

Sudbury Frood Tigers Win N.O.H.A. Championship From Porcupine All-Stars 4 Games to 1

Sudbury Frood Tigers Meet the Toronto R. C. A. F. Team in the Allen Cup Play-Downs. Game Friday Was Full of Action. Vezina Replaced Porter After First Period.

The curtains were drawn down on the N.O.H.A. senior hockey last Friday at the McIntyre Arena, and Sudbury Frood Tigers will represent the North in further quest for the Allen Cup.

The game last Friday was the fifth in a four out of seven series, Sudbury taking four and Porcupine All-Stars one. The All-Stars had the edge throughout the game and had Porter been on top of the plays, the series might have gone for a sixth game.

H. Carnegie scored the best goal seen at the arena, when he got the draw at the start of the game. He sidestepped Blake, then tricked the defense and beat Gerth all in the space of 20 seconds.

Getting the draw again, he passed the disc to his brother when Webster blocked his path. Ossie let drive one of his famous shots that rebounded off the post.

Vaillancourt tied it up 3 minutes later on a long shot from the left boards, Dewey and Lahti being on the play. 20 seconds later Dewey got the draw and passed to Vaillancourt, who relayed the puck back to Dewey to put the Tigers one up.

Gerth made two fine saves from the Carnegie boys, and Porter cleared from Hastie.

The Tigers went two up when Gee beat Porter on another long shot. This started a Tiger scoring bee. Dewey came out of the corner and both Houlouka and McKay let him circle the net to slip the rubber past Porter. In less than a minute Dewey again scored by lifting a loose puck over Porter's back during a scramble, to make it 5-1.

The All-Stars went on the offensive for the rest of the period and gave Gerth plenty to do. After stopping Petrucci, O. Carnegie beat him on a pass from H. Carnegie and Petrucci.

For the next 5 minutes Gerth had stopped rubber fired at him from 8 All-Star players, while Porter only had one stop from Vaillancourt.

O. Carnegie cut the Tigers' lead on a pass from his brother. Three minutes later MacLenahan got back the goal on dual pass by Dewey and Lahti.

Hobe Essietine made a switch for the remainder of the game by putting Vezina in the net in place of Porter, and Vezina was soon tested out by Gee and Vaillancourt. At the other end O. Carnegie's shot just missed the mark.

Wink Wilson got a pass from Maki and got into the clear and beat Gerth. The All-Stars had a great chance when Webster was chased for roughing, but the Tigers played air-tight defense.

Vezina made fine saves as Hastie went right in on him a couple of times, and three others before the play went to Gerth where Wilson cut the Tigers' lead to one goal when he beat Gerth with a back-hand shot, after Gerth had stopped him twice.

Webster was chased again for holding, and during a gangling, Gee broke fast and beat Vezina and with 5 seconds to go Blake slipped Hastie's pass into an empty net; Vezina had stepped out to clear.

Wink Wilson got his third goal and the only goal scored in the third stanza in less than two minutes from the start on a pass from Petrucci. Baker nearly added another. Gerth just got his mitt on it in time.

The Tigers put on an offensive and Vezina excelled himself in clearing rubber. Dewey went in alone and eight more shots were cleared from Vaillancourt, Hastie, Carriere and Dewey. The last from Dewey resulted in a penalty shot, referee Graham claiming McKay held the puck out. Gee took the shot and shot wide of the net.

Gee went in twice on Vezina alone and Lahti did the same but Vezina out-guessed them. Gerth at the other end saved from both Maki and Baker.

Houlouka was chased for tripping and Carriere followed him for holding H. Carnegie as he was going in on Gerth. O. Carnegie was unlucky when his shot went over the net and struck Gerth's skate as he lay on the ice.

Before the game ended Vezina cleared from Lahti, Carriere and Gee; and Gerth twice, from O. Carnegie.

Three Fined Tuesday on Charges of Disorderly Conduct

Important Cases Remanded to Next Week's Police Court.

