Flowers banked the altar of the First United Church, Timmins, Sunday afternoon for a very pretty double ring wedding ceremony, when Miss Margaret Lillian Innes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Montigny, Fourth Avenue, Schumacher, became the bride of Mr. Fredrick Kovalchuk, son of Mrs. Dora Kovalchuk, Kirkland Lake. The matrons of honour were Mrs. David Lamb, Winnipeg, and Mrs. George Bonziak, of Timmins. Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Bennett and Miss Dorothy Leck. ACl David Lamb and George Bonziak were groomsmen. The ushers were George Lamont and George Cawley.

The Rev. W. M. Mustard officiated, Presiding at the organ was Mr. H. C. Trehear.

During the signing of the register Mr. Ron Jones sang "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was a picture of loveliness in a gown of white satin cut on princess lines, with lace inserts, tucked front and finger tip sleeves. A cluster of tiny white satin flowers formed a headpiece for her long white veil. Her only ornament was a string of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and white baby's breath. Mrs. David Lamb attended her sister as matron of honour wearing a floor length gown of pink taffeta, full skirt and fitted waist, with finger tip sleeves. Tiny white flowers formed a headrest for her shoulder length veil of pink net. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and sweet peas.

Mrs. George Bonziak of Timmins, also a matron of the honour wore a floor length gown of blue sheer with full skirt, fitted waist and full sleeves. She wore a large picture hat of Leghorn straw, trimmed with blue ribbon, and carried a bouquet of red roses and sweet peas.

Miss Nancy Bennett as bridesmaid wore a long gown of pink sheer, full skirt, featuring a fitted waist with finger tip sleeves. Small white flowers caught up her short pink veil. She carried a bouquet of talisman roses and sweet peas.

Miss Dorothy Leck, also attended as bridesmaid, wearing a floor length gown of blue taffeta and net, with full skirt and fitted waist, and short sleeves. A headress of white flowers caught up her short blue net veil. She carried a bouquet of Johanna roses and sweet peas.

After the ceremony a wedding reception was held in the McIntyre Auditorium when over a hundred guests sat down to dinner. Mrs. Montigny, mother of bride, received the guests, wearing a dusty rose sheer suit, with felt hat to match. She wore a corsage of talisman roses. Mrs. Dora Kovalchuk, the groom's mother, wore an afternoon dress of blue sheer trimmed with white braid and navy blue felt hat to match. She wore a corsage of red roses.

Mr. Peter J. Andoney, of Kirkland Lake, uncle of the groom was master of ceremonies.

The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a pair of silver ear rings; to the attendants—Mrs. David Lamb an amethyst pendant; to Mrs. Bonziak, Miss Nancy Bennett and Mrs. Dorothy Leck, gramour pins; to ACl Lamb as Air Force wallet; George Bonziak, a key chain; and the ushers, George Lamont and Jordan Cawley, sets of collar pins and tie clips.

Mr. and Mrs. Kovalchuk left Monday afternoon by car for a wedding trip to Toronto.
