TEN YEARS AGO IN TIMMINS

From data in the Porcupine Advance Files

From our South Porcupine correspondent came word ten years ago of an accident that happened when two young lads, Roger Emden, 18 years old and Jim Turner, 16 years old, went out hunting with 22 rifles. When they began to prepare their dinner in the bush they parked their rifles against a tree. A twig must have caught the trigger while they were building a fire, at any rate Turner's gun went off, the bullet lodging in young Emden's stomach. Young Turner carried Emden on his back two miles to the highway, made him as comfortable as possible there while he went on—in stocking feet—the five miles to the hospital in South Porcupine to notify them of the accident. In the meantime the McIntyre truck passed, picked young Emden up and rushed him to the hospital, where he was operated on immediately.

Information from Iroquois Falls ten years ago was to the effect that the diphtheria epidemic there was well-checked. They were about 7 or 8 cases all told, all under strict quarantine. Some cases at Ansonville and Montrock were also strictly quarantined.

There were over 6900 names on the Voters' lists in Timmins ten years ago. An increase of 435 from the previous year. Rev. Dr. Peter Bryce, in charge of the Missionary work and Maintenance Fund, of the United Church, and widely known for his work as a social welfare worker, was the speaker at the United Church, Timmins, ten years ago when he was on a tour of the North Land.

Chicago Black Hawks of the National Hockey League, ended all negotiations with Lorne Chabot, veteran goalie, who played the previous year with Montreal Canadiens, because of a salary disagreement, ten years ago and invited Samuel ("Porky") Levine, Canadian-born goalie for the Kansas City club of the American Association last year, to vie with Joe Starke for a regular job with the Stanley Cup holders.

There were sixty-two enumerators at work in Timmins ten years ago, getting the names for the voters' lists to be used in Dominion elections.

The grand opening of the Empire Hotel Tavern was held ten years ago, attended by several hundred citizens of the town and their ladies as the guest of Leo Mascioli and associates in the Empire Hotel. Al Pierini's orchestra provided the music for the dancing.

An item noted in the South Porcupine column ten years ago was as follows:—"Mrs. Seckulac, of Connaught Hill, has proved from experience that there are worse places than Canada to live in, and that conditions in Europe are not as rosy as some would like to have us think. With her two Canadian-born and South Porcupine educated children she left here last July to go back to settle in her native land of Croatia. The youngsters were both home-sick and she herself found that conditions had changed. When King Peter was assassinated she sent her husband a cable from Cherbourg to say she was coming home. They are now on the high seas expected home this week."

There were nearly sixty cases again in Police Court ten years ago, with a variety of charges, including four assault charges, three charges of keeping disorderly houses with accompanying charges of being inmates and frequenters, a charge of begging, stealing wage cases, a case under the Deserted Wife Act, illegal possession of liquor, reckless driving, speeding, and the ordinary, every-day drunk charges. The game warden, R. R. Cockburn, also had six men in court on charges of shooting on Sunday, each of them being fined $10.00 and costs.

Note was made in The Advance ten years ago that the new premises of the Canadian Legion were nearing completion and it was hoped to have the official opening on November 11th.

There was much uneasiness caused ten years ago and the newspapers of the North were getting quite wrathful about the forced strike situation in the pulpwood camps of the North, and at the reports of renewed violence by strikers against men who are willing to remain at work, and at the attitude taken toward this situation by Hon. Roebuck, Attorney-General of the province, who said there was nothing serious happening in the North.

Ten years ago in Toronto the report of Armand Racine, the commissioner appointed by the Hepburn Government to enquire into the T. & N.O. Railway affairs was made public. In the report there were suggestions of laxity and poor management of the Railway and the necessity for a complete re-organization. However, the years show that after a few changes the same policy and practice was followed as before. The years have shown that Geo. W. Lee and Commissioners MacLaren and L. T. Martin did a good job in supervising the T. & N.O.

First landings were made ten years ago on three of the most advanced of the Canadian airports under construction in this North Land. The three airports were Porquis Junction, Diver and South River. These airports were ready then for emergency landings.

Some of the prices noted in the grocery advertisements ten years ago were: Fresh Grade "A" Boiling Fowl, 29c per lb.; Sliced Calves Liver, 25c per lb.; Hamburg Steak or Stewing Beef, 3 lbs. for 25c; Silverbrook Butter, 22c per lb.; Shelled Walnuts, 1 1/2 lb. for 19c; Sultana Raisins, 2 lbs. for 27c; Currants, 2 lbs. for 29c.

Among the shows advertised in the Theatre advertisements ten years ago were the following: Laurel and Hardy in "Sons of the Desert"; George Arliss in "The House of Rothschild"; Jack Holt in "The Wrecker"; Wynne Gibson and P. Foster in "Sleepers East"; Evelyn Venable and K. Taylor in "Double Door".

Among the locals and personals in The Advance ten years ago were the following: "Rev. Mr. Leifman returned last week from a hunting trip, with a 500-lb. moose as a trophy of the hunt. He was hunting some 42 miles north of Cochrane." "A. W. Pickering was called south owing to the illness of his mother." "A. W. Young and Fred Sexton left last week for the Moosonee country for their annual duck-hunting trip." "W. M. Widdifield and J. R. Todd left this week for a duck-hunting trip in the Moosonee area." "Mrs. D. Bough and Miss Audrey Bough returned on Saturday from their trip to the Chicago World's Fair." "Born at St. Mary's Hospital, Timmins, on October 12th, to Mr. and Mrs. W. Trethowan—a daughter (Gertrude Vivian)." "Austin Neame, zone representative of the Canadian Legion, accompanied by Walter Greaves, will be at Matheson this (Thursday) evening to open another branch of the Canadian Legion in the North Land." "Dr. H. H. Moore received word yesterday of the death of his brother at Toronto. His brother was a minister of the United Church but had been living retired recently. He suffered a stroke a year ago and had been in poor health since." "A tag day held at Halleybury recently for the Children's Aid Shelter netted $100.60." "C. A. Perks left this week by motor for a trip to Toronto and other points south."

