Plan for Golf Course and Pro at Larder Lake Soon

Larder Lake is planning to have a golf course, together with a professional. There is a large tract of land available for use right on the highway at the western end of the town. Part of this land is cleared and permission has been granted by the Omega Gold Mines Ltd. to use the ground as a golf course.

TEN YEARS AGO IN TIMMINS

From data in the Porcupine Advance Files

In The Advance ten years ago there was a report of a special meeting of the council, which was called to meet R. H. Starr, one of the Hydro Electric Commission's Engineers, to discuss the question of Ontario Hydro for Timmins. Mr. Starr at the outset pointed out that the duplication of plants was seldom wise. The town had a contract with the Northern Canada Power Co., the franchise expiring in 1935. The plan to be followed would seem to be to have the people vote on the necessary by-laws at the municipal election in 1935 and thus everything would be ready to take over the power company's plant when the franchise expired if the ratepayers endorsed that move. In the meantime, however, there was nothing to prevent the town from dealing with the company with a view to taking over the plant. After much discussion, the attitude seemed to be that it might be worth while to have a survey made and take the matter up further to see if it would pay Timmins to enter the Hydro field.

"Flowers, Neatness, Cleanliness, outstanding features of all German cities, towns and villages," said H. G. Skavlem, in an informative and attractive talk on a visit to Germany to Timmins Kiwanis Club, in The Advance ten years ago. Mr. Skavlem and daughter had sailed on the S.S. Europa, and his vivid descriptions of the principal cities of Germany that he had seen, were very interesting. He was quite impressed with the re-painting and re-painting going on in Germany, for which the government gave special grants, and also with the building boom going on in Britain. In London, he said, they were literally building by the mile, 16 and 17-story apartment buildings being built to replace Park Row. Old buildings were being repaired. Kiwanian R. E. Dye thanked the speaker for his most interesting and informative address.

In The Advance ten years ago there was an item about a young man who was caught in the act of robbing Ramseyer's jewelry store in Moneta. The constable on the beat, Constable Cyr, was making his rounds of the warehouses, when he heard the crash of glass and rushed over to Pine Street, to find the young man removing articles from the window. He was caught with two clocks in his pockets, and was sentenced in court to two months in jail.

The Advance ten years ago had the following heading: "Business as usual while rebuilding. New Office building for The Advance being built over present structure. Operations carried on as usual."

An article in The Advance ten years ago was about Jimmie Stingle, 13-year-old son of Mrs. G. Stingle, who was struck by a car while riding his bicycle on Wilson Avenue. The wheel was badly smashed, and the boy taken to St. Mary's hospital, where it was found that although badly bruised about the back and suffering painful injuries, he was not seriously hurt and will not suffer any permanent hurt through the accident. The driver of the car was charged with being drunk in charge of a car, and was sentenced to ten days at Halleybury.

The Advance ten years ago recorded the death of Rev. Sister Marie Catherine D'Alexandre, of the Order of the Sisters of Providence, who died at St. Mary's Hospital. The late Sister Marie Catherine was a singer of marked talent and her kindness and sympathy won her wide circles of friends in all classes. Mass was said at St. Anthony's R. C. Church, after which the body was shipped to Montreal for further funeral services and interment at the Mother House of the Sisters of Providence. The Sister Superior and another Sister of the Order accompanied the body to Montreal.

One man was dead, and another badly injured, as the result of an auto and train crash at Hoyle ten years ago. Fedico Guniero, aged 41 years, an employee of the Dome Mines, and whose residence was on Golden Avenue, South Porcupine, (killed instantly) and Egildo Baggio, 26 years of age, and also of Golden Avenue, and who was employed at the Buffalo-Ankerite Mine, was taken to South Porcupine hospital, seriously injured. The two men were returning from a hunting trip, and the accident occurred at a railway crossing near Hoyle.

