

Dropped Between Stitches

By Phyllis

Wedding Bells rang out for Audrey Van Rassel and Charles Belec on Monday morning when they took their vows at the Church of Nativity. . . It was a lovely wedding and true to tradition with the bride dressed in a gown of ivory satin with a full floor length veil. . . The couple left the same morning for their new home up in the North West Territories and besides our congratulations we wish them both lots of luck and happiness.

Two weddings in the offing which will cause lots of excitement are those two important ones coming up within the next week. . . Saturday's when Miss Myrtle Lillian Knell, becomes the bride of Mr. James Morrow, at St. Matthew's Church. . . and next Monday's when Miss Helen Andruschuk becomes the bride of P.O. Bill West, at the Presbyterian Church.

And so another one of our local boys has taken himself an English wife and this time it's Cpl. Eddie Arundell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Arundell, Fourth Ave. . . The wedding took place in Devonshire, England, and surely must have been a happy 24th of May celebration. Eddie had a large circle of friends up here before he left and I'm sure they all join us in wishing him and his wife every happiness.

The week-end was indeed taken care of as far as having something to do was concerned, for the Kiwanis Carnival took care of that problem very well. . . Both Friday and Saturday nights brought forth multitudes of people seemingly ignoring the rain and the insects which were both trying to gain monopoly over the event. There was fun for all and especially so for those nine lucky people who came out on top in the ticket draw.

Mornings, afternoons, and nights see the students of the Schumacher summer skating school practicing ardently. . . and not only because of their love of the profession but perhaps they know of the crowds going to be present to witness the Ice Show on Field Day next Monday, and want to be sure of being at their very best. . . From what we've seen of their sessions so far, very little practice is needed by all of them and the Show, formed with such talented young skaters, can only have one outcome and that is to be a huge success.

Last Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. W. Kevan held a delightful tea in honour of her guest from Toronto, Mrs. Ruth Richards, formerly of Timmins. The guests spent a charming social afternoon and assisting Mrs. Kevan in serving the tea was Mrs. Bert Richards. . . Among those present were Mrs. J. Webb, Mrs. M. Holand, Mrs. A. L. Joyner, Mrs. McDonough, Mrs. F. Read, Mrs. B. Richards, Mrs. F. Burt, Mrs. R. Taylor, Mrs. Sargeant, Mrs. F. J. Hornby, Mrs. Paice, Mrs. F. Melville.

Mrs. Richards whom we mentioned above used to live in Timmins but is now a resident of Toronto. She is the senior supervisor of the Change House number 17, of the General Engineering Co., and is the originator of an idea widely known and greatly appreciated. . . The idea was for collecting money for the Bomb Victims Fund by having the working girls contribute mere pennies from their pay envelopes. . . This wasn't too much from any one person, but put together it makes enough to assist in a worthy cause. . . To date

Delightful Lawn Tea Held by Women's Institute

A very charming tea was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. MacDonald, Riverside Drive. It was sponsored by the Women's Institute and was a really delightful event. The setting for the tea was the spacious garden around Mrs. MacDonald's home and the huge trees branching over the tea-tables shaded the guests from the glaring sun, and the breeze from the river added to the pleasant surroundings. Individual tables dotted the lawn, each with a dainty cover and a gay bouquet of flowers in the centre. At one end of the garden were two tables covered with beautiful freshly cut garden flowers which, along with various kinds of potted plants, were for sale to any guest who might desire some, and these tables were under the care of Mrs. C. Briggs and Mrs. W. E. Hawse. Standing a little distance from these tables was the bake table, with Mrs. L. Sinclair and Mrs. W. Crispin in charge.

Mrs. A. MacDonald and the president of the Institute, Mrs. W. Johnson, received the guests. Tea and a delicious lunch, including a grand fresh fruit salad and tea-biscuits, not to mention the cakes and cookies besides, were served to the different tables by Mrs. B. Drummond, Mrs. C. McChester, Mrs. J. Holson and Miss Beryl Crispin. The ladies who were in charge of the food were Mrs. A. Hadden, Mrs. M. McIntosh and Mrs. Delong. Mrs. A. McCharles was in charge of finance. A beautiful hand-hooked rug, donated by Mrs. J. Campbell was drawn as a door prize and the lucky number was 67. During the afternoon some of the guests were presented with a very useful pattern book issued by the War-time Prices and Trade Board and also a guide to canning a copy of which can be obtained by sending to the Dept. of Agriculture at Toronto, publication No. 751.

A pleasant evening was spent last Thursday at the home of Mrs. McClean, Balsam St., with Mrs. George as hostess, when the ladies of the Algonquin Club met. This small club has done quite a lot of war work and is doing its bit in sending parcels and cigarettes to our soldiers overseas. Those present at the meeting were Mrs. Pail, Mrs. Baxter, Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. McClean and Mrs. Devine. . . The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Baxter, at 5 Hart street.

