Another special feature of the programme was the musical numbers rendered by the Timmins High and Vocational School Choir, who presented such numbers as: the negro spiritual, "Who Built the Ark"; "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes"; Schubert's "Ave Marie"; "Waltzing Matilda" and "John Brown's Body. Other entertaining numbers presented on the programme were "United Nation's Dance", vocal solos by Colin Charron and Jeanine Morin, and a very entertaining and successful skit was also enjoyed by the audience. Community singing was another attraction of the evening's programme.

During the latter half of the programme, Mr. N. L. MacNames presented a plaque to chairman R. J. Ennis on behalf of D'Arcy Leonard, Chairman of the National War Finance committee, as symbol for the expected success of the Sixth Victory Loan in the Unit
