Mrs. T. Coulson presided over the monthly meeting of the Woman's Association of First United Church on Thursday afternoon, March 2nd.

There was an excellent attendance, several ladies from the Fireside club and the Woman's Missionary Society of the church being present.

The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. W. M. Mustard, her theme being "Temperance."

During the business period, arrangements were made regarding a Daffodil Tea, to be held on Saturday, April 15th. Two pianoforte solos by Mrs. A. Gamble were beautifully rendered and much enjoyed. Following this a talk by Miss Edna Grant, Secretary of the Canadian Women's Temperance Union, was thoroughly enjoyed, and provided much food for thought among the audience. In her speech Miss Grant spoke of the work being done all across Canada by the Union and she expressed the hope that soon a group would be formed here in Timmins to help carry on the work.

The meeting closed with the singing of "God Save the King", and the a short special period followed, during which refreshments were served.

TOUGH PROBLEM

Sandy, the stone mason, was drawing $12 a day, but when his brother from the country asked him how he was getting on he said "I'm not getting on." "But your job's a good one, ain't it?" asked the brother. "Sure is," said Sandy. "How about the hours?" "Short." "And the work?" "Pleasant." "What's the trouble, then?" "The wages — that's the trouble." "But, holy smoke —" "The wages, that's the trouble," growled Sandy. "They're so darn high, I can't afford to take a day off." — Sudbury Star.