Among the local and personal items in The Advance ten years ago were the following: "B. V. Harrison, general manager, and W. B. F. Cadman, of the Canada Northern Power Corporation head office at New Liskeard, were visitors to Timmins last week." "Billy Brown, pianist and teacher of music, and Henry Ostrosser, who were on a holiday trip to Winnipeg, Chicago and other points south, returned to Timmins last week." "Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dye returned this week from a trip to Florida." "Mr. and Mrs. H. Thomas returned last week from a visit to the South." "Art Jackson returned on Saturday last after a month's visit to his home at Sydney, Nova Scotia." "Mr. Garth Teeple, of the Eaton Groceteria in Kirkland Lake, was a visitor to Timmins last week-end." "Mrs. George Miller is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. E. Dye at the Vipond Mine." "Mr. Ray Eddy left last week for Toronto where he will attend St. Andrew's College." "Mr. Clem Leaman leaves this week for Toronto to attend college at Varsity." "Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Wolno returned last Saturday from a visit to Toronto and Waterloo." "Mr.

J. Walsh returned to Timmins last week-end from an extensive motor tour of the Southern part of the province." "Born—in Timmins, Ont., on Saturday, Sept. 8th, 1934, to Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Farrell, 36 Wende Avenue—a daughter." "Born—in Timmins, Ont., on Thursday, August 30th, 1934, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Graham—a daughter (Ann Shirley)." "Mrs. Hodnett, of Toronto, who has been the guest of Mrs. H. Traver for some weeks past, left today on her way back to her home in Toronto." "H. Charlebois is now in charge of the brewery warehouse here, succeeding D. Martin, retired by the new government in the re-organization being made." "Miss Constance Harris has entered her apprenticeship as a chemist and druggist at the Goldfields Drug Store, being the first young lady in Timmins to proceed to graduation as a druggist and chemist." "All were well pleased to see A. W. Lang able to be out and around again as usual, after being confined to the house for a few days as the result of an auto accident on Sunday morning of last week." "Mrs. S. Williams, 25 Toke Street, leaves on Friday of this week for Montreal to sail on the Empress of Britain for England to spend a few months with relatives and friends in her native town of Cardiff, Wales." "Mrs. P. T. Moisey is in St. Mary's hospital where she underwent an operation on Monday for appendicitis. All will be pleased to know that Mrs. Moisey is making good progress to recovery." "P. W. Schumacher, of Columbus, Ohio, one of the pioneers of the Porcupine camp, and founder of the town of Schumacher, is a visitor to the camp this week." "Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Rusk were guests last week of friends at North Bay on their way to Cache Bay to visit relatives and friends." "Born—in At St. Mary's Hospital, Timmins, on Tuesday, Sept. 11, 1934, to Mr. and Mrs. E. Lusk—a son."

A tragedy took place in Timmins ten years ago which took the lives of three popular and promising young people of the town. They were Wilfred Shields, Pat Letang, and Dorothy Burke, who were drowned in Fulham Creek after the overturning of a canoe. A fourth member, Stella Kramer, was the only survivor of what started out to be a very pleasant canoe ride. It was not known just what happened, whether the canoe hit a "deadhead" or whether it was a sudden movement of one of the occupants in the canoe which caused it to overturn. The survivor, Stella Kramer, who was a good swimmer, made for the North bank and had no difficulty in getting out. Wilfred Shields was right behind her when she got out, but when he noticed that the other two were in difficulty started back to help them out, but seemingly he took a cramp and sank about 15 feet from shore. Apparently Pat Letang, who was a good swimmer was helping Dorothy Burke, who was a poor swimmer, to shore, but unfortunately they hit out for the South bank, which was very steep, and with nothing to grasp, and evidently the young man was unable to draw himself and the girl from the water, and, likely exhausted, they sank not more than three feet from the shore. It was generally felt that the two boys, both athletes of special note, had given their lives in an effort to save their companions.

