overlooked. We learn that during September and October, the children in town have given $273.75 in war-savings stamps. In addition their cent-a-month fund is "adopting" seven prisoners of war (now eight). They have since October 1st filled 28 ditty bags for sailors and given $18.91 to the Upper Canada Tract Society.
This is we consider something to be proud of.
When we remember that it costs around $6 to fill a ditty-bag, we cannot praise the efforts of the youngsters (and their parents) too highly.
