Seventh School Year Ended on Monday with Social Event at Which Rev. A. I. Helnonen, Mrs. Heinonen and Miss Ellie Heinonen were Guests of Honour. Eighth School Year will Open on October 2nd at Timmins and October 3rd, at South Porcupine.

The seventh school year of the Free English Language School for Finnishspeaking adults ended Monday evening, May 22nd, when the students gathered at the home of their teacher, Rev A. I. Heinonen, 53 Rea street South, Timmins. The evening was spent in a social way. The students provided a tasty lunch, Mrs. Heinonen, Miss Ellie Heinonen and Rev. Heinonen were "guests of honour".

A sing-song consisting of Finnish folk songs in English was much enjoyed. Miss Ellie Heinonen presided at the organ. The students also surprised Mrs. Heinonen and their teacher with a well filled purse as a "token of their gratitude and esteem." Mrs. A Koski made the presentation on behalf of the student body, speaking of the "great benefit the school has been to the students." and "hanking their teacher for his patience and endurance in this work." Rev. Heinonen, who was taken completely by surprise, replied suitably, speaking of the pleasure he had experienced in teaching such an
