Town Council Committee to Conduct Fuel Survey to Ascertain the Needs

Questionnaires to be Distributed for Committee by Boy Scouts, Who Will Call for Them When Filled In. Other Business at Meeting of Town Council on Monday.

Probably the most important matter at the regular meeting of the town council on Monday was the question of the fuel wood outlook for the coming winter. Councillor J. W. Spooner, chairman of the committee in charge of the matter, said that he regretted to have to state that the fuel wood situation to-day is worse than it was a month ago. He pointed out that this condition was due to the labour shortage. He thought the best way to meet the situation was first of all to learn exactly what was needed. To achieve this purpose a complete survey had been planned. There would be a questionnaire sent out to every business place and residence in the town to find the actual needs. Each residence and business place would show on the questionnaire what wood would be needed, the amount on hand, and other details. With this information on hand it would be possible to arrive with reasonable accuracy at the amount of wood that the town would need to have available from all sources. The questionnaire would be distributed by special arrangements with the Boy Scouts, and a few days afterwards the questionnaire would be gathered up and returned by the Boy Scouts. Of course it would be necessary to estimate a still further amount of wood needed, as in view of the probable shortage of coal there would be a special run on wood fuel.

tion for a tag day from the Czechoslovakian National Society. The association asked for Sept. 7th as their tag day. Councillor Spooner expressed the sincere regret of the council that such request could not be granted. He pointed out that the council had adopted a very definite policy in regard to tag days and he could not see how the rules could be broken. Only four tag days were now permitted in town—for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, Poppy Day for the Legion, Apple Day for the Boy Scouts, and the Community Federation, which included eight or ten organizations joining together to hold a carnival and raise the funds required for each organization. In addition, he pointed out that the rules in regard to tag days in any event required sixty days' notice before the tag day. He suggested that the Czechoslovaks look to next year and have their application in at an early date.

Mayor J. Emile Brunette presided at the council meeting and Councillors W. McDermott, K. A. Eyre, E. W. Gladstone and J. W. Spooner were present. V. Salomaa was acting clerk in the absence of Clerk-Treasurer Shaw on holiday.

GERMAN PRISONERS AND DEAD, EVIDENCE OF SUCCESS IN SICILY

Smashing successes of the Canadian 1st Division in Sicily are brought home by these "on the spot" pictures just received in Canada. In the TOP view, intelligence officers sort over the equipment of disconsolate German captives who are seen in the background. This picture was taken after the battles which paved the way for the fall of Enna. Captain V. C. G. Thrupp (centre) of the British Army, and Captain G. M. C. Sprung, of Winnipeg, conduct the examination. Twenty-five Entries for Summer Curling Bonspiel But More Still Needed

Entries Close To-morrow (Friday) at 6 p.m. At Least Forty Entries Required. Maximum Number of Rinks Set at Forty. Much Enthusiasm Shown for Idea.

There has been much enthusiasm in curling circles due to the fact that the McIntyre Community Building management has announced a Summer Curling Bonspiel, from Monday August 23rd to Thursday, August 26th. Last minute reports, however, show that the response of rinks to enter have not been so brisk as anticipated. The management of the McIntyre Community building states that before the Bonspiel gets under way there must be a minimum of 40 rinks, with a maximum of 64. To date only 25 rinks have officially entered, but several have stated they intend to have entries. Those on the border line, are advised that the entry list will be closed at 6 p.m. to-morrow (Friday, August 20th).

Two trophies are up for competition and each rink is guaranteed two games at the least. The weather at the present time is just perfect for curling, with outside evening temperatures of 40 to 45 degrees all this week.

All curlers are urged therefore to get their entries in at once and make this history-making event—the Summer Curling Bonspiel—a huge success.

Another very important thing in connection with the Bonspiel is that all proceeds after expenses will be used to provide cigarettes for the boys now doing such a grand job of beating the Axis. This alone should make for a full entry list.
