

Annual Horticultural Show Well Attended

The twenty first annual horticultural show which was opened officially by Rev. A. R. Chidwick L. Th. at 8 p. m. on Monday evening drew a large and admiring crowd to the McIntyre Arena.

In addition to exhibits of vegetables and flowers by many enthusiastic horticulturalists there were added attractions such as a miniature English tea garden complete with rockery and hedges, a Dutch windmill, and exhibits from the gardens of the Hollinger, Buffalo-Ankerite and McIntyre Mins., and the exhibits from the vegetables and flower gardens of Mr. R. J. Ennis were a joy to behold.

The Boy Scouts model camp attracted many admiring visitors. Balm and Spruce trees formed an appropriate background for the exhibition and a finishing touch was the enjoyable music of Lieut. Lomas and his McIntyre Band on Monday evening. The Timmins Citizens' Band on Tuesday and the Croation Orchestra on Wednesday.

As a group of mining men from the United States are expected in town, the show, which was originally scheduled for Monday and Tuesday was held again on Wednesday so that these visitors could see that the North country excels itself in other fields as well as mining.

Iroquois Falls and Ansonville Held Big Parade on Labour Day

Residents of Iroquois Falls and Ansonville had a joint celebration on Labour Day to make it one of the best to be held there.

The arrangements were made by a committee from local union No. 90, and there was never a dull moment from the word "go" at 1 p.m. until the strains of the last waltz of the dance which terminated the day's activities. The dance was held at Iroquois Falls Town Hall, and Al Perini's orchestra provided the music. The parade commenced at the skating rink with three horsemen leading, followed by a troop of Wolf Cubs. The Timmins Citizens' Band followed Town Hall in Iroquois Falls, in front, and the remainder of the parade was composed of members of the Canadian Legion Branch No. 70, which included army, navy and airforce veterans of World Wars I and II, fire brigades from out of town, members of the local union and other organizations. There were numerous floats. The parade was almost a mile long and the biggest to be staged since 1921.

The route followed, went to Ansonville and returned to the Falls, round the town and back to the rink.

While various sports events were being staged, the band gave a concert at the ball park. Softball, horseshoe pitching and a greasy pole climb were included in the day's events.

After supper a short concert was given by the band in front of the Town Hall at Ansonville and later at the Town Hall in Iroquois.

South Porcupine, Sept. 5th. Special to The Advance.
The Kiwanis Club held their regular dinner meeting on Tuesday instead of Monday this week having Mr. Phil Kinkel of the Buffalo Ankerite as guest speaker. He was introduced by Past Lt. Gov. Stan Gardner and thanked after his address by Kiwanian Dave Austin.
Mr. Kinkel's talk was on the Economics of Mining. He held his audience as he gave interesting facts connected with mining ethics and the place that mining and its products holds in the economic world. It was an exceptional talk and gave many points for thought. He described some of the difficulties likely to be encountered in branching out in post-war development with shortage of minerals and materials. He quoted freely from his own knowledge of mining gained by many years experience. He said that there will be a Mining Association meeting in the Camp this week and it is hoped that representatives of the Press will help to shed a strong light upon this great mining question, to offset some of the opinions recently broadcast in the U. S. A.

Several Minor Fires Keep Department Busy

The fire Dept. had rather a busy week although none of the fires were of a serious nature.

On Aug. 30th, there were three calls, one chimney fire at 158 Spruce Street North, boys playing in an attic at 104 Commercial Ave., started a fire, and a garage on Cambria Ave., in which a car was parked went on fire, the damage amounting to about $100.

On Aug. 31st there were two calls for short circuits in fuse boxes.

Sept. 1st, rubbish burning in the corner of a verandah at 5 Main Ave. brought a call to the fire department. Damage was estimated at $20, this being covered by insurance. Also on Sept. 1st there was a false alarm from box No. 64 which was reported to the police.

Sept. 4th a fire of unknown origin started in an unused garage and spread to the attic of 41 Jubilee Ave. Damage was negligible. On the same day children playing in a barn at the rear of 36 Wilson Ave., started a blaze which was soon extinguished. A careless roomer, staying at Alberts Hotel set fire to a mattress while smoking in bed. Fellow roomers rendered first aid to the man and the fire department put out the blaze.

Sept. 5th, there was a chimney at 8 Laurier Ave., no damage caused.

Timmins Men Attend Funeral of Capt. Alexander

Northern Ontario headquarters of the Algonquin Regiment were represented at funeral services conducted in Toronto for Capt. Thomas Laird Alexander, M.B.E., who died in Chortley Park Military Hospital on Sunday.

Capt. Alexander was a veteran of the Algonquin Regiment. He died from the effects of an operation for the removal of two German machine-gun bullets.