The dart league has got off to a fine start with four teams participating in the first home games held this season in the Legion Hall on Friday evening—United vs Imperials; Legion vs Aity-Aits—out of which fracas—after the smoke had blown away—Legion emerged victorious with a total score of 996, which puts them in the lead for the Brunette Trophy, Frank Melville made the highest single score of the evening with 133. Not bad—Frankie!

The games were all closely contested, especially in the infighting. Spike Hancock displayed a tendency toward dropping his darts on to the floor, a little weakness that can be easily overcome by dispensing with a target and using the side of the building instead. Jenks' Aity-Aits distinguished themselves with several scores of 26. From now onwards they revert automatically from Aity-Aits to Twenty-Sixes.

Jenks, who gallantly led his team to a glorious defeat, was really not at the top of his form and it is quite excusable. At the moment he is suffering from parsnip arm. It is not generally known, except when it is mentioned by Jenks himself, which is quite often, that Jenks is a parsnip specialist. He grows 'em big and he grows 'em long. During the harvest season he made the tactical error of wrestling with his parsnips by hand instead of using a bulldozer to get them out of the ground, with disastrous results to his arm. According to Art some of those parsnips have travelled so far toward China that he has practically given up all hope of ever finding the ends of them. He has tried sinking a shaft but the parsnips are still growing and Art can't sink fast enough.

The Aity-Aits were represented by Art Jenkin (captain), Al Wetmore, Walter Wilkinson, Les Mason, Ed Jones and Bob Fuller. Legion by Jimmie Gordon (captain), Spike Handcocks, Harry Hepplewhite (Legion's trusty stoppaw), Bill Arundell, Jack Gagnon and Jimmie Wakeford. Incidently—the plaster cast on J. G.'s wrist is not, as one contestant hinted darkly, a low down contrivance designed to give him an unfair advantage by adding weight to his scoring arm. Jimmie actually did splinter one of the bones in his wrist throwing darts during his training period. Jimmie—by the way—throws a mean underhand.

Comrade Hinds, who also had a place on the Legion team, is on furlough pending discharge, after four years spent on the high seas playing tag with Jerry's pig boats. A regular sea dog—they all have an eye for the fair sex—and speaking confidentially, coming from one old sailor to another, Comrade Hinds expressed himself as not being averse to the ladies. As a matter of fact he asked, very insistently, why the Ladies' Auxiliary is not represented by a team on the cat league. AND—we cho—WHY NOT?

A strong delegation from Branch 88 attended the zone meeting held at Iroquois Falls on Sunday. The retiring zone commander, Comrade Bill Grunmet, who is now the district commander for the new district G, presided. Comrade Austin Neame was duly elected to command of Zone 21, a position that he is well qualified to fill. It was also decided that it would not be advisable to split Zone 21 at the present time, as had been previously suggested.

As a tentative measure separate zone meetings will be held to accommodate those branches west of, and including Cochrane. The business concluded at these meetings will be incorporated with the decisions arrived at by the four remaining branches that got to make up District G.

Suprise Tea Party in Honour of Mrs. Neily

On Thursday afternoon last a very lovely tea was held at the home of Mrs. R. V. Neily, Buffalo-Ankerite property, when a number of neighbours and friends held a surprise tea-party for Mrs. Neily who has been confined to her bed for some weeks.

Mrs. Herman Shultz sang "God hath not Promised", a specially favourite song of Mrs. Neily's accompanied at the piano by Mrs. R. Vary.

The hostesses for the afternoon, Mrs. H. Shultz and Mrs. R. Vary, assisted by Mrs. Mullins, nurse and companion, served a very delectable tea.

Mrs. Neily expressed her delight at being so pleasantly surprised. Those present were:—Mrs. M. Ludgate, Mrs. B. Keates, Mrs. J. Nicholson, Mrs. Geo. Marshall and little son, Frank, Mrs. G. Aitken, Mrs. E. Anderson and little daughter, Sylvia, Mrs. R. Vary, Mrs. H. Shultz, Miss Patricia Spears, Mrs. Robert Spears, Mrs. M. Mullins, and Mrs. R. J. Neily.

Knights of Columbus Enjoy Interesting Social Evening

The Timmins Knights of Columbus enjoyed a very interesting and pleasing social evening in the Hollinger hall on Friday night. The event included a delightful floor show and an attractive luncheon, the latter being provided by a committee under the chairmanship of Lionel Chatrand. Mr. Phil Laporte was master of ceremonies. There were about seventy present. The programme was featured by selections by Angus Rowan, with Mrs. Rowan at the piano; violin solos by Bob Gordon; singing by Genevieve Morin, with Jimmy Ormston at the piano; piano solo by K. O'Brien; saxophone solo by Nick Basciano; Hawaiian guitar selections by Pete Reynolds. The door prizes were won by Archie Dillon, Jas. Hanley and Arthur Cadieux.
