

Dropped Between Stitches

By Doris

The Gold Nugget Rebekah Lodge held its weekly meeting on Thursday evening at the Oddfellows' Hall there being quite a large attendance of members. . . Mrs. P. Masters, Noble Grand, presided, and the usual business pertaining to the Lodge was discussed. . . The members were sorry to note that Mrs. J. Keene has been absent from meetings for a few weeks owing to illness, and they hope that Mrs. Keene will soon be able to return to her position with the Lodge. . . The next meeting is this evening, (Thursday), at the Oddfellows' Hall.

Last Wednesday morning, May 12th, at 10.30 a.m., at St. Anthony's Cathedral, a very lovely wedding was solemnized, when Emma Castonguay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Castonguay, of Hawkesbury, Ont., became the bride of Lance-Corporal Leslie Denault, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Denault of Fort Coulogne, Quebec. . . The Reverend Father John Castonguay, of Kapuskasing, and brother of the bride, officiated at the ceremony. . . After a lovely reception, the couple left on a honeymoon to points south.

The regular business meeting of the Ladies' Guild of St. Matthew's Anglican Church was conducted on Friday afternoon in the Church hall, with a nice attendance of women present. . . There was a brief discussion of the Tulip tea held by the Guild recently, and it was decided to hold the next work meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Knell, 100 Sixth avenue, on Friday evening (tomorrow).

Mrs. L. Dubien, of 12 Way avenue, was hostess to the French Federation knitting group on Friday evening, where a group of ladies gathered to spend a busy evening knitting for war services. . . A highlight of the evening was the violin selections presented by Mr. L. Dubien, accompanied at the piano by his son, Charles. . . The numbers were greatly enjoyed by all. . . Mrs. Dubien, assisted by Mrs. Barrette at the close of the evening, served a dainty lunch to her guests. . . Those present were Mrs. N. Barrette, Mrs. J. Barbaree, Mrs. A. Desjardins, Mrs. J. Lapalme, Mrs. A. Lapalme Mrs. Carle Mrs. H. Lloyd, and Mrs. Dubien. . . Friday evening, (tomorrow), the meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. J. Barbaree, 315 Spruce south.

Wednesday, May 26th, at the Notre Dame de Lourdes church, "I do's" will be said by Miss Alline Lapalme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lapalme, of Timmins and Mr. Marcel Gauthier, of Timmins. . . To those who are not familiar with Miss Lapalme, it will be especially interesting to note that Miss Lapalme is one of our local renowned singers, having performed for one of the Victory Loan rallies. . . Sincerest congratulations are in order for the young couple.

Misses Lillian and Lucy Spooner, sisters of Mr. J. W. Spooner, of Timmins were wed on Monday at Massey, Ont., the home of the brides. . . The wedding was a double one, and was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Spooner and family. . . To these young couples, their many friends extend best wishes for all happiness. . . Lillian is very well-known in town, having been employed at the Porcupine Credit Bureau, while Lucy was a visitor here some time ago. . . One other sister, Rose, who was once employed at the office of her brother, Mr. J. W. Spooner, is now with the British Embassy, at Washington, D.C., and was able to come home to Massey for the wedding. . . We know all will be greatly interested to know of these delightful happenings.

It has been rumored around town that there is insufficient wool in the Wool Rooms of the Red Cross, for the ladies to use. . . The Red Cross have announced that this rumour is very incorrect, and that there is plenty of wool ready, and more workers are asked to present themselves, to knit this wool. . . All are asked to please take note of this and make it your business to obtain some of this wool.

The film "Forever and a Day", will be presented at the Palace theatre, on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of this week, May 20th, 21st, and 22nd. . . This was made by all the leading film artists of the Hollywood colony, and donated by them to the Governor General, who has decided that the funds received from these showings, shall be divided equally between the Canadian Red Cross, and the St. John Ambulance Association. . . This picture is one of the greatest of recent years, and will be well worth attending.

Best wishes to the bridal couple of Tuesday morning, Sapper Reimond James Daly, and Mrs. Daly, the bride being the former Miss Loretta Roy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Roy, of Timmins. . . The bride was attired in traditional white, and had as her matron of honour, Mrs. W. Cocklin, and two bridesmaids, Miss Velma Daly, and Miss Joan Danis. There was also a little flower girl, Miss Alma Daly.

