

Dropped Between Stitches

By Doris

Words are better masks than faces
Let us talk, then—talking, keep
Faces veiled in words' dull shadows,
Where the silence turns in sleep.

Let us talk, and talk, pretending
Spring, as always, leads to spring;
Day to day, processioned, girded
By the strong horizon's ring.

Let us talk of things as common
As a cup, on saucer placed;
Browsing cows from pasture turnings;
Scent of mint; the clove's fierce taste.

Let us talk—heroic gesture!
Let sophistic word conceal
What the hand's instinctive frankness
Would unbearably reveal.

Earl Daniels' "Prescription for Saying Good-by" has a lot of words of wisdom. Keeping a cheerful face, and a parting word of cheer, will do more for the boy who is leaving than any emotion displayed in front of him. And as Earl Daniels says, "Let us talk."

Soon you'll be seeing the Navy girls in their immaculate summer uniforms, set off with white Oxford shoes. Now that the recruiting staff have been in town, there will likely be quite a few of our girls in that service, and when they are at home, take a good look at those shoes. The War Savings Certificate you put away in your strong-box last week may have paid for them. Each pair of summer shoes for the WRENS costs Canada exactly $4. When you realize that there are some 4,000 volunteers awaiting acceptance to this important service job—eager to give up their private lives and freedom in order to release men for sea duty—you'll understand why you MUST continue to invest in WAR SAVINGS.

Timmins welcomes a visitor from overseas, Mrs. N. E. Harris, of Plymouth, England, who arrived last Friday morning, to visit her husband, Mr. J. Harris, her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Stoneman, 96 Fifth avenue, and two other sons, Mr. W. Harris, and Mr. J. Harris, both of Timmins. Her fourth visit to Timmins, Mrs. Harris says that his last trip over was very uneventful, surprisingly so, with all the hazards of the sea nowadays. We all hope that Mrs. Harris's visit in town will be particularly pleasant and may she be among us for a good long while.

During the last four nights of the showing "Hitler's Children" at the Palace Theatre, last week, a large booth was established in the lobby of the theatre where girls sold War Savings Stamps to the large crowds in attendance. The drive was very successful during those four nights, the crowds responding extremely well. On Wednesday evening, Miss Irene Borland was in charge of the booth, Thursday evening, Miss Marjorie Gibson, Friday evening, Miss Joan Wynne, and Saturday evening, Misses Peggy Lloyd and Lucille Chusseau. It is almost certain that drives of similar nature will be conducted again, particularly with the Fourth Victory Loan coming up.

The work meeting of the Ladies' Guild of St. Matthew's Anglican Church was conducted on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. T. Glastier, 46 Patricia Blvd. and here final arrangements were made for the tulip tea to be held on Wednesday, April 28th, from 2.30 to 6 p.m. in the Church hall. There will be a bake table, and work table, and as a novelty idea, a tulip display, with lovely gifts attached. The members spent a busy evening knitting and preparing articles for the tea, and at the close of the evening, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. Maxwell, and Mrs. F. Melville served a delightful lunch. Those present included Mrs. W. Christ-opher, Mrs. S. Wheeler, Mrs. H. Pope, Mrs. J. Knell, Mrs. R. McTaggart, Miss M. Paynter, Mrs. C. Preston, Mrs. W. Kevan, Mrs. M. Holland, Mrs. B. Richards, Mrs. F. Read, Mrs. F. Melville, Mrs. J. Maxwell, Mrs. H. Gridley, Mrs. J. Webb, Mrs. J. Collins, and Mrs. T. Glastier.

The Porcupine Skating Club may add more laurels to their cap for the fine performances of the many pupils of the club on Saturday and Monday evening. But to Miss Madge Austin, professional instructor, congratulations are due, for it was through her able teaching that the fine talent was displayed at the performances Saturday and Monday. Each one did his or her part to make the show a success, tiny tots and older members combining talents to present one of the most successful Ice Shows in the history of the Porcupine Skating Club.

Individual solos presented by Miss Mildred Verbiik, Miss Olga Bernyk, and Miss Velma Popovich, and pair number by Miss Jacqueline Byers and Mr. Gordon Paul, Miss Mary Lou Landreville and Mr. John O'Donnell, and Misses Joyce and Vera Jenkin, and each one deserves the highest praise for the promising talent they displayed. And last, but not least, the fine performance presented by the Junior Pair Champions, Miss Margaret Keeley and Mr. Alex Fulton, was breath-taking, a performance not soon to be forgotten.

