Community Players Delighted Soldiers at Monteith Camp

Actresses Present "A Full House".

South Porcupine Actors and

South Porcupine, Nov. 17th. Special to The Advance.

The cast of the recent successful play (Community Players), "A Full House," is most enthusiastic over the wonderful reception given to them by the Veteran Guards at Monteith on Friday evening

They responded to an invitation to put on the play there, and judging from what we hear. Monteith was just as pleased with the play as the players were with the reception and compliments paid them.

We are told that the play was even smoother than it had been in South Porcupine and the players themselves added a few local touches to the script which went over well. (For instance Art Moyle's lines in the last act were "How can I get out-this place is guarded like the Mint?"-and he altered them to read "guarded like an Internment Camp)

Mr. Waterhouse acted as host and after the play a social evening with a delightful lunch was held in the Officers' Mess.

All the cast were present: Mrs. J. Bawtenheimer (producer), Mrs. F. Walker. Mrs. W. Laine, Mrs. M. Bessette, Miss M. Phelps, Miss Pearle Kennedy. Miss Frances Hogan, Miss B. Maxwell-Smith. Messrs Art Moyle, Art Beasley Rene Quesnel, Ambrose McManus, Russ Vokes, Hal Smith and Len Pacione.

Miss Beulah Rayner accompanied them as prompter; Mr. Walter Honer for the Kiwanis Club, introduced the players; Mr. Jimmy McFadden who accompanied the singing on the piano, and Mr. W. G. Skinner who went ahead and prepared the stage as property man. 💲 Over 600 in the audience gave the play a wonderful hand-in fact it went over with a bang. Mrs. Bessette in between the first two acts sang to her own accompaniment "Madam Pom-Fom" and later led the audience in singing "Pistol-packin' Mamma."

Between Acts II and III Ambrose Mc-Manus (South Porcupine's first returned veteran of the present war, who served in Gibraltar) led community singing.