Another tragedy, recorded in The Advance ten years ago, took the life of another young member of the community, 14-year-old Stella Brown, of South Porcupine, when her bicycle collided with a truck. The accident happened about 4.30 in the afternoon when some of the girls at the High School were practising for a bicycle race to be held at the school that week. The driver of the truck took to the ditch in an effort to avoid her, but the child was unable to slow her bicycle, and collided with the truck. The whole community was mourning the loss of this very popular little girl. Mayor Richardson was in the chair at the council meeting ten years ago, with Councillors Chateauvert, Maltais, Bartleman, Lapralrie and Belec present. The town council was instructed to write to Premier Hepburn that if government relief work was discontinued it would mean more money for direct relief in the district. A copy of the letter was to be sent to Hon. Peter Heenan and to the local member—a note to be added to the letter to the local member to the effect that the council would appreciate it if he would acknowledge receipt of letters from the council. Chief Paul asked that the wages of constables be raised $10 a month, as they were working 11 hours a day instead of 8. Council agreed. A letter from the Dominion Fire Chiefs' Association asked council to reconsider the motion retiring Fire Chief Bolland. New lighting rates were submitted from the Northern Ontario Power Co. Councillor Lapralrie suggested that the Power Co. be thanked for this voluntary reduction, but Councillor Bartleman didn't think so. He claimed that some people would have to pay more under the new rates. It was finally decided to meet a representative of the Power Co. for further discussion. The clerk was authorized to notify insurance companies to have all town policies changed to expire on Oct. 1st, 1934.

Most Wor. Bro. Copus, of Stratford, Grand Master of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Canada, paid an official visit to Timmins ten years ago. The distinguished visitor was welcomed here by the members of the Order in the town and district.

Sister Marie Liguori, Reg. N., came to Timmins ten years ago to be the new Sister Superior at St. Mary's Hospital, succeeding Sister Godefrey D'Amiens, who was called to Montreal as Superior at the Cartierville hospital there, after a stay in Timmins of about six weeks. Sister Godefrey succeeded Sister Robert.

Among the local and personal items appearing in The Advance ten years ago were the following: "Mrs. J. W. Fenn returned last week from a two months' holiday in the South. On her return she was accompanied here by Mrs. George Fenn and daughters, Misses Gertrude and Agnes, of Bracebridge, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fenn, 1 Elm Street South. Mrs. George Fenn and daughters left yesterday to motor home again to Bracebridge." "Miss Molly Rae, of Hamilton, is in town for two weeks visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Thomas at 17 Cambria Ave." "Mr. and Mrs. King, of Woodstock, Ont., are visiting Mr. King's sister, Mrs. Bruce Miller." "Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Rusk returned last week from a visit to the South and East." "G. W. Ecclestone, T. Bird and Major Lyndon and others from Bracebridge were visitors to Timmins last week." "Mr. and Mrs. P. J. O'Brien, of Montreal, were visitors to Timmins friends last week." "Mrs. H. S. Robinson, of Schumacher, is playing in the Ontario Ladies' Golf Tournament at the Toronto Golf links this week." "Ed Loney, now mining editor for The Toronto Globe, but formerly at Sudbury and Timmins, was a visitor to the camp this week." "O. R. Kelly, of the Buffalo-Ankerite mill, left for the Kirkland Lake camp to take the position of the superintendent of the Bidgood mill." "Mrs. A. Shaheen and son, George, returned last Sunday from an extensive buying trip in Montreal and Toronto." "Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Huckerby and little girl left on Friday last for a two weeks' holiday in the East, where they will visit Perth and other places." "Mrs. F. Read, 12 Sixth avenue, who had the ill-fortune some days ago to fall on the lawn at her home and break a bone in her ankle, is making good progress to recovery at her home in town." "Mr. and Mrs. H. Traver and son, Leonard, left today for Kingston, Ont., where Leonard will commence his course of studies at Queen's University. Mr. and Mrs. Traver will spend a short holiday in the South before returning home." "Mrs. Thomas W. Hardy returned last week from a month's vacation spent in Ottawa."

Jewish People Observe Hebrew New Year Here

Stores Closed Monday and Tuesday This Week

This Week the Jewish people of Timmins and the North generally are observing the traditional Jewish New Year. Monday and Tuesday of this week all stores owned or operated by those of the Jewish faith were closed all day. The closing of leading stores in town on Tuesday was a special evidence of the sincerity of the owners as Tuesday was an important business day, being a Hollinger pay day.

Observance of the Jewish new year on Monday was preceded by a solemn religious service on the eve of the day, and following the plan of orthodox Jewish synagogues throughout the world services were also conducted at the synagogue on Cedar street, Timmins, on Tuesday.

New Books Reviewed by the Boys and Girls of the Timmins Public Library

Following Practice of Timmins Public Library Children's Books are Reviewed by the Girls and Boys Themselves. Four of the Books for Juveniles Recently Received Here are Reviewed This Week.

