Telephone: Timmins, 2303; South Porcupine, 231

TO PARENTS:

Parents should begin right now to give serious thought to the preparation of their child for the new experience — one of the biggest events in his life — that of starting to school.

The Porcupine Health Unit is desirous of helping you in this respect so that your child will make a good adjustment to school, as the first years of school are important ones.

We would therefore suggest:

1. That you have your child immunized against Diphtheria and Smallpox.
2. That you take your child to your family doctor for examination and advice.
3. That you consult your dentist about having his teeth examined.

His first years of school will not then be interrupted for inoculations, physical examinations and corrections.

Do not handicap him by failing to give him the right start.

For your convenience the Porcupine Health Unit has arranged to have doctors immunize at the following schools:

This service is given free of charge to the public

SCHUMACHER: Public School — Tuesday, May 22nd, 3.30 p.m.

Special Service and Social Event at St. Matthew's

Rev. A. R. Chidwick and Mrs. Chidwick Complimented on Great Work Here in Past Year.

Last Thursday evening a special service was held at 7.15 p.m. in St. Matthew's and was conducted by Rev. A. R. Chidwick to mark the first anniversary of his induction into the church. A large number of the congregation attended this informal but impressive service. The rector took the opportunity to thank the congregation for their support and co-operation, remarking that the friendliness of the people here made him feel that he was now part of this north country. Following the service a congregational social was held in the basement of the church. This was attended by about 200 of the parishioners.

Mr. S. A. Caldwell was the chairman for the evening and a most enjoyable programme was opened with the singing of the National Anthem, "God Save The King." Mr. Percy Bennetts presiding at the piano. The chairman addressed the gathering and paid tribute to the rector and Mrs. Chidwick on the wonderful progress made in the life of the church during their first year here, these remarks being heartily endorsed by the various speakers and the congregation as a whole.

Mrs. F. Melville, the president, represented the Ladies' Guild. Mr. Geo. Gedge spoke on behalf of the Sunday School. Miss "Bunny" Batley for the Altar Guild. Mr. Ed. Robinson spoke as a representative of the choir. Mr. Fred Wolno, president of the Twinklers' Club, paid tribute to the rector and his wife on their work in the past year. Miss May Cadman represented the A. Y. P. A. Mr. Walter Kevan spoke for the Men's Club, and Mr. Frank Burt, People's Warden, expressed the appreciation of the congregation for the tireless efforts of the rector and the whole hearted co-operation of Mrs. Chidwick in the building up of the Anglican church and the wonderful results achieved in the space of one year. Mr. Burt called on Mrs. Jessie Webb to make the presentation of a stole to Rev. Chidwick, which she did most graciously and with a few well chosen words. Miss Doris Read presented Mrs. Chidwick with an arm bouquet of roses. Both the rector and his wife were deeply moved by the tokens of appreciation and the depth of the sincerity which marked the tributes paid to them by each of the speakers, and the happy couple each replied most appropriately, the spontaneity and enthusiasm of the entire proceedings being typical of the north country. After the singing of "For They are Jolly Good Fellows," Mr. Caldwell handed over the musical part of the programme to Mr. Ron Jones and his choir. The opening numbers by the choir were "John Peel" and "Lead Kindly Light." Two solos, "Mother Machree" and "I'll Take You Home again Kathleen" were sung by Mr. Jones, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Chidwick. The choir again joined in the singing of "Finlandia," and a Welsh hymn, "Mr. Jack Skelly sang a solo and the choir sang "When you come to the end of a perfect day." The name of Mr. Ron Jones has always been synonymous with music of good quality and this evening was certainly no exception. Each of the musical items was enjoyed to the fullest extent by everyone present. Messrs. Albert Shaw, Fred O'Rourke and R. Freeland gave several humorous songs and monologues to round off a fine programme.

Lunch was later served by members of the various organizations who had planned this "birthday" party. A two-tiered cake with one candle was in the centre of a lace covered table, which was also adorned with flowers. The rector and Mrs. Chidwick performed the ceremony of cutting the cake and during lunch recordings of classical music were played.

