A very thrilling experience was that had by Seaman Jerry Morin, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Morin, of 153 Pine street north, on Christmas Day. . . It is a Naval Tradition each year to chose the youngest man aboard ship to be "Captain for a Day". . . This Christmas day the honour fell to Jerry Morin, who is at present spending 21 days' leave at his home in town and relating this exciting episode to his family and friends. . . Beginning early Christmas morning he took over the full duties of the Captain of his ship, and was the Captain for the entire day. . .Jerry is stationed at Halifax and has been in the Navy since last February. .
