

Holman Pluggers Won the Northern Ontario Juvenile Championship Saturday

Defeated Garson Merchants, of Sudbury, 9 to 8, Thus Winning the Two-Game Contest with a Total Goal Score of 26 to 18 on the Round. Babando was the Chief Scorer for Timmins Team.

The Holman Pluggers Timmins own clever juvenile hockey team, won the Northern Ontario Juvenile Championship on Saturday with the defeat of the Garson Merchants, of Sudbury. Despatches from Sudbury say that the best team won, with a decisive majority of goals on the round. In the two-game series, Timmins won both games. Saturday's game was won with a score of 9 to 8, in favour of the Holman Pluggers. The previous game was won by the Pluggers with a score of 17 to 10. Timmins thus won the round and the Juvenile Championship with a total score of 26 to 18 on the round. The first score was so large on both sides that it did not leave a very good indication of the play. The second game was more like what it should be although even a 9 to 8 score does not fully suggest the good brand of hockey dished up. In referring to the game as given in despatches from Sudbury, the following is one account of the game that won the championship:—

Legion Smoker on Saturday Again a Successful Event

There was only a very small attendance at the Legion smoker, held on Saturday evening in the Legion club-rooms, "Jerry" Harris (who received the well-wishes of the members present upon his 25th wedding anniversary) was in the chair. A short programme was carried through with the "Legion Quartette" highlighting the evening. This consisted of James Cowan, Les Nicholson, Fred Curtis and pinch-hitting for Joe Ormston was Walter Avery. The musical director had to line up his forces for the attack and the boys got started. "Les" sang "Good-bye-e-e" which was first sung. Then Jim with "tray"—a la-tambourine gave the Army's version of the song. Fred imitated the English aristocracy in his usual style, and Walter sang the same theme in "Cousin-Jack." The musical score arranged by the pianist helped materially in support of the performance. This was a scream and one enjoyed by all. Walter Avery, sang two popular old-timers. Art Jenkin, was in good form and also rendered two very good vocal numbers. Bob Whiteman read his version of "Old Sweats' Night" which was another highlight of the evening. Fred Curtis rendered two comic songs. Major Porter, of the V. G. of C., obliged with several numbers mostly of Irish strain, "Danny Boy," "Mother Machree," etc. Major Porter has a strong tenor voice and his selections were received with much appreciation. The Major is a nephew of Dr. A. S. Porter and will always be a welcomed visitor to the Legion club. W. A. Devine acted in his usual capacity as pianist and helped to carry the event to a successful end. Jimmy Ormston also played piano selections during the evening.

A "Ration Card" lunch was served this being plain cheese, soda biscuits and dill pickles. Jimmy Gordon won the "little lady" off the piano. The third smoker of the present season came to a close at the regular time period.

They Had Some Bananas and Then They Had None

The Powassan News last week says:—The first bananas in months and months reached Powassan on Monday evening, when James Lechlitter, local confectioner, brought down two bunches from a shipment received by National Grocers in North Bay that day. Mr. Lechlitter just happened to be on the spot, else he would have been out of luck. The coveted fruit was snapped up in no time by townspeople at 14 cents per pound, which is the ceiling price. There's no telling when more of this fruit will be available. When the editor got there the stalks were bare and Jim sang out: "Yes, we HAD some bananas."

Staker of Tommy Burns Mine Dies at Kirkland Lake

Kirkland Lake, March 31—Another well known prospector passed away in Kirkland Lake recently in the person of Tommy Burns in his 69th year. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Margaret Burns, 24 King street. Tommy Burns died at the Continental Mine Property a few days ago and was engaged in mining operations until his death. The Continental Mine is situated near Gull Lake and is five miles from Kirkland Lake.

Mr. Burns had been a resident of Northern Ontario for 35 years, prospecting the district between Cobalt and Porcupine. He staked the "Tommy Burns Mine" near Porcupine 34 years ago and has been associated with many other big mining "finds." Mr. Burns had lived here for the past 20 years.

Funeral services were conducted from Symington's Funeral Chapel and interment was at Kirkland District Cemetery.