Sudbury Star:—Down home they used to tell of the local boy who went to the city to "look for an opening" and found it when, walking along the street and gazing at the tall buildings, he stepped into a manhole.

Twenty Years Ago

from the Porcupine Advance Files

Twenty years ago there was quite a discussion being carried on in The Advance in regard to the early days of the Porcupine Camp. Letters by Harry Preston, John Jones and others were of genuine historic interest. Among other things John Jones said:—"I know well that the big Dome Mine was staked long before John Novack, the blind prospector, came into the country. To the best of my knowledge it was Harry Preston who was responsible for the staking of the Dome, though, of course, he was under Jack Wilson, of Massey, who was the chief of the party that included Phil Vinburg and Campbell Burns. W. S. Edwards, of Chicago, staked the party. I was near the grounds with Bill Reamsbottom, of Halleyburg. George Bannerman, who staked the Scottish-Ontario, was the first to stake and record, and this roused much interest. In the fall of 1909 and the winter of 1910 Wilson and Stirling ran a fur post and stopping place in a large tent about where the McIntyre mill now stands at Schumacher."

Charles McLean, a miner for many years in the Porcupine, died at Gravenhurst twenty years ago at the age of 47 years. He had been ill at the sanitarium for some time. His home had been in Schumacher, and he was highly regarded all through the district.

"The service at the Presbyterian Church was taken on Sunday night by Miss Quick," said The Advance twenty years ago. "Rev. J. D. Parks being away for the benefit of his health. All will be pleased to know that Rev. Mr. Parks is benefitting greatly from the well-earned rest. The address by Miss Quick was an inspiring and effective one. Mr. E. L. Longmore took the evening service in his usual effective way. Next Sunday Miss Quick will take the morning service and Mr. M. B. Scott the evening service."

The second masquerade dance held in the season twenty years ago by the Timmins Caledonian Society in the Hollinger Recreation hall was a very pleasing success. The majority of the 200 present were in costume. Among the prize winners were Mrs. Simms, whose Dutch costume was a particularly effective one. Mr. McTaggart, Larry Murphy and Miss McNaughton. The president, D. Mackie, conducted the first part of the evening, while the secretary, P. Larmer, was master of ceremonies for the second half of the programme. Messrs. Hale and Bridges provided the music for the occasion. Dancing was the chief pleasure of the night, but in addition there were solos by H. Unsworth and a recitation by Miss Betty Paterson. The catering was in the capable hands of A. Roberts and his able assistants.

At a meeting of the Porcupine Rod and Gun Club, with A. W. Young in the chair, J. R. Todd twenty years ago warned the members that there would be no ducks left at Frederickhouse Lake soon unless something were done about the way the lake was drying up. He very earnestly advocated a dam to bring the level of the lake up and to preserve the wild rice. The committee appointed to look after the matter included A. W. Young, D. W. O'Sullivan, F. Francis, H. E. Montgomery and J. R. Todd.

Negotiations were under way in 1925 to form a six-team baseball league to include Timmins, Iroquois Falls, Kirkland Lake, New Liskeard, Halleyburg and Cobalt. R. A. McInnis, popular general manager of the Abitibi Paper & Paper Co., Iroquois Falls, had at that time offered a cup for the championship of the proposed league.

Baroness de Hueck, an eyewitness of conditions in Russia both before and after the Bolsheviks took control, lectured in Timmins in May, 1925. She gave a graphic account of affairs in Russia. At the conclusion of the lecture she offered to answer questions. One question was in reference to the cause of the trouble in Russia. The real cause, the Baroness replied, is just "ignorance, chiefly ignorance." Baroness de Hueck spoke at a public meeting held in the Goldfields theatre, and also spoke in French at St. Anthony's parish hall. She outlined conditions in Russia under Bolshevik rule, and dealt effectively with the theory of the movement.

