Recipe for Court Bouillon to be Used in Cooking Fish

Flavour of Different Spices May be Added to Fish by Use of Court Bouillon

(By Agnes Adams)

Spicy sauces are popular with fish. Mustard is an accepted ingredient of many of them. However, the flavour of other spices can be subtly added to boiled or poached court bouillon.

Here is one recommended by Hemut Ripperger, in an excellent little cookbook entitled: "Spice Cookery" (George Stewart, publisher, price $1.00)

"There are a number of recipes in which fish plays a prominent part that are called court bouillon. This is incorrect, for in France, where it originated, court bouillon is merely the broth in which the fish is cooked and it is, or should be, prepared with great care."

"Mix your bouillon and let it boil for half an hour, and it will be ready to receive your fish. If using it for crab, lobster or shrimp, try letting the shellfish cool in the bouillon, and notice the taste!"

"To a half bottle of white wine, add some chopped parsley a pinch of salt, a slice of lemon, two cloves of garlic, one chopped onion, two cloves, one stalk of celery, six peppercorns, one teaspoon thyme, two bay leaves. Add enough cold water to make sufficient liquid to cover the fish to be cooked in it."

Sweet and Pungent Pork
3 large, green peppers
¾ cup cooking oil
1 clove garlic
1 tablespoon salt
1 egg
2 tablespoons flour
1 lb. lean pork
1 cup chicken bouillon
4 slices canned pineapple
2½ tablespoons cornstarch
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce mixed with
1 teaspoon water
½ cup vinegar
½ cup sugar
Cut green peppers into 6 pieces each. Parboil in boiling water for 2 minutes. Drain. Put fat and salt into large frying pan. Dice garlic and add. Heat, but do not let the garlic brown. Beat egg with 2 tablespoons flour, and half a teaspoon more salt. Cut pork in cubes. Put pork in batter and stir until each piece is coated. Drop singly from a fork into the frying pan. Brown over a moderate flame until each is golden brown—about 5 minutes on each side.

TEN YEARS AGO IN TIMMINS

From data in the Porcupine Advance Files

A chief feature of the weekly luncheon of the Timmins Kiwanis Club ten years ago was the presence of guests from Kirkland Lake Club. Arrangements had been made for the golf enthusiasts of the Kirkland Lake Kiwanis Club to visit the Timmins Club and enjoy some golf with the local Kiwanis golfers. The luncheon was held at the Timmins Golf Club house. Sidney Schermerling, (who was on vacation from Chicago where he was studying the violin under one of the scholars) and his sister, favoured the gathering with a number of selections that were greatly enjoyed. Gordon Irving was welcomed as a new member of the Timmins Kiwanis Club and there was also welcome for Kiwanian Harry Jones, just returned from a three months' visit to England.

The following appeared in part in The Advance of August 23rd, 1934:—"The death took place at his home here last night about 9.30 of Joseph E. Newton, widely-known business man of the North, and member of the firm of Sullivan and Newton, Timmins. The late Mr. Newton had been in ill health for the past four years and a half, having a heart condition, and recently he was confined to his room the greater part of the time. He is survived by his widow and three children, Helen, Emmet and Keyan, and to these and the other near relatives and friends all sympathy will be extended."

The McIntyre baseball team lost a 10-7 game Wednesday, August 22nd, 1934, at Kirkland Lake. It was the third game of the playoffs for the championship and also the first loss for McIntyre. The series then stood at two games to one for McIntyre.

McIntyre Hood, editor of The Oshawa Daily Times, and five of the newboys of the staff of the paper visited Timmins ten years ago, seeing the mines and other features of interest. The boys were on tour of the North, being the winners in a subscription contest with the tour of the North as the first prize.

While workmen were busy on Saturday afternoon, August 18th, 1934, at excavation work in connection with the new addition to St. Mary's hospital, a small box was encountered and on the box being opened it was found to contain the body of an infant. An inquest was held and from all the reports it was deduced that the child was about a year and a half old at the time of death. The baby's body had been carefully enclosed in a plain basket of wood, and a small wooden cross had been also enclosed in the basket, and this little cross bore evidence of having once been covered with flowers. After the enquiry the child was given burial again at the Timmins Cemetery.

