Memorial Service for Casualties of Algonquins, O. S.

(South Porcupine, July 11th. Special to The Advance).

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Smith have received from the C. O. of the Algonquin Rgt. in Holland, Lt. Col. J. F. R. Akehurst, a copy of the Memorial Service held on Sunday, June 10th, at Almelo, Holland for all those of the Algonquin Regiment who have given their lives.

Prayers were said by Capt. Naphin, R. C. Chaplain, and by Capt. W. Valentine, Chaplain. And the Roll of Honour called by the C. O., Lt. Col. J. F. R. Akehurst, D. S. O. The Last Post was sounded by the Band of the Algonquin Regiment, followed by the Benediction.

Following is a complete list of Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and men killed in action, died of wounds, accidentally killed or missing (presumed dead):—

Among the names of South Porcupine heroes we note: Cpl. O. E. Hoelke; Pte. J. P. Lorne; Cpl. M. G. Sheppard; and Maxwell A. C. Smith. The Algonquins lost 342 of their number.

It is student nurse Sally Breithaupt's task to help prepare between 800 and 1,000 bottles of formula every day, in the Milk Department of the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto. Patients' names may be seen on the bottles, and each formula is checked against the prescriptions tacked on the wall. One out of every three of these babies comes from outside the City of Toronto, and there is a waiting list of 200 children. A provincial appeal is now underway for $6,000,000 for a larger building. Send or take your donation to Treasurer of local committee, W. Long, manager of Bank of Nova Scotia, Timmins.

Wedding Event at South Porcupine

(South Porcupine, July 11th. Special to The Advance).

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday afternoon by Rev. J. A. Breckenridge in South Porcupine United Church when Evelyn Irene Durkin, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Durkin, of Toronto, formerly of Timmins, became the bride of Nicolai (Nick) Toderan, elder son of Mrs. Vera Toderan and the late Mr. Toderan, of Bloor Ave., South Porcupine. The groom is a flying officer of the R.C.A.F., recently returned from overseas.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a suit of powder-blue gingham with touches of pink and pale pink accessories, and wore a corsage of sweetheart roses.

Her matron of honour was Mrs. Eric Luke (Grace Ramsay) of Timmins. She wore a tailored suit of sand colour with white hat and accessories, and a corsage of tallman roses.

Flying officer, Wilfred Moore, the groom's brother-in-law, was best man. The church was beautifully decorated with summer flowers for the occasion.

Mrs. L. Sharp, of the Hallnor Mine, played the wedding music.

A wedding dinner was served after the ceremony at the home of Mr. John Fell at the Dome, with the immediate relatives only present. Later a reception was held, the bride's mother receiving the guests in a mauve sheer redingote dress with which she wore a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Toderan, the groom's mother, wearing a two-piece suit of pale blue crepe, with corsage of red roses assisted.

A buffet lunch was served. The bride received many beautiful gifts, among them a travelling case from the groom.

The bride and groom left later by car for a honeymoon, part of which will be spent at New Liskeard.

Flying Officer Toderan will be returning for overseas duty at the end of his leave.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were the bride's parents, from Toronto; Mrs. Lloyd Durkin, of Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay, Mrs. E. Luke, and Mr. A. Soulerne, of Timmins; and Flying Officer and Mrs. W. Moore, of Barrie.

Men of the forces attending the reception were Flying Officer Eino Kautto; Cpl. Arne Manner, Artificer Albert Baotesovich, R.C.N.V.R., and George Toderan, R.C.A.F.
