Police Court

N. Mattila paid $1 and costs for faulty parking.

J. Rozon, for speeding, (W.M.A.), paid $15 and costs; also B. Service on the same charge paid the same fine.

Mike Spyllo, in addition to paying $15 for speeding had his license suspended for 15 days.

T. Young for careless driving (no injuries or damage) paid $10 and costs.

C. Beaton (indecent act) paid $10 and costs.

L. Costonguay (no ownership permit, truck), paid $5 and costs.

Several juveniles were brought before the magistrate on charges of stealing vegetables from gardens. His worship reprimanded the young culprits who all pleaded guilty, told them of the annoyance caused to the owners, who spent time and money to grow these things, and let them all out on suspended sentence. All promised to go and steal no more.

A case of theft of an inner tube from mine property was also dismissed in the same manner. These boys said they wanted the rubber for sling shots.

Chief McInnis wants to give our young fry a word of warning about these same sling shots. They are doing altogether too much damage with them—shooting at light bulbs on the power posts, windows, and any breakable target. He warns that any boys seen using these sling shots in a destructive way may be brought into court by a policeman, and have to answer for damage caused.