Fair Hands Trained for War Work

Fair hands and strong hands have joined in the war against the enemies of Freedom and those pictured above are employed in the manufacture of naval guns at the National Railways Munitions Limited plant which is operated by the Canadian National Railways. Some of the hands shown performed useful tasks in the home prior to the war, but were not engaged in what the economists term "gainful occupation." The sturdier hands are those of men who were machinists in the shops of the National System before the war and who were taken over as instructors in the war plant. In two years they have trained hundreds of men and women to operate intricate machinery.

Extreme left, fitting the safety catch in the breech mechanism.

Second from left, gauging the gun chamber. The deviation allowed in this work, the "tolerance," as the machinists say, is limited to two ten-thousandths of an inch, which is split hair precision.

In the centre picture the worker is removing a broach, one of a set of 40 required for rifling a barrel. Each successive broach removes one one-thousandth of an inch of steel until the desired calibre is attained.

Right of centre is pictured the preliminary process in laying out the bridge ring. The worker is using a Vernier height gauge and his movements require skill and the exercise of absolute precision in measurements.

At the extreme right a woman worker is hand-finishing on the breech block of a naval gun. Even with hundreds of machines in use there are various operations which require the use of hand tools.

In the lower panel at the extreme left the worker is gauging the bore of a barrel during honing operation. This is part of the rifling of the barrel by which each broach removes a minute layer of steel from the interior. Upon this skill and care employed during this work depends the range and accuracy of the naval gun when in action.

The second picture from the left is part of a milling operation. The worker is using a wrench to tighten a nut on the trigger seat.

Continuous checking is necessary during all stages of the manufacture of naval guns. Gauges have markings so fine as to be beyond the range of normal vision. Here an inspector is using a magnifying lens to note the exact reading on the Vernier Caliber gauge.

All steel brought into National Munitions plant is tested for quality. At the extreme right, a Government inspector is looking through a microscope, part of a Vickers testing machine by which a diamond makes an indentation in the steel to record its hardness, the result being indicated on a dial and noted by this method.

Vimy Night at the Timmins Legion Saturday, April 10

Attractive Programme Being Prepared for Annual Event.

Plans are all arranged for the celebration of Vimy Night in Timmins. The committee feel that Saturday evening would be a more suitable night than the actual date Friday, April 9th, hence the event will be Saturday, April 10th in the Legion hall. A very tasty supper has been planned and this will be served by the Ladies' Auxiliary at 7:30 p.m. Following this a short toast list with some of the Legion's best supporters speaking upon them. Then the evening will follow more or less an impromptu nature. One or two local artists have been asked to attend, but for the most part the committee would like volunteers to entertain. Legion Looking After Interests of the Men Now on Service Overseas

Timmins Branch Endorses Resolution from Windsor Branch Seeking to Protect the Armed Forces in Matter of Collective Bargaining. Question of Blood Donors Discussed at Meeting of Timmins Legion.

Well-Known Couple Visiting in Town for a Few Weeks

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Gooding, (Former Miss Patricia King), Visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. H. King.

Timmins welcomes back to its midst, a young couple, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Gooding, Mrs. Gooding being the former Patricia King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. King, 113 Maple south. For the past year and a half Mr. and Mrs. Gooding have been residing at Mackenzie, British Guiana, and have just recently returned to Canada.

They were married in November, 1941, and left at the end of November for British Guiana, Mr. Gooding going to Mackenzie, and Mrs. Gooding, remaining at Barbados for a few months before she joined Mr. Gooding in February of 1942.

In the little town of Mackenzie where the couple resided, there were not more than 200 white people, with a greater population of coloured people. Each family had a staff of Negro servants, the Goodings having a maid, and washerwoman. Their home was built about seven feet off the ground on stilts, and was made on a bungalow style, with a large living room and dining room combination, a long screened-in porch at one end of the house, two bedrooms and bath, and a large convenient kitchen.

The trip back was very eventful, Mr. and Mrs. Gooding travelling by plane from Georgetown to Miami, Florida, with stopovers at Barranquilla Columbia where there was a Carnival. This is an annual event, three days and nights before Lent, and all the population dress in the wildest costumes available and celebrate for three days. The next stopover was Miami, Florida, New York, and then Montreal, before arriving in town Saturday morning.

