

Dropped Between Stitches

By Doris

We live in deeds, not years; in thought, not breaths; in feelings, not in figures on a dial. We should count time by heart-throbs; by most lives Who think most, feels the noblest, acts the best.

Little deeds, thoughtful actions, all add up to a lot, says Philip James Bailey, in this short verse . . . Deeds, feelings, and thoughts, those are the things that count.

Wednesday, March 10th, at 2 p.m. at the Timmins First United Church, has been the date set for the marriage of Miss Mabel Durrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Durrell, of Timmins, and Hugh Allan, of the R.C.A.S.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Allan, of New Liskeard. . . The wedding is to be a very informal one, the bride choosing a suit as her wedding outfit. . . Honouring the bride was Mrs. Barney Morris, at a lovely miscellaneous shower on Saturday evening, where the honouree was the recipient of many lovely gifts, and was also presented with a bride's book, compiled by all the guests present.

The Notre Dame de Lourdes Church was the scene of a quiet wedding on Saturday morning, at 8 a.m., when Adrienne Desrosiers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Desrosiers, Timmins, became the bride of Roger Charlier, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Charlier, of Timmins. . . A small reception followed.

Honouring Mr. and Mrs. A. Salhani prior to their leaving town were Mr. and Mrs. George Elies, of 45 Fourth avenue, at a small dinner party, on Friday evening. . . Guests included Mrs. M. Shaheen, Mrs. Able Elies, Miss Doris Shaheen, and Mr. George Shaheen. . . Following the dinner, friends dropped in during the evening, and cards were played, lunch bringing the delightful evening to a close. . . A personal gift was presented to Mrs. A. Salhani by Mrs. Elies as a parting token, the gift being graciously received by the honouree who expressed her regret on leaving Timmins and her many, fine friends. . . Guests during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. M. Daher, Mr. and Mrs. D. Essa, Miss Emma Elies, Mrs. N. Elies, Mrs. G. Teen, Mrs. Rose Elies, and a few others.

The Past Matrons' Club of the Arbutus Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star are holding a Patriotic tea and bake sale at the home of Mrs. E. A. F. Day, 82 Hemlock street, on Wednesday, March 10th, from 3 to 6 p.m. . . The proceeds are to be used by the Patriotic Association for a mobile canteen being bought by this district. . . At present, one event has been held, and has proved very successful, and it is the hope of the Association that the public will patronize the tea on March 10th, as well as the last event that will be held. . . Everybody is welcome to come, as the afternoon will prove very delightful.

Sunday, Feb 22th, at 2 p.m., in Toronto a wedding of local interest took place, when Dorothy "Tisky" Sharp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sharp, of the Hallnor Mines, became the bride of Sergeant-Pilot Lloyd Durkin, R.C.A.F., son of Dr. and Mrs. L. H. Durkin, formerly of Timmins, and now of Toronto. . . Miss Florence Sharp, sister of the bride, was her only attendant, and Mr. Malcolm Baker, formerly of Timmins, but now of Toronto, was best man. . . After a brief honeymoon, the bride will return to her home here, and the groom will resume his duties with the R.C.A.F. . . Congratulations are in order for the young couple, both being well-known in Timmins and district. . . And their many friends extend to them the best wishes for all the happiness in the world.

Miss Margaret Tonelli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tonelli, of Timmins and Mr. Emanuel Beauchamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Beauchamp, of South Porcupine, have set their wedding date for Monday, March 8th, the wedding to take place at the Sacred Heart Church, with Father Fontana officiating. . . More news will appear later about the wedding.

An enjoyable half-hour was presented by the Schubert's Choral Society over C. K. G. B., on Tuesday evening, commencing at 7:30 p.m. . . This programme was sponsored by the Retail Merchants' Association, to assist in the drive for funds for the Red Cross. . . The choir under the baton of George Hale, with Mrs. Hanson at the piano, rendered many lovely numbers including three Welsh numbers, "All Through the Night", "Ash Grove", and "Men of Harlech". . . Solos by Joe Jago and Mr. E. Williams were also pleasing, as was the duet presented by Miss Bernice McGrath and Miss Lillian Hale. . . It is the hope of the choir that they will be able to present more of these concerts in the near future, but at present rehearsals must continue with one being held on Monday evening at the Radio Station, at 8 p.m. . . A large attendance is asked for.

