Two Act Plays to Feature Event at South Porcupine

South Porcupine, Feb. 14th. Special to The Advance.

Pupils of our South Porcupine High School are busy preparing for their annual entertainment. This year they will present two one-act plays as well as several variety numbers.

"Buddy buys an Orchid" is a sparkling family comedy in which the dates of the teen-agers figure prominently.

For those who prefer a mystery, the one-act thriller, "Fright" will be presented by special arrangement with Samuel French, Canada, Ltd.

The orchestra, chorus, and dances will complete the programme.

The programme will be presented for children on Feb. 21st., and for adults on Feb. 22nd. and 23rd., in the school auditorium.

Mrs. C. Heath of Kirkland Lake, spent the week-end in town.

L.A.W. Beatrice Maxwell Smith R. C.A.F. (W.D.), of Toronto, and Miss P. Maxwell Smith were week-end visitors at the home of their parents at 113 Main St.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brown, of New Liskeard, who are known to many in town and who have frequently visited here, have suffered bereavement in the death of their older son, Don, at the age of 14 years. The lad had not been strong from birth and his death was unexpected. We offer our sympathy to the family in their loss.

Mrs. Caley, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. LeRoy, leaves on Wednesday for her home in WELAUF.

L.A.W. Norma Camley, R.C.A.F., who has been visiting in town, left on Monday for her station at St. Hubert's, Que.

Bert Harvey, R.C.A.F., is on leave at his home on Golden Ave.

Born—On Feb. 9th in Porcupine General Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Doron—a daughter.

The Sewing Circle of St. Paul's Anglican church held their monthly social afternoon on Tuesday in the Parish Hall. Valentine motifs were in evidence and a nice number of ladies attended. Bridge was played and a very dainty lunch was served. Mrs. Russell Lang won first prize (towel); Mrs. H. G. Cook, second (casserole); and Mrs. Quesnel, consolation.