On Easter Monday, April 26th, wedding bells will ring out for two bridal couples. At the Church of Nativity in Timmins, Miss Kathleen Woodworth will say her "I do's" with Mr. James Duffy of Schumacher at a very lovely ceremony. And that same day at 3 p.m., in the Trinity United Church Schumacher, Miss Marian Francis daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Len Thomas, Schumacher, will become the bride of Corporal Leslie T. Mahon, Canadian Provost Corp., Winnipeg, and son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Mahon, South Porcupine. To both these couples, the sincerest congratulations are in order.

McCharles who was so kind and generous in supplying the information of the activities of the Institute to the Advance these past several months. and to Mrs. B. Drummond, we wish you all success in your new office as press reporter.

Ormiston at the piano. During the evening R. J. Ennis presented Mr. Wilbur Cook, and Miss Beryl Goodman of the Kirkland Lake Skating Club, Miss Madge Austin, Porcupine Skating Club and Mr. Robert Courter of the Oshawa Skating Club with lovely gifts, in appreciation of their fine work on behalf of the Ice Show. Cups Presented at Local Dart League to Season Winners

Very Interesting Event Held Last Night at Legion Hall

The members of the Timmins Dart League met at the Legion Hall last night (Wednesday) for the presentation of the various trophies and individual cups won in the season just closed. Mr. Stan Hass, president of the league, occupied the chair, and introduced the guests of the evening — Mayor Emile Brunette, Messrs. Doran, Union Brewery, F. J. Hornby, Advance; Sgt. H. Larivee, of the R.C.A.P., and Art Leonard, who is in town, and who was one of the founders along with Jim Gordon of the Dart League.

Mr. Hass called on Mr. Doran to present the Maltaita Cup. In the absence of Mr. Maltaita who sent a wire regretting he could not be present, Capt. A. Pertelo of Seven Up received the trophy on behalf of his team, and Capt. W. Nixon, of the Imperials, for the runners-up accepted their trophy. Capt. Pertelo was also presented the Russell Trophy and Mr. Nixon the runners-up cups. Capt. Nixon received the Legion shield and Capt. Pertelo for the runners-up the cups from Mayor E. Brunette. Mr. J. Phillion pinch-hitting for Capt. Moreal who was unable to be present, received the Bartlemay trophy. Messrs G. Gibson and W. Nixon were presented the runners-up cups by the Mayor. Mr. Phillion took care of the singles championship trophy for Mr. A. Moreal, and A. Giacomazzi received the runners-up cup. Owing to Government regulations the White Label trophy was recalled by the firm for the duration and was not available to be presented. Mr. Art Leonard, who recently returned to town, said he could see plenty of new faces and was glad to see some old ones too, but one he did miss, was the late Mr. Hass, who presented the first trophy, the Russell trophy. Mr. J. Gordon, the founder of the league, called on the members for a minute's silence in honour of the late Mr. Hass. A suggestion to increase the membership of the Dart League next year brought about a shortage of dart boards, and both Mr. Leonard and Mr. White kindly donated two boards to cover the shortage. Mr. Leonard praised the Seven-Up team for winning the Russell trophy. He said they had tried for years and finally won it. A toast was given in their honour. Each member of the winning team received individual cups. Mayor E. Brunette treated the members to cigars, and the rest of the evening was spent with refreshments, stories and community singing, with W. H. ("Scotty") Wilson at the piano.

RUDENESS NOT HEARD

"Hey, Mom," exclaimed the little boy, tugging at his mother's hand, "Isn't that monkey just like Uncle James?" "Huh!" said his mother, "Don't be so rude!" "Ah; the monkey didn't hear me, Mom!" — Powassan News.

Many Timmins Men Honoured for Work at Gibraltar

Others from District Also Given Watch Fobs by General McNaughton.