Disorderly conduct is not a profitable business as three young fellow found out in police court on Tuesday to their cost—and a ten dollar fine each. One young fellow pleaded guilty and was fined $10.00 and costs. Another fellow pleaded not guilty but admitted that he was annoyed because the police officer was interested in a bottle of wine he was carrying on street. The officer said that this fellow used loud and vulgar language. "Ten and costs," said the magistrate. The third lad was Adrien Labrassier. A young lady from the Star Cafe swore that he entered the cafe and smashed the glass on a juke box. The damage was about five dollars. "Was he drunk?" the magistrate asked. "Well, he was pretty tight," the young lady replied. "That will be $10 and costs and an additional $5.00 for the cafe for the damage done," was the verdict of the magistrate.

The deaf mute who has been in court each week for several days but who could not be tried on account of there being no way of communicating with him, as he can not read or write, was sent to an institution for 60 days and his case was remanded to May 4th for a report on his condition.

A lady whose boy was picked up wandering the streets after midnight was charged with allowing her son to be out on the streets at improper hours. She was warned to keep the boy at home at night, and the case was withdrawn. Another woman facing a similar charge is to come before the court next week.

Two young fellows—one just sixteen and the other some months younger—faced charges of breaking and entering in connection with recent robberies at the Royal Studio and at Imperial Motor Sales. A remand was granted in both cases.

Three minors were each fined $10.00 and costs for illegally consuming beer, and five young men were charged with having beer in an hotel room, while they were not registered guests at the hotel. Each of these cases was remanded for a week, the hotel also being charged, but not having been served in time for the court.

The several charges against the Union Brewery and employees of the brewery were remanded a week at the request of counsel for the defence, S. C. Platus, K.C., a new case having been instituted some hours before and not leaving the solicitor time to study the case.

Four ordinary run-of-the-mine drunks were assessed $10.00 and costs each.

A dog running at large was responsible for one citizen being fined $1.00 and costs.

Modest Funeral for One of World's Richest Men

Simple funeral services were held at New York on Tuesday of this week for J. Pierpont Morgan, international financier, and one of the world's richest men. The late J. P. Morgan was recognized all over the world as one of the most prominent bankers and financial wizards.

Despite the wealth of the family there was no ostentation at the Morgan funeral. Everything about the funeral was kept on the most modest lines. There were no flowers, and the funeral was completed without palbearers. Only members of the late Mr. Morgan's family, intimate friends and business associates were present at the funeral, the service being held in old St. George's Protestant Episcopal Church on Stuyvesant Square, New York, when the Rev. Rush R. Sloan read the funeral service of the Episcopal Book of Common Prayer. After the service at the church the body was taken to a crematory.

In Canada may be 25 per cent below average. However, there is plenty of time for getting excited about this; and, meantime, there can't be any hoarding.

Movies Now Go to the People

This is the afternoon for Canadian movies in the country school at Appleton, Ontario, and the projectionist, Bill Ritchie, is starting the show. The pictures are productions of the National Film Board of Canada, now being distributed widely in rural Canada. They form part of a project in education for citizenship sponsored by the Dominion in co-operation with the provinces. Bill Ritchie is only one of sixty projectionists who operate these educational travelling theatres. They travel by automobile, by train, and sometimes in winter by sleigh. Like the other operators, Ritchie gives a show a day to school children. The principal movies on this programme for the coming month are "Freighters Under Fire," about the Battle of the Atlantic, and a special item for schools called "Fur Country," describing the life of the trappers in the Region of Hudson's Bay.

At night, Ritchie, and all the projectionists of the National Film Board Rural Circuit, show the films to the grown-ups. The audience comes from miles around, eager, interested, with a thirst for knowledge of the war that produces surprising results. One of these, a totally unexpected reaction, is the forum discussion which almost invariably takes place after the show. Farmers, merchants, lumbermen talk the picture over, and questions fly. Projectionists were, at first, technicians. To-day, they are a little more than that. They are virtually masters of ceremonies, conducting forum discussions and answering questions.

