Jig-Saw
Life is just a jig-saw, and we piece it bit by bit—into a lovely picture—every tiny part must fit—each little jagged fragment, odd and strange though it may seem—is necessary when we try to puzzle out the scheme. . . . The sunny days, the dark days, and the hours of deep distress—the times of sorrow and despair and joy and happiness—all go to make the picture—it's not easy I'll admit—it all looks senseless sometimes and the parts don't seem to fit—but just have faith, keep trying, and you'll see the plan unfold—for everything fits in its place—to make the perfect whole.
—Patience Strong

Christmas and New Year over, most of us are back into a steady routine and probably this is a good time to broach the subject of the Red Cross once again. Ladies, last year Timmins was behind in its quota for knitted articles and at the rate work is being completed at present the current year is going to be further behind than ever. The current excuse is that it has been too cold to turn out to attend the knitting and sewing centres; we agree thirty and forty below zero is neither pleasant or "tropical" but imagine what it would be like without warm sweaters, woollen overshoes and mitts. Well that just about sizes up the situation that faces those men in our navy, army and air force if people can't forge themselves for a while and think about those who have given up all the comforts that we are still privileged to enjoy, thanks to them. Turtle neck sweaters, hurricane mitts and gloves are needed in the very worst way as response to the call for more knitters has been most discouraging.

The sewing rooms are always comfortably heated and for those who prefer to work at home, it would not take many minutes to call into the woollen room at the Municipal building next time you are out shopping and pick up enough wool and the instruction for making some of those urgent needed woolies. Surely it doesn't seem some major catastrophe to arouse the ladies of the Porcupine out of the lethargy into which they appear to have lapsed in regard to their war effort. It is really pathetic that after five years of war it can still appear so distant and unreal that the sacrifices and sufferings of others still fail to move us into sufficient action to ever keep our Red Cross quotas up to par. Sometimes one wonders what we have done, or are doing, to deserve being allowed the luxury of living in peace and comfort when we contribute so little to the more unfortunate ones who are daily sacrificing home comfort and even their lives to keep us in security. What about it ladies? Won't you make an extra effort and sacrifice a little time to this very urgent need!

The ladies of the Red Shield Women's Auxiliary and affiliated groups must feel very gratified and amply repair for the time and thought put into the packing of ditty bags for men in the navy. Many letters have already been received from the appreciative recipients expressing thanks for the contents and they express surprise that the ladies should know just what a sailor needs most. Some of the boxes say that the ditty bags were the only Christmas parcel that they had and they sure felt thankful to the "Sally Ann" and even grown-up boys like to find that Santa hasn't forgotten them altogether. One young sailor thanks the ladies for the mending wool although he confesses that he has not mastered the art of cross darning; he says he just pulls the hole together but hopes, with practice, to learn just "how". Some of the men spent Christmas on the high seas but even turkey and all the "trimmings" didn't recompense them for the absence from their own families and homes. This is real sacrifice, ladies, quite a sharp contrast to our very feeble efforts, when we fail to even devote a few hours each week to knitting warm comforts for those boys.

A New Year's party was held at the home of Mrs. George Moore, 79 Third Ave., on Thursday, Jan. 4th. The evening was a most enjoyable one with games providing the main entertainment. Prizes were won by Miss Rae, Mrs. J. Drew and Mrs. W. Isnor.

Mrs. R. Wales, convener of the group, was presented with a beautiful sandwich tray. The presentation was made by Mrs. James Ralph on behalf of the club. Extra pleasure was derived through the exchanging of gifts by the members. A business period took place during which several letters were read from sailors who had received ditty bags and for which they expressed grateful appreciation for the contents. Mrs. Wales gave a report of the work accomplished during the year. A total of 330 articles were completed, this included 176 pairs of socks, 27 children's sweaters, 31 scarves, 64 caps, 9 pairs mitts, 6 tuck-ins, two babies outfits, 12 cotton dresses (these were made by Mrs. J. Trevelthan) and 3 afghans. All this work was handed into the Red Shield, except for one afghan, this was donated to the Red Cross. Six ditty bags were also packed and 20 parcels for overseas. Cash donations were made to the Red Shield and Red Cross. Mrs. James Ralph was the hostess for the evening and served a delicious lunch. Thanks was extended to Mrs. Moore for the use of her home. Those present were:—Mrs. J. McChesney, president of the Red Shield, Mrs. F. Read, Mrs. J. Trevelthan, Mrs. A. Matson, Mrs. W. Isnor, Mrs. F. Dunton, Mrs. C. Pennie, Mrs. W. Caves, Mrs. L. Baxter, Mrs. J. Drew, Mrs. G. Moore, Miss M. Rae, Mrs. R. Wales and Mrs. J. Ralph. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. T. Charlton, 156, Elm Street North, on Jan. 18th.

The new President, Mrs. W. P. Bennetts, presided over the first meeting of the year of the First United Church Women's Association, on Thursday afternoon. The devotional period, conducted by Mrs. T. Coulson, centred around the New Year. At the conclusion of the business session, a vocal solo, "Dawn of Tomorrow", by Mrs. W. Roberts, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. Gamble, was very much enjoyed. A talk entitled "Children of the World" by Mrs. Gilmour Smith, proved both interesting and inspiring and gave much food for thought. A vote of thanks to Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Roberts was extended by Mrs. J. Ralph. The meeting closed with the singing of "God Save the King", after which refreshments were served by Mrs. W. Rinn and Mrs. M. Williams and a short social time was enjoyed.

