Hollinger Greenshirts and Buffalo-Ankerite Battle to a 6-6 Tie Last Friday Night

Hollinger Fought the Hard Way, Coming from Behind a Four Goal Deficit to Tie It Up. The Game Was Wide Open and Clean.

The Hollinger Greenshirts again failed to stop the Bisons in the first period and were lucky to make it a tie game. It has been the first period that has beaten them in previous games and they nearly lost this one. Maki opened the scoring on a pass from Smith; he drew out Bentley to flip the rubber in. A minute later H. Carnegie stickhandled his way down the ice, and beat Bentley with a low shot. Hollinger tried hard to cut down the lead but Kemp turned the rubber aside. Patton made it three on a pass from Maki; Dawson was serving a penalty at the time. The Greenshirts did everything but score; they lacked the final punch in front of the goal on several good chances to score. In just over a minute of play in the second period, O. Carnegie grabbed the puck at his own blue line, played the right board right through the Greenshirts' defence and let a hot one go that beat Bentley all the way. Romanick nearly made it five on the face off, his shot hitting the post. The Greenshirts found their stride and penned the Bisons in the blue line. Kemp was lucky on several shots, and one was not so lucky, lying across his goalmouth in a scrimmage. Kovalchuk knocked the puck for the goal. The puck was going past the post. Kemp lying down thought it was going in, put his hand over his head and steered the rubber in for a score. Kovalchuk got credit for the goal. While Cecchini and Patton were off for roughing, the Greenshirts had it their own way, and Petrucci cut the lead down on a pass from Dawson. The Bisons got relief when Morris broke away with H. Carnegie. With only one man back, Herbie slipped the disc over to Barney who was in the clear; he drew out Bentley to make it five to two. With the Bisons short-handed when Belanger was chased for boarding Petrucci, the Greenshirts put on the blue-line pressure again. Kemp was given a hot time of it and had to fall on one which was labelled for the corner. H. Carnegie and Morris went in on Bentley, but this time Bentley out-guessed them. Maki finally beat him from a combination play by Morris and Smith. Just before the gong, Cecchini, Richer and Delmonte combined; the latter shot and then raced in to bang home his own rebound. The third period was all Hollinger after the first few minutes in which Bentley was called on to save from the Carnegie Brothers. The lead was cut when Pontello and Petrucci went in on Kemp, the latter beating him on a nice shot. The Greenshirts ran into some trouble when McKay was banished, and as he came on Tallo went off, but they back-checked and Bentley was not in serious trouble. At the half-way mark Delmonte brought the score down on a pass from Gordon and McKay. The play was wide open now with each team making rushes. The Greenshirts got their chance when Maki was banished for high-sticking Cecchini, and they made good.

Death of Mrs. J. R. Gordon Last Month at Toronto Friends in Timmins and the North will extend very sincere sympathy to Mr. J. R. Gordon of Toronto, in the recent death of his wife, Mrs. Gordon had just returned from a visit to the United States when she was taken ill with pneumonia, and despite all that medical skill and care could do she passed away after a few days' illness. Mr. Gordon, who in recent years has been living retired in Toronto, was one of the pioneer business men of the North. He had grocery and meat stores at Timmins, South Porcupine and Cobalt, in the days when the big chain stores would not consider opening branches in this North, which was then looked upon as a country without an assured future. Mr. Gordon, however, took the venture and for many years served the people of this North in complete and effective way. He was a steady and consistent advertiser and made a regular business of advertising the products in which he dealt. The prices quoted in his advertising not only compared favourably with Southern city prices for foodstuffs, but, though there was a price ceiling at the time of the last war, he kept prices at figure level. He was a generous and a kind man, and his death is a great loss to his family and to the community. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Gordon, and three children. Funeral services will be held at the Timmins Cemetery on Monday, December 22nd, at 2 p.m. Interment will be in the Timmins Cemetery. The funeral services were under the direction of Walker's Funeral Home.

Christmas Party of the South Porcupine Kiwanis

South Porcupine, Dec. 22nd. Special to The Advance. The Kiwanis Club held its regular dinner meeting on Monday at the Air Hotel, and made a Christmas party out of it, including a turkey dinner. They had a Christmas tree, and invited a dozen young guests to dinner. These children had all helped the Kiwanis at their recent carnival by selling tickets, etc., and as a token of their appreciation the Kiwanis issued the invitation. Each boy guest was presented with a pocket-knife and each girl with a box of handkerchiefs by Santa Claus, who also took the gifts from the Christmas tree and presented them to the Club members. These were "exchange" gifts among the members. They all sang carols accompanied on the piano by Kiwanian M. Smith. Young guests present were:— John McLellan, Paul Pearce, Dick Pearce, Colman Ferrigan, Cletus Sullivan, Stewart Macdonald Tommy Gannon, Roy Farrell, Don Somerville and Billy Pearce. Pauline Macdonald, June Logan and Greta Macdonald. Walter Winchell: Beautiful young people are accidents of nature. But beautiful old people are works of art.
