

Dropped Between Stitches

By Doris

Take time to look—it is the price of success;
Take time to think—it is a source of power;
Take time to play—the secret of perennial youth;
Take time to read—the source of wisdom;
Take time to be friendly—the way to happiness!
Take time to laugh—it is the music of the soul.

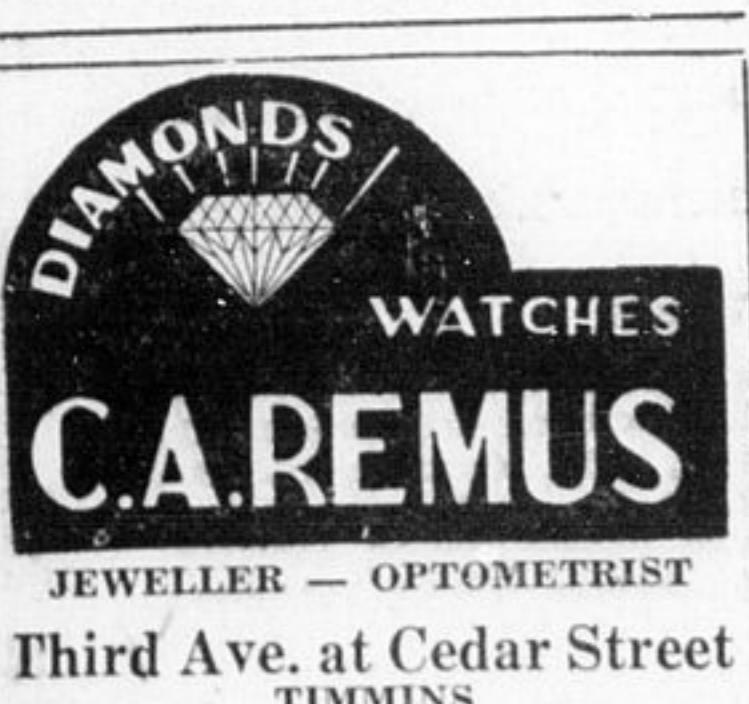

"Take Time," the title of this poem, is giving you a little advice for future happiness... Those few words tell us that if we will only take the time for all those things, everything will be much brighter, and much easier to accomplish... And it only takes a minute to follow one of those simple rules... Remember those words and at your earliest opportunity, practice them.

It appears that the public will have to be very co-operative if the Patriotic Association of the Eastern Star, are to raise over a $1,000.00 to buy one mobile canteen to be sent overseas... The Patriotic Association of Ontario are raising sufficient funds for 20 mobile canteens, and Timmins and district are asked to raise enough for just one. At present, one event has been held, a telephone bridge on Friday evening, and proved very successful with about 14 of the women of the district acting as hostess at a bridge each... Although a great many more events of a similar nature will have to be held before the Association can possibly reach their quota, they got off to a good start on Friday evening with there being fifty tables in attendance and a considerable amount being raised... Keep up the good work ladies.

Old Jack Frost didn't stop the pupils of the fourth and fifth forms of the Timmins High and Vocational School from having their fun at their sleigh-ride on Saturday evening... There were three sleighs and about fifty pupils, who met at the High school, and went out several miles past the Timmins cemetery and back to the High School... Pushing one another in the snow, snow fights and many other pranks occurred on the trips back and forth, and by the time the pupils reached the High school, they were starving and cold, and at once gorged themselves with a delicious lunch served and catered by a few of the staff of the school... Then they danced to several of the popular records in the Auditorium, and by twelve o'clock, all were ready to call it an evening... The boys and girls have voted it one of the best evenings ever held by the High school, and want more like it, so we hope to see more sleigh-rides, skating parties, etc., being held.

At 12 o'clock noon, today, wedding vows were taken by Miss Jean Myles and Mr. Wallace Jamieson at a simple but beautiful ceremony at the First United Church... Of particular interest at the ceremony, was the lovely bridal outfit Jean chose... in keeping with the times, but wearing the old traditional colour, Jean chose a "winter white" afternoon frock becomingly flared, with a white turban and brown accessories... The effect was very breath-taking... Honeymoon followed, the couple leaving on the 15 train for Montreal and the Laurentians, and on their return, will reside at 80 Hemlock St.