Friday March 12th, is the World Day of Prayer, and is being observed by all churches throughout the country. . . The service for this district is being held at the Salvation Army hall, commencing at 2:30 p.m., and ladies representing the various churches will take part in the programme, with Mrs. Douglas Church leading the service. . . All ladies of the community are welcome, as the money received from the offerings are to be used for Christian literature to be sent to the home and foreign missions. . . The service will be very pleasing and all are asked to come.

Mrs. L. Halperin, of 7 Maple south, was hostess to the Arbutus Chapter knitting group on Monday evening, where a pleasant evening was spent with a lunch being served at the close of the evening by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Vi Morrow and Mrs. Labow. . . Mrs. Fred Jackson poured tea. . . The next knitting event will be held on Monday, March 15th, at the home of Mrs. A. Leach, 17 Windsor avenue, and a large attendance is asked for.

Those who had the privilege of hearing Viggo Kihl, noted concert pianist, and examiner of the Toronto Conservatory of Music were definitely thrilled at hearing such a noted performer. . . While in town examining pupils studying under piano teachers, Viggo Kihl put on a concert on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Vary, Buffalo-Ankerite property, in which he was the sole performer. . . Over 50 noteworthy guests were present, including members of the Porcupine Music Teachers' Association, and all had the general opinion that they had heard nothing equal to this pianist of great renown. . . His numbers included those from great composers such as Bach, Mozart, and Chopin, and at the conclusion of his concert, he was graciously thanked by Mr. George Jenkin for his fine music. . . Viggo Kihl is well-known in both Canada, United States, and abroad, having played in all parts of the country and is greatly known for his fine playing.

The Women's Missionary Society of the First United Church will hold their annual Bake sale from 3 to 6 p.m. . . This year the special feature will be a sale of White Elephants. . . And a cup of tea will be served for the nominal fee of 10c. . . All are asked to come, as the afternoon will be very pleasing.

Princess Alice Club Meet Monday for General Meet

Various Reports Given Including One from Dental Convener.

The Princess Alice Club held a general meeting Monday afternoon in the dining room of the Empire Hotel. The president, Mrs. J. W. Thomson, occupied the chair, and the secretary, Mrs. O. R. Kinnic, acted as secretary of the meeting. . . The club members were happy to have their Honorary President, Mrs. James E. Barry, with them at the meeting and her interesting and helpful suggestions were much appreciated. . . Mrs. L. Marshall, in the absence of the knitting convener, and Mrs. C. Irvine, the convener of the Surgical Supplies, gave their reports of the work accomplished during the past months. . . The Dental convener, Mrs. E. T. Brill, read a letter from Miss Simpson of the Public Health Department, thanking the Club for the donation of two gross of tooth brushes for school children. . . A donation of $25.00 which had previously been set aside for the Red Cross was unanimously voted to be given to them for their drive commencing this week. . . In order to raise money for war relief purposes, the members of the Club decided to hold a dance in the near future and various committees to organize the dance were formed. . . Owing to the departure from Timmins of Mrs. R. Taylor, Publicity Agent for the Club, Mrs. M. R. McNulty was named to take her place. . . At the close of the meeting, an enjoyable tea was served to the members.

Friday March 12th, is the World Day of Prayer, and is being observed by all churches throughout the country. . . The service for this district is being held at the Salvation Army hall, commencing at 2:30 p.m., and ladies representing the various churches will take part in the programme, with Mrs. Douglas Church leading the service. . . The United Church manse was the scene of a quiet but lovely wedding on Tuesday afternoon, at 5:30 p.m., when Theresa Polmateer, daughter of Pte. and Mrs. Sherman Polmateer, of Montiel, became the bride of Gordon "Dick" Strong, of Timmins, son of Mrs. W. E. Strong and the late Mr. Strong, of Gunnis Lake, Cornwall, England. The Reverend W. M. Mustard officiated. The bride was daintily attired in a quilted afternoon frock of robin's-egg blue crepe, with brown accessories. She wore a corsage of Talisman roses. Her only attendant was Mrs. Ethel Polmateer, as matron of honour, wearing a blue afternoon frock, brown accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. W. E. Strong. Following the ceremony, a wedding supper and reception was held at the home of the groom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Strong, 15 Main avenue. The bride's mother relieved the guests, wearing a navy blue afternoon frock with a corsage of carnations, and was assisted by Mrs. W. E. Strong, lovely in a black sheer frock. . . Over 40 guests were present for the event to wish the happy couple many years of wedded happiness. . . The bride's father, Pte. Sherman Polmateer of the Veteran Home Guards, was unable to attend. . . A telegram was received from Corporal Tim Trevena, of Espanola, who was unable to be present. . . The couple have taken up residence at 59 Balsam south.