Sincerest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Killeen who were quietly wed on Friday evening. . . Mrs. Killeen is the former Gladys Mary McIvor, daughter of Mrs. N. McIvor, and the late Mr. McIvor, of Timmins, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Killeen, Timmins. . . Mrs. Killeen chose as her wedding outfit, a lovely turquoise crepe afternoon dress, with a pill box hat of the same material as the dress and a corsage of roses. . . She was attended by Mrs. Mabel Van Russell, who wore a navy suit, with a little hat of navy, complete with veil, and a corsage of sweetpeas. . . Best man was Mr. Pat Killeen. . . The couple are residing in Timmins, and their many friends extend best wishes for all the happiness in the world.

Tuesday evening, the principal, Mr. P. A. Boyce, and the staff of the Public School, in Schumacher, held a delightful picnic supper at the McIntyre Park, the occasion being for the presentation of a lovely coffee table to Mrs. Frank McCann, the former Miss Bernice O'Donnell, who is on the staff of the school. . . The presentation was made by Mr. Wylie and Mr. Fish, who were appropriately thanked by Mrs. McCann. . . Mrs. McCann has been on the staff of the school for a year now, and was recently wed to Frank McCann, of the Canadian Active Army.

The Arbutus Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, No. 123, welcomed to their midst this week the Worthy Grand Matron Florence Eastman, of the Grand Chapter of Ontario, and Worthy Grand Patron Reverend Joseph Stewart, of the Grand Chapter of Ontario. . . The esteemed visitors were honoured at a banquet on Tuesday evening at the McIntyre lounge, and after visiting here for a few days, will continue on their tour of Ontario, visiting the various chapters. . . Mrs. Eastman graciously thanked all the Chapter members on Tuesday evening at the banquet, and remarked that this would be her last visit to the North, as her position would be taken by the Associate Grand Matron Sister Violet Day, of the local Chapter. . . This is indeed an honour for this Chapter to have one of their members holding such a worthy position, and we extend congratulations to Mrs. Day, who will be installed in her new position in September in Toronto.

We add our congratulations, and those of the many friends of Miss Elaine Duggan, who was wed on Monday morning to Mr. John Tiffany of Toronto. . . Mr. Tiffany is a graduate of Malvern Collegiate, Toronto. . . There the bride worked in a bank, before returning home for the wedding. . . Best wishes to Elaine and John in their new home at Toronto.

It was at the station that Mrs. Tiffany threw her bride's bouquet, and the lucky young lady to catch it was Miss Ruth McDonald, and you all know what that means. . . It seems to be a coincidence that Ruth is engaged to Earl Cavanaugh, of the R.C.A.F., at Toronto, and the couple are making wedding plans for the fall. . . The tradition seems to be holding with Ruth, for catching the bride's bouquet usually meant that that young lady was soon to be wed.

We might say a word for the exceptional talent displayed by the All-Soldier Army Show on Tuesday evening at the McIntyre Arena. . . The girls and boys were outstanding, each one combining talents to make the show one of the most outstanding events ever to be presented in this country. . . Musical scores were written by the members of the show, two men in particular being Sgts. Frank Shuster and Johnny Wayne. . . Captain Bob Farnon also wrote several scores, including the "Dream Waltz," and "Bolero". . . The Arena was packed and the general opinion was that there had never been a show like it in years. . . Crowds were enthusiastic in their praise of the fine talent of the boys and girls, and jammed the arena to see this well-known revue. . . The troupe left Tuesday evening after the show for Fort William, and will continue on their way west, before making any more plans for showings.

A meeting of the Home Nursing section, Mattagami district, of the Civilian Defence Committee, will be held tomorrow evening (Friday), at 8 p.m. . . All members are asked to take note and attend, but before doing so are to make their appointed phone calls, and report at the meeting later.

Tomorrow evening, (Friday), The British Isles Victory Club will meet at the Hollinger Hall, at 7.30 p.m. . . Following the business portion of the meeting, a social will be held, and all members are invited to come. . . There will be a variety programme, with Margaret Easton Shield's pupils dancing.

The regular rehearsal of the Schumacher Choral Society which was originally scheduled for last Monday evening, will be held tonight at the Radio Station, at 7.30 p.m., prompt. . . And next Monday evening, members are asked to note the weekly rehearsal again at the Radio Station. . . A large attendance is asked for, at both rehearsals.

W. Grand Matron and Other Guests at Arbutus Chapter

Distinguished Visitors to Order of Eastern Star.

The Arbutus Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, No. 123, received as their guests on Tuesday evening, the Worthy Grand Matron, of the Grand Chapter, O. E. S. of Ontario, Mrs. Florence Eastman, of Ottawa, and Worthy Grand Patron, of the Grand Chapter of Ontario, Reverend Joseph Stewart, of Lucknow, Ont. For the occasion, the guests were entertained at a delightful banquet on Tuesday evening in the McIntyre Lounge.