Because the scattered residents of many rural communities seldom have the opportunity or incentive to get together in large groups, these forums have provided splendid opportunities for a general exchange of opinion on the whole important question of the war and its meaning to Canadians.

Many interesting suggestions have been made by members of the rural movie audiences. The little Indian boys on the Spanish Reservation in Ontario wrote some essays on the new form of entertainment in which they said they enjoyed the movies very much especially the pictures of canoes and locomotives. They did, however, have one suggestion for their improvement. They thought there should be more pictures of Indians chasing white men.

Timmins Young Lady in Air Force Women's Division Married at N. Bay

Cpl. Judy O'Neill and Sgt. Pilot Wm. Mann Wedded

Friends in Timmins and district will be interested in the marriage at North Bay on Saturday of Corporal Judy O'Neill, of the R.C.A.F. (W.D.), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. O'Neill of Timmins, and Sergeant Pilot Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mann, Leamington, Ont. All here will extend sincere good wishes to the couple. The bride is a Timmins girl, popular here in many circles, with a brilliant scholastic career at Timmins High and Vocational School and later being on the teaching staff of the Holy Family Separate School. She left the teaching profession a couple of years ago to join the R.C.A.F. Women's Division. For some time she has been stationed at North Bay Recruiting Centre R.C.A.F. Women's Division. Some weeks ago she was in the mobile unit visiting Timmins for recruits.

The North Bay Nugget on Tuesday carried a group picture of the happy couple and their attendants. Shown in the picture were Sergeant Pilot W. Mann and his bride; Corporal Emma Gareau, of the R.C.A.F. (W.D.), the bridesmaid; and Flight Lieutenant J. C. Lafollet, the groomsmen.

Elsewhere in Tuesday's Nugget is the following account of the wedding:—
Mann — O'Neill

The rectory of the Pro-Cathedral of the Assumption was the scene of a charming wedding on Saturday, March 13, when Cpl. Judy O'Neill of the R.C.A.F. (W.D.), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. O'Neill of Timmins, was united in marriage with Sgt. Pilot William Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mann, Leamington, Ont. Rev. Father Humphrey officiated.

The bride was lovely in a shell pink jersey street length dress with pearls and a corsage of blue iris. She wore a black fitted hat with shoulder length veil and matching accessories.

Cpl. Emma Gareau of the R.C.A.F. (W.D.) attended the bride.

Flt. Lieut. James C. Lafollet was best man.

After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was held in the St. Regis Hotel.

The groom is stationed at Virdean, Manitoba, where he is flying instructor with the R.C.A.F.

Must Have New Discoveries to Save Canadian Mining

In an address to the Kirkland Lake Mining Institute this week, J. C. MacGregor, a well-known geologist, and president of the Lake District Mining Company, said that unless there were new discoveries developed the Canadian mining industry would not be good for more than another twenty years. "Canada's mines can play an important part in post-war reconstruction," Mr. MacGregor said, "but unless steps are taken to discover new mines, the industry will cease to be a factor in Canadian economy. He said that the few new mines had been discovered in the last twenty years.

About 2,000,000,000 had been taken from Ontario mines and perhaps twice that amount could be taken from the existing mines before their depletion.

Mr. MacGregor said that present day mines were found in the 10 per cent outcrop of the pre-Canadian shield open to prospectors, but 90 per cent remained untapped in areas not amenable to surface prospecting. He urged careful mapping of favourable geological areas, compilation of complete data and drilling of favourable sections.

It was Mr. MacGregor's opinion that the day of the prospector is over. He ventured the belief that mine operators and the governments hereafter will have to place their reliance on the geologist and his science to find new mines needed to assure continuity of the industry.

Many thoughtful people will share the views of Mr. MacGregor, but there is another school of thought that believes that the prospector will resume his work after the war is over and that once started again he will be the means of discovering new sources of mineral wealth.