Royal Canadian Engineers of tunnelling companies which worked for the last two years helping improve Gibraltar's defences were honoured at a ceremony "somewhere in England," according to despatches from overseas. The men were presented with special watch fobs by the army commander, Lt.-Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton. All the Canadians are back from The Rock, having completed their particular job, and 297 of them paraded in their Southern England camp to receive sterling silver fobs bearing a key representing the key of Gibraltar and an engraving of The Rock and a hard-rock miner with his power drill. On the reverse side were names of the recipients.

Th watch fobs were donated by Hon. C. D. Howe, Canadian Minister of Munitions and Supply, himself an engineer who has followed closely the work of the Canadian sappers. The list of those receiving this token of appreciation is a long one and includes the names of Timmins men. Nearly every mining centre is well represented, for it was found that the best men to use on this important work were the men from the hardrock mines. Among those receiving the watch fobs were: Major-General Hertzberg, Toronto; who organized the tunnelling companies over two years ago. He was a minister in the Hepburn cabinet before going overseas; Major Victor Odium, Calgary. Speaking to the troops Gen McNaughton said "you have left your mark for all time to come in Gibraltar and contributed greatly to strengthening that very important Imperial post". He said the Canadians had tunneled out great sections of the Rock, created gun emplacements, space for underground water systems and a hospital and done a number of other vital tasks which were "of very substantial assistance".

The general expressed the appreciation of Canada, the Canadian and Army and British authorities for the "contribution made to the preservation of the empire and the prosecution of the war against Germany". Two unrelated McNaughtons—a general and a sapper—shook hands during the presentation. Among the recipients who stepped before Gen. McNaughton to get their mementos was Spr. W. McNaughton of Montreal, who joined up in London, Ont., and spent 21 months on the Rock. As his name was called out a laugh rippled up the lines of troops attending the ceremony. The general gripped the sapper's hand warmly and said: "I'm glad to shake the hand of a brother, McNaughton."

There were about a hundred in all receiving the fobs, this number including many from Timmins and district. The McChesney brothers, well-known young men from this camp, were among those listed. The list includes the following: Major D. Taylor, Timmins; J. G. Tatham, Larder Lake. Lieutenants R. Jure, Kirkland Lake; G. W. Walkey, Noranda. C.S.M.S. E. J. Malette, Timmins. C.S.M.S. A. Cowan, Kirkland Lake. Sergeant M. Espektor and A. McIsaac, Timmins; C. G. Denny, Kirkland Lake. Lieut.-Sergts C. McChesney and A. Armstrong, Timmins; A. B. James, K. V. Woods, Kirkland Lake. Former Timmins Man is Robbed at Bryson, Que.

The following paragraph is from The Halleyburian last week and refers to a former popular resident here. Mr. Frank Peter was the competent ice-maker at the Timmins Curling Rink for several seasons. He made hosts of friends here, all of whom will regret that some light-fingered gentleman was able to steal from him a number of very valuable articles. The Halleyburian says:—

"How he was robbed of his working clothes and the tools of his trade after completing a job at Bryson, Que., was related by Frank Peter, Halleybury tradesman who had gone to the Ottawa Valley to do some work at a mine being operated there by J. M. Cunningham-Dunlop, when he arrived home after a vain search for the missing articles. He was packed up and ready to leave the hotel where he was staying, when he went back to his room to get a level he had forgotten, and while he was absent both the tools and his travelling bag had disappeared. He had little time before catching a train, but reported the loss through the hotelkeeper, who, incidentally, is Thos. Moorehead, son-in-law of Mrs. Gainsford and well known in Halleybury. Mr. Peter's registration card and unemployment insurance book are among the missing goods and the theft has been reported to provincial police here who are endeavoring to trace them through officers on the Quebec side."

Why Golfers Like Weather That Others Do Not Like

(By Thomas Richard Henry)
The people who are quite cheerful about the current weather are not the people who have their cellar full of coal; they are not the people who own inside attractions like picture shows; they are not the people who boost for the weather in other localities. The people who wear the big broad smile are the golf players. Why? Well, as long as the weather is bad they don't feel the effect of the gas rationing. They don't feel the effect of the shortage of steel for clubs. They don't feel the effect of the shortage of greenkeepers and they don't feel the effect of the dearth of those pellets by Goodyear out of Akron. In other words, they don't feel so badly when the weather is so cold that they wouldn't enjoy playing golf much anyway.
