ABSENT-MINDED

It was a London traffic-jam of the good old pre-war brand, and the driver of the army lorry got fed-up.

So when he saw an errand-boy walking along the pavement, he called out: "I say, sonny, anything up in front?"

"Yes," replied the Cockney lad quickly, "the copper's gone to lurch an' left 'is 'an' up." — Globe and Mail.

IN MEMORIAM

WEBBER — In loving memory of our sister, Mrs. A. C. Webber, who passed away December 31, 1938. Remembrance is a golden chain. Death tries to break, but all in vain. To love, to love, and then to part. Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart. The years may wipe out many things, But this they wipe out never. The memory of those happy days When we were all together. — Ever remembered by Joan, George and Family. — 52P
