My home will stand throughout a quiet;

This touching poem, "Gratitude", depicting a North Atlantic Convoy. and written by John Ackerson, shows the true feelings of a sailor on a boat, after the battle is won, and the bombers are gone. . . . His mind wanders back to his home, the peace and quiet, the beauty and serenity. . . . Then his mind comes back to the present, and he thinks with determination that he will pro tect all this loveliness. . . . No better way could be shown than this little poem, that by a few words,

Colourful costumes and lilting music were the chief interests at the "Aid to Russia" concert at the Palace theatre on Sunday evening

. . . Dances, songs, and orchestra numbers by the Croation string orchestra were chiefly featured, and proved very entertaining to the large audience in attendance. . . Of course, the Finnish Gymn Group deserve chief mention for their gymnastic ability in performing those difficult feats . . . . . On the whole, the evening was a definite success, donations for the Russia fund being very large in number and amount. . . . Mr. H. C. Scarth was master of ceremonies,

* and chairman for the Russia Fund, and with the co-operation of Mr. Sol Sky, president of the Russia Fund, the evening proved to be very successful. . . . With the amount on hand before the concert was held and the substantial donations at the concert, there should be a large amount in the Fund to aid the Russians. . . Next Sunday evening, another concert will be held at Schumacher, to appeal to the public for funds for the Rus-

It has been the custom of The Advance to announce an engagement only on the authority of one or both of the couple concerned, but in this case, the announcement was received from a reliable source, and therefore Doris took the opportunity of publishing it.

A lovely but quiet wedding took place at Ottawa, on Dec. 30th, 1942, in the afternoon, when Iona Joanisse, of Timmins, and Harry Shephard, of Timmins, and at present in the Signal Corps, at Vimy Barracks, Kingston, took wedding vows

. . . Attendants were Mr. Ted Shephard, brother of the groom, who is employed at Ottawa, and Miss Lorette Smith, also of Ottawa. . . The couple spent several days in Ottawa until the groom left for his post at Kingston, and the bride returned to town where she is at present employed at Metropolitan's store in the office. . . Congratulations are in order for Harry and Iona.

Tuesday evening's train took away ter Greaves, a very devout Legion branch president for four years. . . . At a farewell party held for him on Friday evening at the Legion Hall, he was presented with an engraved gold wrist watch as a token of the esteem in which he is held. . . . All his friends wish him all the luck in his present work, and a speedy and safe return when Victory is won.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Briggs, 19 Commercial avenue, are two young gentlemen of the R.A.F., Pilot Officer Dick Lee, of Bromley, Kent, and Sergeant Pilot Wilford Munday, of Iver, Buckinghamshire, both at present training in Canada. . . . This is their first visit to the North, and do they like the clean, healthy, cold air. . . The boys are being well entertained with parties, dances, bowling, skating and other activities. . Bowling is a game they never saw until they came to Canada, and they are certainly enjoying it. . . We hope that the boys will enjoy their visit so much, that they will return again some day to visit their newly made friends.

Plans have been completed for the Schubert's Choral Society to hold concert once a month. . . They have been asked by the Radio Station to put on these concerts, so that the Society

A lovely black handbag was presented to Mrs. E. Keats, of Timmins, at the Home League supper last Wednesday afternoon at the Salvation Army Hall. . Mrs E. Johns made the presentation and spoke a few words of regret at the departure of Mrs. Keats, . Mrs. Keats is leaving on Friday for Thorold, Ont. where she and her daughter will be taking up residence. . . The League will miss Mrs. Keats, and also the Salvation Army, as she has been a member of the Salvation Army group for the past fourteen years. . . The supper was held for the members only, and following the meal, the members enjoyed an evening full of games, sing-songs, and general merriment.

A lovely wedding was solemnized on Tuesday morning, at 9.15 a.m. at the Church of Nativity, when Barbara Sangster, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Harry Sangster, became the bride of a "What the Church Expects of the Alphonse Matcheski, of Timmins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matcheski, of Barry's Bay. . . The bride wore traditional white and immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was held at the bride's parental home, 33 Commercial avenue, and in the evening, a reception was held at the Hollinger Hall.

Former Smooth Rock Man in Hostel Fire at St. John's

There was general thankfulness here over the fact that apparently no Timmins people and few from the North Land were involved in the recent tragic fire at the K. of C. hostel at St. John's Newfoundland. As time goes on, however, it develops that there were some from the North who were nvolved in the bad accident but who were not announced as from this part of the North. The last issue of The Kapuskasing Northland Tribune refers to one such case in its Smooth Rock Falls correspondence, as follows: "The holiday season was saddened for Smooth Rock residents on learning that Fernand (Val) Vaillancourt, sick berth attendant probabtioner in the R.C.N.V.R. was listed as missing in the recent hostel fire at St. John's. Nfld. Val was manager of the Abitibi mercantile grocery department for several years, and left here in July of this year to serve with the R.C.N. Ladies Adjourn to A. R. P. Rooms Where They Receive Instructions.

The regular monthly meeting of the First United |Church Women's Association was held in the church basement on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 7th at 3 o.m. There were twenty-three ladies present, and Mrs. W. Rinn, president was in the chair.

At the conclusion of the business period, a piano solo by Mrs. A. Gamble was very much enjoyed.

Following this, the ladies adjourned to the A.R.P. rooms at the Municipal Ruilding where they saw and received instructions in the work of the A.R.P. Wardens by Mr. George Drew. It proved most helpful and interesting.

The next meeting of the Association will be held on Thursday, Feb. 4th. The ladies are also planning to hold a sale of home-baking very shortly, but more will be said about it later.

Staking or Chromite Northwest of Cochrane

The New Liskeard Speaker last week says that staking of six claims in Rheaume township, northwest of Cochrane, where evidences of chromite have been found, it was said, was recorded on New Year's Eve at the Min- Death of Baby Boy at the ing Recorder's office in Haileybury. The transaction was in the name of a Toronto man named Boylan and associates, it was stated. Some earlier activities in that same area was reported last year, other claims being staked in January, 1942, it was stated by N. J. McAulay, the Recorder. Mr. McAuley said that during last year things had been rather quiet over much of the territory covered by his jurisdiction, but that there activity in the Temagami section.