Many of the friends of Miss Jean Myles, bride of today, gathered at her apartment to surprise her with a bathroom shower on

Wedding of Jean Myles and Wallace Jamieson To-day

Wedding at 12 Noon, and Couple Leave on Noon Train for Honeymoon.

A very lovely but quiet wedding was solemnized at the First United Church, at 12 o'clock, noon, when Jean Bernice Myles, of Timmins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bruce Myles, of Thornbury, Ontario, became the bride of Wallace Samuel Jamieson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. Jamieson, Reverend W. M. Mustard officiated at the ceremony, and Mr. Herbert Treneer supplied the organ music.

The bride was daintily attired in a two-piece winter white frock of wool jersey, with gold applique at shoulders and on the three-quarter length sleeves. The jacket was buttoned to the neck, and had a slight flare at the back. She wore a turban of the same material as the dress, with a shoulder length veil of frosty green, brown accessories and carried a bouquet of Talciman roses.

Attending the bride as matron of honour, was Mrs. J. W. Jackson, who chose as her cut-out, a navy sheer two-piece ensemble, with white touches, a large navy picture hat and navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Surviving are his widow, the former Margaret Irwin, and three daughters. They are Mrs. Frank Duval of Toronto, Mrs. Russell Pettifer in New Liskeard, and Mrs. C. Hynds, whose home is in Timmins. Another daughter, Evelyn, died young, and Mr. Routliffe's only son, Samuel Earl, died as a child. Three brothers, Austin of Kenogami, and Edward and Cuthbert of Aylmer, also left. There are thirteen grandchildren.

On their return, the couple will reside at 80 Hemlock street.

Gifts to the matron of honour and bridesmaid were gold earrings, and the gift to the best man was cuff links.

Prior to her wedding, the bride was entertained at a bathroom shower, hostess being Misses Ruby Patterson and Catherine Thompson. She was also hostess at a trousseau shower on Tuesday afternoon.

Another Pioneer of New Liskeard Area Died Last Week

In recent years it has been saddening to see the members of pioneers of this North who are passing on—the men and women who have made possible this country with its great promise. The passing of another of these pioneers was recorded in The New Liskeard Speaker last week. The speaker said:

"The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon of this week for the late Ernest Routliffe, pioneer citizen of Temiskaming district who died on Sunday in the Lady Minto hospital here. The Rev. R. M. Dingwall, minister of the Thorncore circuit of the United Church, officiated at the services, held at the home of the deceased gentleman at Hanbury, and also at the graveside in Hanbury cemetery.

The late Mr. Routliffe had been in poor health for the past two years, although he had been a patient in hospital for just a week before his death. Born at Aylmer, P.Q., on March 24, 1868, he came to this district about 40 years ago with his father-in-law, David Irwin, going into Hanbury township to carry on lumbering operations. Some years after, Mr. Routliffe was joined by members of the family, their home for a time being on the fourth concession of the township, and for more than twenty years past at Hanbury, where Mrs. Routliffe was a prominent woman.

Mr. Routliffe was a son of the late William and Elizabeth Routliffe. A carpenter by vocation, he had followed that trade in the Ottawa Valley before moving to Temiskaming in the earlier days of settlement here. He had continued that occupation during his residence in the North Country, and also, in company with his brother Austin, had engaged in prospecting in the White River country northeast of here, but without making any important finds, it was stated.

Surviving are his widow, the former Margaret Irwin, and three daughters. They are Mrs. Frank Duval of Toronto, Mrs. Russell Pettifer in New Liskeard, and Mrs. C. Hynds, whose home is in Timmins. Another daughter, Evelyn, died young, and Mr. Routliffe's only son, Samuel Earl, died as a child. Three brothers, Austin of Kenogami, and Edward and Cuthbert of Aylmer, also left. There are thirteen grandchildren.