Sunshine and breezes did much towards achieving the successful goal reached by the Women's Institute yesterday afternoon at their lawn tea, held at the home of Mrs. R. MacDonald. . . Besides the setting, though, the lunch was simply grand and the ladies really derived their success, as they did everything towards making the afternoon the pleasant one that it was.

Many will be sorry to hear that one of Timmins' young pioneers is about to up and leave for good. Miss Emma Ellis, who has lived here for a number of years, is leaving next week to take up permanent residence in Toronto. Last night at a large farewell party given in her honour she found that besides being presented with a beautiful set of Crown Derby she was also the object of a lovely little poem which was written by Miss Doris Shaheen and which really expressed to perfection the feelings of her friends about her leaving town. . . Emma is soon going to realize that. . . she is going to be missed.

Bride of August Fifth Feted at Lovely Shower

A miscellaneous shower was held last night at the home of Mrs. B. Pecore in honour of Miss Julie Sikorski, who is to be the bride of Roy Cotnam on August 5th. The joint hostesses were Mrs. B. Pecore, Mrs. L. Childs and Miss Bernice McPhail. The room was all very nicely decorated with streamers in pink and white. The guests played bingo and other games and there were prizes for them all. Later everyone joined in a sing-song with Miss Regina Brothers at the piano. A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses, and Mrs. A. Kukta poured tea.

Among those present were: Mrs. W. Strong, Mrs. C. E. Holland, Mrs. Chas. Priddle, Mrs. A. Kukta, Mrs. G. Strong, Mrs. Surlglass, Misses Regina Brothers, Joan Dunn, Irene Rantamaki, Ruth Surlglass, Mary Popick, Lena Prince, Alice Coulas, Faye Childs, Donnie Strong, Ruth Kukta, the hostesses, Mrs. B. Pecore, Mrs. L. Childs and Miss Bernice McPhail, and the guest of honour Miss Julie Sikorski.

Those who were unable to attend but who sent gifts were: Mrs. McPhail, Mrs. J. Robinson, Kay Gregory, Kay Reynolds, Kay and Nellie Harris.

Pretty Wedding Event Held on Monday Morning

Ceremony for Audrey Van Rassel and Charles Belec Held in Church of Nativity.

The Church of Nativity was the scene of a pretty summer wedding on Monday morning at 8:30, when Audrey Cecelia Van Rassel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Van Rassel, became the bride of Charles Hector Belec, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Belec. Father Murray officiated. Miss Lillian Mascioli sang the wedding hymn, and several selections including Schubert's Ave Maria. During the signing of the register she sang "On this Day, of Beautiful Mother." The organ was played by Alice Giovinone. After the ceremony the bride's young brother, Bobby, served mass.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father chose a gown of ivory satin fashioned on deep torso lines at the back and delicate shirring at the front. The sleeves were long and tapered and the neckline was a deep sweetheart bordered with pleated ivory satin. From a tiny halo of satin frilled net, fell her white floor length veil and she carried a bouquet of deep red roses and bouvardia. Around her throat she wore a strand of pearls, gift from the groom. Bridesmaid was the sister of the groom, Miss Theresa Belec, and she wore a gown with a peach satin bodice, long sleeves and a peach net skirt over taffeta. She also wore a little crown of peach net. She carried a mixed bouquet of tulle roses and sweet peas. Her gift from the bride was a strand of pearls.

Mr. Jerry Banning was the best man. The reception was in the McIntyre Lounge, the bride's mother received in a dusty rose redingote ensemble with black accessories, and a corsage of white gardenias. The bridegroom's mother assisted in mauve chiffon with black accessories and a corsage of Tulle roses. The couple left immediately for Hailcybur from where they will proceed to Port Radium near Great Bear Lake in the North West Territories, where the couple will take up permanent residence. For travelling the bride wore a light wool suit of Nile green, with rust accessories and a corsage of sweet peas.

Mrs. A. Bellamy Is Honoured at Farewell Party

Many Friends Present at Combined Surprise and Farewell Party.

A combination of surprise and farewell were intended in the huge party given in honour of Mrs. A. Bellamy, who returns to her home in Toronto this Friday. The event was held last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. Shaw, Laurier Avenue. A delightful social evening was spent by all the guests and everyone lustily joined in the community singing, with Mrs. J. McGarry at the piano. Mrs. E. Dunbabin, of Gold Centre, sang a solo accompanied by Mrs. W. Johnson and Mrs. A. Dunbabin, of Toronto, daughter of Mrs. Bellamy, also sang, accompanied on the piano by her mother.

Mrs. H. Pope and Mrs. J. Grant assisted in serving a lovely lunch and Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. J. Smith poured tea. At the end of the evening the guest of honour was presented with a beautiful chenille bedspread.

The guests present were: Mrs. E. Tilley, Mrs. W. Johnson, Mrs. J. Wilson, Mrs. L. Nicholson, Mrs. R. Hardy, Mrs. T. Williams, Mrs. E. Williams, Mrs. J. Kinsey, Mrs. K. Thomas, Mrs. B. Helmer, Mrs. T.
