Funeral Saturday of Mrs. F. Reynolds at South Porcupine

For Thirty Years an Esteemed and Valued Resident of the Camp.

South Porcupine, March 15th. Special to The Advance.

South Porcupine sincerely mourns this week the passing of Mrs. Catherine Reynolds (Mrs. Frank Reynolds), of Connaught Hill, who passed to her rest on Thursday, March 9th, at her home.

She had been ill for over a year, having been twice during the year to Toronto for operation.

To her husband and daughter the sympathy of all is extended in their great loss.

The deceased lady was beloved by her neighbours and intimate friends, and sincerely respected by all who knew her.

She had lived in the camp for almost thirty years, and was one of the younger "old-timers" of the Porcupine. She came from Liverpool, England following her husband by about six months in June 1914. Her unusually lovely contralto voice and her knowledge of music (she was a licentiate of the London Victoria College of Music) made her popular and she was in great demand in concert circles. A great many music pupils passed through her hands, and many owe their understanding and appreciation of good music to her. During the first and this later great, war she was most active in Red Cross work; and indeed in any community welfare work in which she was asked to help

Her unselfish, kindly, gentle disposition was an example to us all, and at her funeral on Saturday afternoon, St. Paul's Anglican Church was filled with her friends, all truly feeling that one of their finest citizens had passed from them.

Archdeacon Woodall officiated at the very simple and dignified service and Maxwell Smith played the funeral organ music.

Two of her favorite hymns were sung "Unto the Hills Above do I Lift up My Longing Eyes," and "For all the Saints who from Their Labour's Rest," before the cortge left the church for the interment in Tisdale cemetery.

Pallbearers were W. H. Johns, Allan Pearce, Stan Pearce, Harry Martin, Frank C. Evans and Dan Hughes.

Mrs. Reynolds is survived by her husband and one daughter—Kathleen (Mrs. Lawrence Hart)—two grandsons and one sister—Mrs. Florence Taaffe of Liverpool, England.

Among those who sent floral and other expressions of sympathy were:

Frank, Kay, Lorne and children; Mr. and Mrs. D. Coffey, Walter and Doris Frisby, Ruby and Ernie Harris; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin; Miss Mabel Pace; Mr. and Mrs. Mart. South Porcupine Man Thrilled to Get Paper in Iceland

Copy of The Advance the "Best Treat This Christmas," Says Flight Sergt. W. Mylchreest.

South Porcupine, March 9th. Special to The Advance.

The following extract from a letter written by F.-Sgt., Wm. Mylchreest stationed at Reykjavik, Iceland shows how news of the home town is valued by servicemen doing their duty overseas.

Bill says: "I have been really thrilled lately at getting a few copies of the "Porcupine Advance", which were relayed on to me by Orry Costain, who is in England. I'll admit they were a little out of date by the time I received them; even so, having a Porcupine paper here in Iceland was the best treat I had this Christmas. In turn I passed them on to a boy by the name of McGrath who used to work at the McIntyre . . . Fred Andrews was here, but now he is in Ireland as an instructor."