Mr. Gooding will be leaving in a week for the province of Quebec, where he will be employed with the Aluminum Company of Canada. Mrs. Gooding will leave shortly after to join him, as soon as an apartment is available. At present they are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. H. King, Timmins.

Squadron Leader J. D. Parks to Visit Timmins April 16th

To Speak at Joint Meeting of Service Clubs, at the High School and at New Empire Theatre.

The R.C.A.F. selected two outstanding men — Squadron Leaders J. D. Parks and G. Vlastos — to visit camps of the R.C.A.F. in Canada and overseas, and report on what they saw to the people of Canada. The task of these two men is to interpret the R.C.A.F. to the people of Canada. That they are fully able to do so is an assured fact to all who know their ability and their sincerity. Squadron Leaders Parks and Vlastos spent several months at R. C. A. F. centres in Canada and overseas. They are now making a tour of Canada to interpret the R.C.A.F. to the Canadian people. Squadron Leader Parks will be at Timmins on this tour on Friday April 16th. A busy day has been planned for him here. He will address a luncheon sponsored by the Timmins Kiwanis Club and attended by all the members of the service clubs of the Porcupine. He will also visit the Timmins High and Vocational School. Then in the evening there will be a public meeting in the New Empire theatre with Squadron Leader Parks as the chief speaker. In connection with the luncheon a record will be made of Squadron Leader Parks' address and this will be broadcast later in the day.

Squadron Leader J. D. Parks is always a very welcome visitor to Timmins and on April 16th he will have double welcome — for himself and for his special message. For a number of years he was the minister in charge of the Timmins United Church in the earlier days of the camp and won the regard and affection of all. He took active part in his church duties, he was an active member of the Kiwanis Club, was a regular and frequent visitor at the hospital and gave worthy contribution to any and every worthy community endeavour. People in Timmins and district will await with keen interest the meeting with Rev. J. D. Parks again and the opportunity to hear his message about the Royal Canadian Air Force.

Sense and Nonsense—Another reason that many a man is a big shot is because he aims high.

The monthly general meeting of the Timmins Branch of the Canadian Legion was held on Monday evening in the Legion hall. President James Cowan, occupied the chair with the following officers present: Comrades Fred Curtis, Les. Nicholson, W. A. Devine and J. G. Harris also Secretary W. D. Forrester. The meeting was attended by the largest number of members present for a considerable time and the president expressed the wish that this continue with the members attending the meetings in larger numbers.

Legion honours opened the meeting. Minutes were read and adopted. Seven new applications for membership were read and passed and in addition five comrades were initiated by the usual ceremony.

Financial standing is good and all funds sound. Committees reported, each chairman giving the members present a clear picture of the work being done. Only seven members are on the sick list this being the lowest for some time. Two members were given burial honours during March.

Several interesting cases were reported by the pensions committee.

Scouts committee reported much progress with the Legion troop.

Magazines are coming in good. Eight cartons were sent to the Legion, and four to the Navy League in February; and four to the Legion and two to the Navy League to date in March. It was asked by this committee that any member who could assist in transportation of these cartons from the hall to the railway station would be greatly assisting the work.

Reporting for the entertainment side of the Legion work, the chairman of this committee gave a review of past events and mentioned the plans for Vimy Night, Saturday, April 10th.

Much discussion centred around the correspondence. The result of the convention ballot proved to be very high for the cancellation of the provincial convention this year, however, the letter stressed for a strong delegation to the District meeting in North Bay in May.

A resolution from Windsor Branch re collective bargaining as it may affect the lads overseas and in the forces, was adopted and endorsed by the members.

Another re-admittance of the Women's Division of the Armed Services into membership was also discussed and will be taken up at the district meeting by Timmins delegates.

A resolution re typing all citizens for blood donors was passed and a committee will interview the town council upon this important matter. This caused quite an interesting discussion and some very good suggestions were made by those taking part. The matter will be taken up more fully after the Council has been interviewed upon the matter.

Comrade George Nippers was elected sergeant-at-arms for the year. Jack Poits was added to the funeral committee.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem.