Visiting with the honoured guests, was Mrs. Stewart, wife of Rev. Mr. Stewart, and also P.D.D.G.M., of O.E.S. Receiving the guests was Mrs. Violet Morrow, Worthy Matron of the local chapter, who was becomingly attired in a white gown, with a corsage of red roses. All the other officers of the Chapter were dressed in white gowns. Sister Morrow was assisted by Brother Frank Crisp, Worthy Patron.

The guests were seated at the banquet tables, and Sister Morrow extended a welcome to the honoured guests, and the pleasure of having them as visitors. Rev. Bro. Stewart gave the blessing. All enjoyed a delicious dinner catered by the McIntyre Coffee Shop. After everyone was through with dinner, Bro. W. H. Pritchard proposed a toast to the King, which was responded to by all. Sister Mildred Tackaberry toasted the Grand Chapter, and the Worthy Grand Matron Florence Eastman responded to the gracious toast, by expressing her pride in the Chapter, and how it came to be as wonderful as it was with all the co-operation and assistance, and that the Chapter would do as good as it had done in the past. Then Mrs. Eastman gave a few figures pertaining to the war work the Grand Chapter had done, each figure being quite large, and the amount of clothing sent out being notable.

She remarked that this would be her last visit to the North, and that her work would be carried on by Mrs. Violet Day. A welcome was extended to the officers and members of the Arbutus Chapter to attend the installation of Mrs. Day as Worthy Grand Matron in September, at Toronto.

At the conclusion of Mrs. Eastman's address, Sister Bette MacMillan proposed a toast to the visitors, which was responded to by the members of the Chapter. Sister Myrtle Stewart responded graciously to this toast, on behalf of the visitors. The Worthy Grand Patron, Bro. Jos. Stewart, brought the banquet to a close with a few words of thanks.

The singing of the National Anthem was the last feature of the programme, and the guests adjourned to the meeting room at the Masonic Hall to continue.

At the meeting of the Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Florence Eastman, was introduced and presented a bouquet of red roses, and Worthy Grand Patron, Rev. Jos. Stewart, was introduced and presented with boutonniere, Worthy Matron Violet Morrow making the presentations. They were also presented with gifts from the Chapter. At the introduction of the guest, Sister Ralph sang "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied at the piano by Sister Blanche Dodge. After the meeting, a delicious lunch was served to the guests, the lunch being conveyed by Sister Annie Goodman and her committee.

The Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Eastman, and Mrs. Jos. Stewart, wife of the Worthy Grand Patron poured tea.

Among the guests for the meeting were the Worthy Grand Matron Mrs. Florence Eastman, of Ottawa, Rev. Jos. Stewart and Mrs. Stewart, of Lucknow, Ont., D.D.G.M. Sister Isabel Macdonald, of New Liskeard also guests from Kirkland Lake, Kapuskasing, Iroquois Falls, and South Porcupine.

For the occasion, the hall was taste-

Talk on Gardening at Monthly Meet of Women's Institute

Standing Conveners Appointed at Meeting. Delegate Appointed to District Annual Meet.

The regular monthly meeting of the Gold Star Branch, Women's Institute, was held at the Hollinger Hall, with Mrs. A. Jack in the chair, for the first part of the meeting. Mrs. W. Johnston, the new president, later took over the chair.

The following are the standing conveners for 1943-44:— Agriculture and Canadian Industries Mrs. P. Jefferies.

Citizenship — Mrs. C. Surman. Home Economics — Mrs. J. Harnden. Social Welfare — Mrs. A. Hawes. Historical Research — Mrs. A. Jack. Mrs. C. Briggs convened the meeting and gave a paper on horticulture, "Gardens in Peace and War". She dropped two very good hints on helping the garden. Firstly: to prevent birds carrying off seeds, drive live sticks into the ground and weave black thread back and forth. The thread will not hurt the birds but will tangle their feet and frighten them off. Secondly put all kitchen scraps in a hole in one corner of the garden and later mix with the soil, thus enriching it. Keep covered against flies. She also showed a very beautiful hand hooked rug made and donated by Mrs. Campbell, to be used as a door prize at a tea the ladies are planning for July.

Mrs. Surman sang "The Rose of Tralee" and Mrs. Marriot read a very amusing poem. Mrs. Marriot was voted as delegate to the District Annual at Cochrane, and Mrs. Jack goes in her official capacity of District Director. Mrs. Johnston thanked the members and the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

The regular rehearsal of the Schumacher Choral Society which was originally scheduled for last Monday evening, will be held tonight at the Radio Station, at 7.30 p.m., prompt. . . And next Monday evening, members are asked to note the weekly rehearsal again at the Radio Station. . . A large attendance is asked for, at both rehearsals.
