HOW WOULD YOU FEEL-

—If you were fighting—grimly, desperately, to ward off a murderous attack attack on your home. How would you feel... if you cried out to your family for help—the very ones you were defending—and found them so selfish, so indifferent they turned away and let you fight it out alone? That would take the heart right out of you, wouldn't it? You bet it would!

Then, think of your lads overseas—they're looking to you for help... for the planes, ships and guns that will give them an advantage in their fight against your deadly and powerful enemy.

Face the truth — we're confronted with a real and terrible danger. We've all got to help—we've got to give them what they need to fight with... and we can't do it unless we deny ourselves those luxuries and conveniences that not only cost money to buy, but take labour to produce. Sure, those extras make life soft and comfortable—but they don't make it safe.

Remember, we can lose this war if we don't supply those vital war materials. Each one of us must do our share. Any price we pay for freedom is not too high.

Many Convictions at Court This Week

Police Keeping Close Check on Traffic.

At police court Tuesday Leo Rene Perrier was sentenced to thirty days and his license suspended for six months on a charge of dangerous driving. His car hit a bicycle on Second avenue, the bicycle being carried on the car fender for several blocks.

Herman David and Albert Taillefer each paid $20.00 and costs on careless driving charges.

A dangerous driving charge cost R. Barkholder $50.00 and costs.

Jeanette Rollins was given three months on a third offence of drunkenness.

Sentences of six months each were imposed on Pat Cummings and Donald Carpenter and three months on R. Gutter, on breaking and entering charges. These were the young fellows concerned in the robbery of the Tip Top Store last week. Greg. Evans, for the defence, asked for leniency on account of the health of Cummings. Dr. Lane gave evidence to the effect that the young man had been taking treatment at a sanitarium but had been difficult to handle. He needed further treatment. Magistrate Atkinson in imposing sentence said that the young man would be treated and looked after during the six months' term.

Four drunks paid $10 and costs.

Several fines were imposed for minor traffic offences.

There four charges of wife beating, with the husband in one case laying a counter charge of assault. One man was bound over to keep the peace for a year and to leave liquor alone as that seemed to be the cause of his trouble. Another of the men charged was dismissed, the evidence not supporting the charge.
