Who hath a book
Has friends at hand,
And gold and gear
At his command;
And rich estates,
If he but look,
Are held by him
Who hath a book.

Who hath a book
Has but to read
And he may be
A king, indeed;
His kingdom is
His inglenook.
All this he has
Who hath a book.

Twenty Years Ago

From the Porcupine Advance files

The Fire Chief enlisted the help of all, through the newspapers, personal appeal, and through the co-operation of the schools and other institutions, to guard against danger of fire.

George, the 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Smith, suffered a compound fracture of the right leg as well as cuts about the legs, when he was struck by a car while crossing the corner from the Bank of Commerce to Marshall-Ecclestone's twenty years ago.

The Advance twenty years ago announced that the government dock at Conaught was almost completed.

Twenty years ago The Advance complained about what seemed to be an unnecessary delay in finishing the pavement in town. The streets had been torn up and then delay in a shipment of rock held up progress for some time.

Florent Danis, of Timmins, died on Sept. 29th, 1924, from the effects of gunshot wounds sustained the previous day. Mr. Danis was bringing two hunters home to Timmins in one of the Northern Canada Power Co.'s boats, when a gun in the boat discharged, inflicting serious wounds in Mr. Danis's back. The other men took the boat back to Wawa and Dr. Evers was summoned, going up in a motor boat. Mr. Danis remained conscious up to the time of his death and explained that the discharge of the gun was accidental. Mr. Danis was a genial, friendly man, and was very popular, and general regret was felt in his sudden death. He was 32 years of age, and left a widow and five children.

E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, made a visit to Timmins twenty years ago, coming here in his special car, "Thorold". Included in his party were; R. A. McInnis, general manager of the Abitibi Power and Paper Co., Iroquois Falls;

Twenty years ago The Advance, with much pleasure, announced the complete establishment of the Ontario Mining Court with His Honour Judge T. E. Godson as judge of the court. In the previous ten years Mr. Gorson had been Mining Commissioner, but had been greatly handicapped in the dealing with mining disputes through the fact that he did not have authority and power for the enforcement of his findings. A judge of the Mining Court he had full power to deal with mining matters as other courts do with questions before them.