Claims Cobalt Imported Though Plenty in Canada

OTTAWA, March 16. — J. W. Noseworthy (C.C.F. York South) said in the House of Commons last night that he understood there was an abundance of cobalt in Northern Ontario, and that cobalt for refining was being imported, while owners of Northern Ontario properties were unable to obtain either permission or priority rights to develop these properties. He had heard that one mining corporation gradually was buying up all the properties.

Mr. Noseworthy said he had asked for information about a report made by a representative of the Ontario mines department. For some reason this report had been withdrawn and a revised edition made public only recently.

Emperor Haile Selassie Sends $1,000 to Red Cross

Good people in every walk of life give to the Red Cross. No doubt if people knew the sacrifices made by some to give to the Red Cross they would be touched. Those connected with the Red Cross are seldom surprised at the source of any donation because they are so accustomed to receiving contributions from the most unexpected places. Nevertheless the Ottawa headquarters must have been somewhat surprised this week when a donation of $1,000.00 came from Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia. The money came in the form of a transfer of funds from the London office of the Canadian Bank of Commerce exchange department. It is being directed to the National Headquarters of the Red Cross at Toronto. After all, however, it is not so surprising that such a handsome donation should come from so great a distance to the Canadian Red Cross. The Canadian Red Cross goes over the wide world. Wherever there is suffering and need, there the Red Cross will be found, so perhaps, it is not surprising that support for the Canadian Red Cross comes from far places and unexpected quarters.

Donations Sent by Women's Institute at Regular Meeting

St. Patrick's Programme Presented by Ladies at Wednesday Meeting.

At the meeting of the Women's Institute held Wednesday afternoon at the Hollinger Hall, donations were made to the Red Cross, the Bomb Victim's fund, and the Chinese Relief Fund. A box of clothes was packed and sent to the Russian Relief fund.

After the business period was completed, a St. Patrick's programme was presented, ably conveyed by Mr. T. Marriott.

"When Irish Eyes were Smiling" was rendered by Mrs. J. Griffin, and community singing of Irish songs was enjoyed by the ladies, with Mrs. W. Johnson at the piano.

Games were played; those included a word contest, won by Mrs. A. Jack, Mrs. R. MacLaren, and Mrs. A. McCharles.

"Driving the Snakes out of Ireland" was also enjoyed, winners being Mrs. W. Johnson and Mrs. J. Griffin. Lunch was served at the close of the afternoon, with the table being daintily set with St. Patrick serviettes. Those serving were Mrs. T. Marriott, Mrs. A. J. McDonald, Mrs. J. Harnden, Mrs. Mair, and Mrs. C. Briggs. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, April 21st.

Callander District Now Has Epidemic of Twins

Callander district has won world-wide fame because of the birth in that area of the quintuplets. Callander, however, does not seem to wish to rest on its Dionne laurels. It is at it again, this time the stork trouble being twins. Other places have been having influence in epidemic form, while Callander has been suffering from an epidemic of twins. Last week-end there were two sets, or pairs, or couples, or what-have-you, of twins born in or near Callander. Mrs. Paul Gauthier, of Powassan, in the Callander zone, gave birth during the week-end to a seven-pound baby boy and a twin sister that tipped the scale at a little more than half that weight—four and a half pounds, to be exact. Then there was Callander itself in the twin business! Mrs. Peter Coroux, of Callander, had two baby girls. One of these twins weighed eight pounds and the other, seven pounds.

Two Quilts Completed by Women's Institute

Mrs. H. McIntosh, of 80 Hollinger avenue, was hostess to the Women's Institute quilting bee on Tuesday evening.

Two quilts were completed during the evening, and at the close of the evening, Mrs. McIntosh, assisted by Mrs. J. Harnden, served a dainty lunch.

Those present were Mrs. C. Briggs, Mrs. J. Kinsey, Mrs. Drummond, Mrs. Bates, Mrs. E. Brand, Mrs. J. Harnden, Mrs. D. Ellis, Mrs. Muir, Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. Jack, Mrs. A. McCharles, and Mrs. H. McIntosh.
