Presentations and Party in Honour of Mr. Thos. Vansickle

Leaves Hollinger After Twenty-two and a Half Years' Service.

There was a very large gathering of the friends of Mr. Thomas Vansickle at the Legion hall on Monday evening, Mr. Vansickle, after being employed at the Hollinger Mine for twenty-two and a half years...

Another popular favourite was Mose Jasner. He step-danced, sang and yodelled. "Old Mose," as he is popularly known, made a big hit in all his versatile numbers.

The first presentation was made by Mr. Robertson of the surface gang of the Hollinger. In a few well chosen words he presented Mr. Vansickle with two beautifully upholstered occasional chairs...

Mr. Heath then read an address from the staff members and presented the guest-of-honour with a walnut mantel clock (Westminster Chimes), and with a plate attached suitably engraved.

Deeply moved, the recipient made a very appropriate reply, saying "Well, you know, boys, I have a heart, and I will treasure these lovely gifts always."

At the midnight hour the happy gathering dispersed, wishing the best of luck to Tom Vansickle and his son, Randolph, who was also a guest of the evening.

Play, "Betty Girl O' My Heart," Proves Wonderful Success.

Cast of Eight Under Direction of Mr. W. G. Schweitzer Presents Humorous Play.

"Betty, the Girl O' My Heart" presented by the Fifty-Fifty Club which is comprised of the young married couples of the church, was presented last evening, and also Tuesday evening, to a capacity audience at the Mountjoy United Church.

The first scene opens in the library, and Marie the maid, decides that she is leaving for Hollywood to get in the movies. The new girl who enters, Betty, is given the position as maid, and is interviewed by Mrs. Graves and her snobbish daughter, Elizabeth.

Act 2, in the same evening, Mr. Graves discovers that he is about to lose all his money. Mr. Carmichael finds, after seeing Betty several times, that he loves her, and has come to propose to her.

In the third act, Mr. Graves has the good fortune to discover that his money is not all lost, as some unknown party had lent him the money to tide over his stocks.