Schumacher was pleased with a concert presented by the Timmins Citizens Band in the Maple Leaf theatre twenty years ago. G. A. McDonald, president of the Band, was chairman, and in addition to the pleasing music by the Timmins Citizens' Band, there were a number of other special numbers on the programme. Soloists included A. Pajpone, Mr. Larkin and Miss Rosa Robertson, of Schumacher.

Timmins board of trade was putting up an energetic battle twenty years ago for the extension of the express delivery system to include the whole town. Better roads and an increased license fee for transient traders were other questions up for discussion.

Lieut. A. J. Harvey, of the Algonquin Regt., Timmins, received a signal honour in 1925 when he was chosen by the Dominion Rifle Association from thousands of talented marksmen to go to the Bisley meet in England as a member of the Canadian rifle team.

In The Advance twenty years ago was a note that may be classed to-day as a memory from the times when radio was young in this country:—"Recently W. B. Nicholson, of Dugwal, Porcupine Camp, Ont., received a handsomely engraved certificate showing that he had had long distance radiophone reception of the station of Frank H. Jones, Timnuc, Cuba, 6KW."

In 1925 F. W. Schumacher was considering the building of another row of buildings in Schumacher, that town at that time having quite a building boom.

Terry Lyon, an old-timer of South Porcupine, was drowned twenty years ago in an accident on the Laflamme river, near Amos, Que., when the canoe in which he and Ralph Dipauli were travelling upset in rapid water. Ralph was able to reach shore but his friend went down in the rough water.

Mother's Day was well observed in Timmins in 1925, according to The Advance. The attendance at the special services at the churches and the wearing of flowers as tribute to mothers were among the features of the observance here.

Officers elected in 1925 for the Porcupine Poultry and Pet Stock Association were as follows:—honorary president, Dr. J. A. McInnis; President, A. Tomkinson; vice-presidents J. K. Massie, Timmins, and A. D. Pearce, South Porcupine; secretary, J. H. Skelly; treasurer, W. T. Montgomery; executive, Mrs. J. A. McInnis, W. P. McLean, W. D. Pearce, H. Sullivan, A. Carson, A. D. Pearce, W. Bailey; directors, D. R. McDonald, R. S. Skelly, O. Nelson, W. D. Pearce and G. A. Macdonald; superintendent, J. N. Levine. The association was looking forward to a good year with even greater interest than shown in the previous year. It was decided to hold the annual poultry and pet stock show in December.

Twenty years ago in Timmins the Kiwanis Club was leading in a movement to have a soldiers' memorial erected on the grounds at the T. & N. O. station on Spruce street. Tim-mins Citizens Band also asked that a bandstand be erected there by the town. Council gave both requests full approval and the board of works was instructed to proceed with the work of building the bandstand. The barbers' association of the town asked the council to pass a by-law to regulate early closing in the tonsorial palaces.

Among the local and personal items in The Advance twenty years ago were the following:—"Mr. R. P. Thompson, of Swastika, was a Timmins visitor this week." Mr. E. S. Eades, who has been on the staff of the Northland Motor Sales Co., has taken a similar position on the sales staff of the Ford Motor Sales in town." "Mr. Donald K. MacDonald, of Schumacher, was joined here last week by one of his sons who came out from Scotland and is taking up residence in the camp." "Mr. Geo. Jenkin returned on Sunday from a visit to England, where he was called owing to the illness of his father and mother. Friends here will be pleased to know that his father is completely recovered and his mother well on the way to recovery. Mr. Jenkin this week resumed his classes here in pianoforte and also his work as expert piano tuner." "There is a gang of 16 to 18 men at work grading the grounds of the Timmins High School, under the direction of the landscape gardener, Mr. I. Hurd, of Iroquois Falls." "Dr. Hardy, professor of languages at Edmonton University, was the guest last week of his sister, Mrs. Lee Honey."

Exchange:—One consolation from the Reich is that when chaos reigns in Germany the state will be better off than it was with Hitler as ruler.
