

Bitter Battle With The Germans in Holland

CANADIANS RETURN TO DIEPPE ... VICTORS

Very smartly and proudly they marched these lads of a Canadian Infantry Division, who took Dieppe away from the Germans. Many of them had been in that raid two years ago and all remembered those men of the regiments who died on the beaches and in the town during those nine hours of bitter fighting. Picture shows the formal parade of the victors and liberators as they entered the city, almost two years to the day of the initial raid. Lesson learned in the Dieppe raid played a vital factor in the Allied landings in North Africa, Sicily and Normandy. (Canadian Army Overseas Photo).

Kinsman Artists Event Pleases Large and Very Enthusiastic Audience

Rex Battle, Anna Russel, Helene Morton and William Morton Provide Musical Programme of Much Merit and with Great Popular Appeal. Artists left Here to Appear at Noranda and Kirkland Lake

There was a large audience at the McIntyre Arena on Friday evening for the Kinsmen Canadian Artists event, and to judge by the continued applause each artist received, the event was one of the most appreciated to be given in this district in years. Financially the concert was a success and as a result the funds of the Kinsmen for "Milk for Britain" and other worthy causes will be well sustained.

The artists, all Canadians, were Rex Battle, pianist, Anna Russel, Comedienne, Helen Morton, Soprano, and William Morton, tenor, and each of the four of them lived up to the flattering advance notices they had received from successes at other centres. The fact that all four had been heard on radio programmes also added to the interest.

President S. F. Chapman, of the Kinsmen introduced the programme, while a brief but able address on the work of the Kinsmen was given by the President for Canada, Hal Rogers, the founder of the Club, who came here specially for the occasion. President Rogers was banqueted by the Timmins Kinsmen at the McIntyre Lounge on Saturday evening.

The programme Friday evening was opened by Rex Battle, whose brilliant work during the evening highlighted the occasion. The lovers of music were enthusiastic over Mr. Battle's remarkable mastery of the piano and were insistent on encores. It was decided, however, that on account of the length of the programme encores must be barred. While the audience was about ideal in its interest and attention, the gathering would not allow Rex Battle to go without one encore. For this he gave "Prelude," by Chopin. Other numbers included: "Bolero Ritmico," by Frederico Langas; "Rustling Leaves" by Franz Liszt; "Polka," from "Golden Age," by Shostakovich. In all his numbers he was able to prove himself the top-ranking pianist of Canada today, and his talent enabled him during the evening to join in the fun with Anna Russel and yet not belittle his art as an artist. An outstanding number by Rex Battle was "A Musical Reincarnation," in which he took Irving Berlin's "Blue Skies," and gave the number as it would be expected that it would have been if composed by several of the great masters.

Helene Morton's presentation of "The Jewel Song" from Faust; "Life," by Pearl Curran; and "Ave Maria," by Bach-Gounod, were much enjoyed, her richly trained soprano voice, and her attractive personality adding to the effectiveness of the numbers.

William Morton, noted tenor, though hampered by a bad cold, thrilled his audience with his selections, particularly "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte. Other numbers included: "O Paradise" (Meyerbeer) and "The Spirit Flower" (Campbell-Tipton).

Three popular selections given by Helene and William Morton as duets were delightful numbers on the programme. Anna Russel proved herself not only

Charge Local Men With Assault on Special Agent

Romero Perron, who acted recently for town police in liquor cases, and who was understood to be the chief Crown witness in five cases last week where local men pleaded guilty to keeping liquor for sale, was driven to Porcupine Junction last week, and after the local police left him on Tuesday evening, the 12th, he was beaten up so badly that he had to spend some time in the Iroquois Falls hospital. Perron had his jaw fractured a bad cut over one eye, and a large number of bruises and abrasions on the body. The Provincial Police were notified of the assault and started an investigation. As a result of the work of the police Howard Brunette and Ivan Ducaume, both of Timmins, were before Magistrate Tucker at Iroquois Falls this week charged with assaulting Perron. Three-Year Term for Arthur Aubuchon

At the assizes at Cochrane this week, Arthur Aubuchon was given three years in penitentiary on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of George Timms here on April 17th, following injuries sustained by Timms on the night of April 12th in front of the St. Charles hotel. Aubuchon was first charged here with murder but at the preliminary hearing this was reduced to manslaughter, on which charge he was committed for trial. At Cochrane the charge was again one of murder, the Crown having new evidence to suggest this. The jury, however, found the accused not guilty of murder but guilty of manslaughter, and recommended leniency. Greg. Evans defended the accused man and though practically with no time to prepare the case which was one in which the late Mr. Kester was to appear, Mr. Evans put up a very able defence and apparently did much to save the accused from a more severe sentence.

Only One Fire Call Here During Past Seven Days

There was only one fire call for the Timmins Fire Dept. during the past seven days. That was on Tuesday afternoon shortly after four o'clock. The call was to 119 Cedar street south where there was fire in a floor underneath a stairway in a shed. The stairway in the shed led to the basement and it is thought that children playing in the shed were responsible for the small fire. The fire was kept down until the arrival of the firemen by the use of garden hose. The firemen soon completed the job of stopping that fire.

British Second Army Locked in Fierce Battle With Huns in Holland

Boy Scouts Apple Day October 7th

Keep the Date is Mind and Help Along a Valuable Institution

Saturday, October 7th, will be the Boy Scouts annual Apple Day. This is one time during the year when the public has the opportunity to help the Boy Scouts in financial way. The Scouts on these Apple Days sell apples, the returns going to maintain the work of this helpful organization. The value of the Boy Scouts movement has been especially noticeable during the trying war days. In addition to being a strong counter force to minimize the prevalent "juvenile delinquency," so called, the Boy Scouts have been a very helpful factor in all sorts of patriotic work. The public should remember all this when Apple Day arrives.

British Second Army troops are locked in bitter battle with German forces before the Rhine river in Holland. Late word is that the Germans still have control of the vital mile-and-a-half long area. Allied air force landed in the Arnhem sector is completely surrounded by German troops. All along the line the German resistance has stiffened. Hitler is announced as personally in command of all the German forces.

Russia is continuing its advance but not at the speed that obtained some weeks ago.