On their return, the couple will reside at 80 Hemlock street.

Gifts to the matron of honour and bridesmaid were gold earrings, and the gift to the best man was cuff links.

Prior to her wedding, the bride was entertained at a bathroom shower, hostess being Misses Ruby Patterson and Catherine Thompson. She was also hostess at a trousseau shower on Tuesday afternoon.

Next Week to be Canadian Girls in Training Week Here

A memo from the Girls' Work Board of the Ontario Religious Education Council says:

There are forty thousand Canadian Girls in Training and during the week of Feb. 7th to 14th we are to hear about this programme for teen-age girls begun twenty-eight years ago within the Protestant churches of the Dominion. The girls wear a uniform the chief part of which is the middy which originated in the Navy. It is worn with dark skirt, tie and insignia. During the visit of Their Majesties to Canada, Queen Elizabeth commented several times upon its attractiveness.

During C.G.I.T. Week which follows the National Boys' Week and will be inaugurated by a Joint Boys' and Girls' Sunday in many churches, congregations will be given an opportunity to learn of this method of Christian Education through such events as a Church service, Parents' or Family Night, Mother and Daughter Banquet or further joint activities with boys' groups. The theme for the week is "Turn You and Take Your Journey."

What is C.G.I.T.?

The ideal C.G.I.T. group is the Sunday School class meeting in the mid-week. The purpose is the development of Christian character through vital connection with the whole life of the church. Mid-week programmes include worship, business, project, activity, games and singing, with fun and fellowship as important factors. The success of a group is judged in terms of growth—knowledge, skills, attitudes, Christian citizenship, relationships in daily living.

Provincial Girls' Work Boards, their Secretaries and denominational secretaries direct the planning of programmes and other work. National oversight is given through the National Girls' Work Board of the Religious Education Council of Canada by means of publications and the work of the National Girls' Work Secretary, Miss Jacobson. Provincial camps are promoted during the summer months and 5,000 girls attended C.G.I.T. camps in 1942.

In Ontario C.G.I.T. week is also Finance Week when contributions are made in support of the Ontario Girls' Work Board.

Reports of various committees were heard and plans made for future meetings.

A very commendable number of knitted garments, particularly service garments were turned in during January. Members are urged to increase their effort if possible, as many more are needed.

After the business meeting was over, a sing-song and games were enjoyed.

The next meeting will be held on Monday, Feb. 15th.

Young Lady Has Fine Returned One Day Double Fine the Next

Only a Couple of Interesting Cases at Police Court

Tuesday's police court had no particular highlights, except in the fact that there was a sequel to one case on Wednesday morning. Nina Rose Menard pleaded guilty Monday night to obtaining liquor while a minor and was fined 10.00 and costs.

In Tuesday's police court, John Rozon was charged with giving liquor to minors, including the Menard girl. In court the girl swore she did not give them liquor and that they told the police she had, only because they were frightened. "You must have been frightened of me, too," said the magistrate, who refused the $10 to the young lady of eighteen. There was no evidence to convict Rozon so the case was dismissed. Tuesday night, however, the police found the Menard girl drinking beer in a local hotel. She came before the Wednesday morning court and was fined $20.00 and costs.

The other case of interest at Wednesday's session was that of Arthur J. Servais, charged with buying beaver pelts from a person other than a licensed trapper. He was fined $20.00 and costs each for nine beaver, a total of 180.00 and costs being paid. The charge against Mrs. Leclair for trapping without a license was withdrawn.

For having liquor not on his permit Hermas Paul was fined $100.00 and costs.

Those present were Mrs. J. Shaw,

Mrs. W. Johnson, Mrs. F. Curtis, Mrs. B. Ketley, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. E. Tilley, Mrs. R. Hardy, Mrs. H. Pope, Mrs. L. McLaren, Mrs. W. A. Devine, Mrs. R. Smith, Mrs. B. Richards, Mrs. J. Grant, Mrs. L. Nicholson, Mrs. F. Hornby, and Mrs. M. Olsen.