For some time past it has been the practice at the Timmins Public Library to have the boys and girls themselves review the new juvenile books, instead of using the publishers' blurbs to give an idea of the contents and style of the book. As pointed out before, this plan has many advantages. It encourages boys and girls to think as well as to write their opinions. The children also pay more attention to the ideas of one of themselves in regard to books than they would do to the opinions of adults. Below will be found reviews of four new volumes by local boys and girls, members of the Timmins Public Library:—

"Dark Treasure," by W. MacMillan. Reviewed by Helen Skubinski.—Mark Abbot goes to an island in the Arctic in search of sable furs with an explorer by the name of John MacLaren. Count Stovoski, a Russian, makes several attempts to kill Mark. Mark makes friends with an Eskimo tribe when he saved the chief's grandson from being killed. This tribe saves Mark from death because of this friendliness when the Count asked them to kill Mark.

"Blindfold, Fly Up," by May Justus. Reviewed by Helen Skubinski.—This story is about a boy named Matt and a girl named Glory. Glory and Matt went to school in Little Twin.

One day a man came to Little Twin. Under his arm he carried a book of music. The man said his name was David Hunter and he wished to learn the song "Skip-to-my-Lou". Mr. Hunter said he was going to write a book called, "Songs from the Great Smoky Mountains".

After Thanksgiving school had to stop because they had no more money to run it. On Thanksgiving the school was crowded with people from Little Twin and Big Mountains.

New Year's Day (Sept. 19th, this year in the ordinary calendar) is the most sacred and solemn day of the Jewish calendar. On this day orthodox Jews abstain from food and drink and spend most of the hours in the synagogue praying. The chief thought in the observance of Rosh Hashanah (the beginning of the year) is one of atonement and expiation. It ushers in what the known as the ten days of repentance, ending with what is termed "The Day of Repentance," or "Yom Kippur." The latter is a day of reckoning, when man is required under the Jewish religion to make peace with God. The traditional greeting for the day is:—"May you be inscribed in the Book of Life."

In the synagogue the service of Repentance Day is marked by the blowing of the Shofar (ram's horn), regarded as the call to repentance according to the injunctions in the Scriptures.

These holy days are observed through out the world wherever Jews reside, including the armed services where special services have been arranged for the large number of Jewish soldiers, sailors and airmen on active service in this war.

Squadron Leader W. Moseley-Williams Named to Command Flight of Halifaxes

Forwarded by the Directorate of Public Relations of the R. C. A. F. this week there comes a despatch from R.C.A.F. Bomber Group Overseas giving the interesting information that Squadron Leader W. R. Moseley-Williams, formerly of Timmins, and more recently with his home address as 227 Ferguson street, North Bay, Ontario, has been named to command a flight of Halifaxes with the Lion Squadron. Squadron Leader Moseley-Williams at the time of his enlistment was on the staff of the Bank of N. S. at Timmins and was among the popular young people of the town. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Moseley-Williams, were among the early residents of Timmins, later moving to New Liskeard, and more recently taking up residence in North Bay.

The honour given to Squadron Leader Moseley-Williams by naming him to command a flight of Halifaxes is one well won. He has had 25 operational sorties with R.C.A.F. Bomber Group to his credit, including attacks on Wesseling, Aachen, Hamburg and Kiel. He has just been promoted from the rank of Flight Lieutenant.

The despatch from R.C.A.F. Bomber Group Overseas says that Squadron Leader Moseley-Williams, who is twenty-six years old, joined the R.C.A.F. at North Bay in January, 1941. He trained at Victoriaville, Quebec, Edmonton, and won his pilot's wings and commission at Calgary in November, 1941. Squadron Leader Moseley-Williams instructed at Calgary and Claresholm, Alta., until posted overseas in the spring of 1943.

One day all the Moffat family started a Victory Garden. Rufus put in beans, Joey put in onions and carrots and Jane put in corn. Rufus and Jane went into a popcorn partnership. You had to earn money before you could become a victory girl or boy. They saw so much popcorn that I think the people were sick of it.

One day all the bells, whistles, sirens, and fire alarms went on and the teaching told them the War was over. They went home but they found that it was a false alarm. The next day was Nov. 11th, and the WAR WAS OVER.