Acting as pall-bearers at the funeral were Lieut.-Col. W. F. Morgan, M.C., V.D., of North Bay, commandant of Northern Area Headquarters of Military District No. 2; Major A. K. Stirling and Lieut. K. Stirling of Timmins and Major A. Johnson of South River.

Capt. Alexander entered hospital two weeks ago for the removal of two bullets—a minor operation. He received his wounds while making a courageous attempt to silence an enemy machine gun at the Leopold Canal. Two bullets entered his legs and a third lodged in his neck. He was captured and while a prisoner of war, he had one of the bullets removed from his legs. He was released from the prison camp in April and returned to Canada in June.

He joined the Algonquin Regiment from Upper Canada College in August, 1940, as lieutenant. He was awarded the M.B.E. in 1942 for his services at the Lewisport Explosion at Newfoundland. His parents are Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Alexander of Toronto.

Nora Jelbert Wins Junior Tennis Championships

The junior members of the Hollinger Tennis Club held their official tennis tournament to establish the junior champions for 1945, beginning Sunday at 10 a.m. and finishing Monday afternoon. Everything was played including ladies' and men's singles, ladies and men's doubles and mixed doubles. This was the first junior tennis tournament held at the Hollinger Club since 1940 and it proved to be a great success.

In the singles, racket-swinging Nora Jelbert, 14-year old up-coming star of the courts, defeated hard-playing Joyce Lawlor in the third round, and Bernice Langman in the finals, to come out as ladies junior singles champion. Leonard Sullivan was acclaimed junior men's singles champion after he defeated Frank Melville in the finals.

After several hard-fought sets in the doubles field, the Jelbert duo of sister and brother, emerged on top as champion of ladies and men's doubles. Nora Jelbert, helped by Patsy McAdam, won the ladies junior doubles championship. Doug Jelbert, the other member of this tennis-playing family, was helped by Martin Kosobuski, to outplay the other men's doubles pairs and take the junior men's doubles championship.

After a series of defeats at the hands of the singles and doubles champion, Nora Jelbert, Bernice Langman helped by Bruce Helper, played two sets and they were named mixed doubles champions after being victorious over the Jelbert team.

Her many friends are glad to hear that Mrs. T. Dodd is well on the way to recovery after a three weeks illness.

The Annual Home Front Appeal of the Salvation Army commences Monday, September 10th.

During the six long years of war the Salvation Army has been an ever present help to servicemen and civilians alike. Canteens, mobile kitchens and chaplains have gone along with advancing armies' in seaports and naval depots the Red Triangle has been ready and willing to take care of the needs of men of the merchant marine and navy.

The Salvation Army is an organization that is known the world over, and regardless of class, race or creed the workers are an ever present help in time of trouble.

Chairman for the local campaign is Mr. J. L. Fulton and the Treasurer is M. W. Long, manager, Bank of Nova Scotia.

Even though the war in Europe is over, the cheering which followed the victory is dying down and our gallant troops are returning in large numbers, there are still fronts which must be strenuously maintained if all we have fought for is not to be lost.

These fronts include those involved in want and fear so often enumerated as poverty, sickness, old age and unemployment. These can, to some extent, be alleviated by legislation, and no doubt the measures now in force or being put forward will do much to improve the lot of the lower income groups.

But there are other fronts not so easily relieved by legislation. Many are the evils which spring from the imperfection of human nature which constitute fronts on which we must all fight.

These are the fronts of misfortune and maladjustment, delinquency and crime, vice, viciousness and avarice.

When we cease to war on these fronts the enemy will rush in like a flood and no change of the economic system or beneficial legislation will keep us from ultimate destruction, as complete as would have been the loss of the war, if the Home Front against these evils is not maintained with all our powers.

Because of the strain of the war years and the wonderful response which has been given to the war effort and to all great forward movements for social betterment; because the people are tired of regulations and restraints, and because human nature calls for relaxation, the Home Front is seriously threatened by subtle suggestions that strenuous efforts is no longer necessary and now we can let things take their course.

Nothing could be further from the truth than to say we have won all for which we fought. No! We have only won the right and the opportunity to bring into being the kind of world we want. The old world is dead, but the new world must yet be won.

The Salvation Army stands in the forefront of the battle against these evils. By an unremitting warfare against the forces of evil, The Army fights for a better world which it hopes to secure by the making of better people.

The highly important Rehabilitation Front must also be maintained and the returning men of our glorious Canadian Armed Forces must be given every opportunity and encouragement and afforded every possible assistance in re-establishing their lives, not merely on the standard of their former employment but according to that which they so richly deserve. The Army is still serving the troops even after the uniform is changed to "civvies".

We believe the maintenance of these fronts against all the evils which exist is the will and purpose of all true Canadians, and to that end we ask the continued generous support of the public in the Home Front Appeal.