The Regular meeting of the Gold Nugget Rebekah Lodge was held with Mrs. H. Dean, Noble Grand, in the chair. New Year greetings were read; also replies to boxes sent to members, relatives in the armed forces. A party was planned to celebrate the birthday of Bro. Thomas Wilder, founder of Oddfellowship, and all Oddfellows and their ladies are invited to attend on January 18th, at the Oddfellows Hall at 8.30 p.m. Another party planned by the "pinks" is to be held on February 15th. This will take the form of a Valentine's Party but further particulars will be announced later. At the close of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed, the chief feature being a "diddle" contest which was entered by all the members, the honours going to Mrs. Jean Langman, as being the most expert "diddler". It has been explained to us that "diddling" is a game of skill, originating in Mexico, which is as fascinating as it is amusing. A lunch was served at the close of the evening.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion held their regular weekly Whist Drive and prize winners were as follows:—Ladies:—Mrs. A. Roberts, Mrs. W. Stewart, Mrs. C. Chenier, Mrs. J. Ormston, Mrs. Sears. Yesterday afternoon the ladies gathered in the Legion Hall for their weekly afternoon Comforts Tea and the ladies present were Mrs. R. Hardy, Mrs. L. Nicholson, Mrs. W. Wilkinson, Mrs. L. Mason, Mrs. B. Finchen, Mrs. J. Singleton, Mrs. B. Richards, Mrs. J. Wilson, Mrs. C. Chenier, Mrs. J. Kettle, Mrs. F. Curtis, Mrs. C. Boyd, Mrs. E. Hinds. An Executive meeting will be held in the Legion Hall of Friday January 13th, at 8 p.m. A General Meeting will be held in the Legion Hall on Monday January 15th, at 8.15 p.m.

GREAT CAST OF CHARACTERS
An inmate of an insane asylum visited the institution's library each day carried off an armload of books and pamphlets. One day, as a test, the librarian handed him a copy of the telephone directory. Five hours later the patient was back, thumped down the volume and asked for another. "But surely you haven't read that one in this short time! What did you think of it?" "Well," said the inmate judiciously, "the plot wasn't much. But, oh boy, what a cast of characters!"—North Bay Nugget.

Police Court
Eino Kangas, of New York Porcupine property, was charged with having a fox pelt in his possession with no authority or permit. Game Warden Sylvester produced the pelt which was found hanging on a nail in the house of Kangas. He pleaded not guilty to the charge, claiming his young son had set rabbit snares and trapped the fox. Acknowledging that this had happened before the police searched the place he thereby convinced the magistrate that he knew of the pelt being in the house. Ski trails followed by the police led to traps set with fox snares (produced). The magistrate said that one "wouldn't waste all that wire on rabbits" and fined him $10 and costs.

Alex Kaiser, of Schumacher, was charged with "intent to maim, disable or disfigure Russell Burkholder" on December 15th last. Preliminary hearing of this case lasted almost two hours. Gregory Evans, defending Kaiser, said that his client preferred being dealt with by a higher court. Dr. Lewis (eye specialist) testified that he examined Burkholder on Dec. 14th, and found he had no vision in his right eye due to a severe cut across the pupil, inflicted earlier and which had refused to heal. The left eye had only 20 per cent vision. This eye had only 20 per cent vision. This eye had only 20 per cent vision.

Mr. Burkholder, whose eye was bandaged felt his way to the desk to be questioned. He said he was at a house party at Kaiser's house on the night in question. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Tomiuk, W. A. McKenzie, G. Simmons and Mr. Murray. All had been drinking but a quarrel arose between Kaiser and Burkholder over the "Union" question. He was told to get out of Kaiser's house if those were the opinions held by him. According to witnesses he was taken out twice. The second time while standing by the fence a sharp pain was felt by him in his eye, and then he found he could not see.

None of the witnesses could swear to having seen Kaiser with a weapon, although evidence given by Tomiuk to the police in a self written statement definitely spoke of seeing a "blade" in Kaiser's hand. When this witness was confronted with his former statement he said that he was intoxicated when he wrote it. "Do you always lie when intoxicated?" asked his worship. "You couldn't have been very drunk to have written that." Sam Tedesco, of South Porcupine, saw Burkholder as he was lying on the roadway and got two men to take him to a doctor as he had blood on his face. He had no room in his car to drive him.

The magistrate opined that it was for a jury to decide whether Kaiser did have something in his hand to inflict the injury. Bail was set at $2000. Kaiser was committed for trial.

The case of the sixteen-year-old lad who faces a charge of wounding Lawyer Forbes, may be heard in Timmins on Wednesday morning if his lawyer, Mr. Moscoe, is well enough to attend court. In juvenile court two teen-age boys were charged with soliciting rides from drivers on the travelled portion of the highway. "Chief McInnis doesn't want you punished," said his worship "but you must understand that this is a dangerous thing to do. Will you promise not to do it again if I give you a chance?" "Yes SIR!" was the relieved response. The engagement is announced of Margaret Laura Ballantyne, eldest daughter of Mrs. Hugh D. Veitch, to Flying Officer Forbes Roslyn McIntosh, youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. McIntosh, of Guelph. Wedding to take place on January 20th, at South Porcupine.