The following appeared in part in The Advance ten years ago:—"George Vary, well-known and highly esteemed in Timmins and the North where he had spent a great many years passed away on Sunday morning. He had been in ill health for some years past, suffering from rheumatism but only recently was his condition critical. The late George Vary was prominent in fraternal, church and other circles and he leaves behind him large numbers of friends and acquaintances who will deeply regret his death. He was of friendly and genial disposition and won the high regard of all who knew him. He was especially prominent in Masonic circles and was honoured by life membership in both Cobalt and Timmins Masonic lodges. He was a Past Master of Golden Beaver Lodge, A.F. & A.M., Timmins, being second to hold that office in the commencing years of the lodge. The late Mr. Vary is survived by his widow and two daughters and one son. To these and to the other near relatives and friends sincere sympathy of all is extended at this time."

Among the local and personal items appearing in The Advance ten years ago were the following:—"Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andercheck spent the past two weeks at Killaloe, Ont." "Mr. and Mrs. S. Wheeler and son Bobby, left on Monday on a motor trip to Toronto." "Large quantities of blueberries are reported as being shipped south from Matheson." "Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hall left this week for Mount Forest, Ont., for a holiday." "Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Johns and son, Lloyd, were recent visitors to Giroux Lake, Cobalt camp." "Albert Courtmanche, the second chief of police of the town of Timmins, was recently added to the Rouyn police force." "Mr. and Mrs. H. Fassett and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bissonette have returned from a motor trip to the South." "Mrs. Hamilton, of Toronto, is spending a few weeks with her daughter Mrs. A. H. Hall, 17 Montgomery Ave." "Mortimer J. Insnor spent a few days at his home at Pickle Crow Mine on the 9th of August." "Eric A. Fleming and son, Alvey, left by Monday noon train for Smith Falls, Ont., to attend the funeral of Mr. Fleming's aunt, Mrs. A. Leach." "Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Redden returned to Timmins last week after

Pour off all but 1 tablespoon of oil. Add ¼ cup chicken bouillon, pineapple cut into small pieces and the green pepper. Cover tightly and cook over a low flame for 10 minutes. SOME RESEMBLANCE

Two Lancashire lads soldiering in London were listening to the talk of a recruit who spoke fluent English. The lads kept quiet till he stopped talking and cleared his throat. "Well, anyway," said one of the lads to the other, "he coughs in English."—Sudbury Star.

There is no question that poultry, fed "Miracle" Laying Mash produce more eggs... both in and out of season. This has been proved countless times, and many poultrymen report egg increases up to 200%.

"Miracle" Laying Mash does the job better because it contains top quality ingredients, scientifically blended in just the right proportions. Why not put your flock on this mash now, and prove that poultry pays more the "Miracle" way.

Brother, Should You Spend a Dime?

A dime is small change! But when a lot of dimes march out of your pocket they soon become dollars that start to fight other dollars, for the new neckties, dresses or furniture left for us to buy. This battle of the dollars is called INFLATION because it starts prices rising! And the higher prices go... the less your dollar is worth! For instance, during the last war, people had to pay for sugar that you get for today. A voile night dress was compared to the you pay now. Your dollar buys more goods, is worth more than the dollar of 1914-18. Price ceilings and other anti-inflationary measures have helped keep its value high. And remember! Every time you use your money wisely to pay off a debt or to increase your savings when you refuse to hoard goods or patronize black markets... it makes your dollars worth MORE!

Make This Pledge Today!

I promise to give my support to keeping the cost of living down. I will buy only what I need. I will observe the ceiling whether buying or selling goods or services. I will pay off old debts, save for the future, invest in Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates. And I will support taxes which help lower the cost of living.

Keep Your Dollar Value High!
