

Girl Guide News

The St. Matthew Brownie Pack were very busy last Friday evening planning and practicing for a "Parent's Night" which they will hold before Christmas.

The 56th I.O.D.E. Brownies made plans to hold their Christmas party next Monday evening. At the close of their meeting they held a "fly-up" when the following Brownies were welcomed into the St. Matthew Guide Company by Captain Bailey: Jeannie Smith, Emily Kraik, Doris Howe, Marilyn Moore, Kathleen and Winifred Sulifant, Kathleen Burt, Jean Rosenthal, and Marlene Rodway.

The St. Matthew Guides will also hold their Christmas party next Monday evening. During the meeting the Guides were instructed in Tenderfoot and Second Class work. A group under the direction of Mr. Wheeler are working for the Carpenter Badge.

Mrs. Harper, Divisional Commissioner, inspected the South Porcupine Guides last Tuesday evening. Nancy Cooper successfully passed her needle-woman's test and was presented with her badge. During the meeting the Commissioner gave a very interesting talk on Guiding.

Playroom for Shelter To Be Built By Club, Kinettes Are Told

The Kinettes Club held their monthly dinner meeting on Tuesday of last week in the dining room of the Grand Hotel. Twenty-one members were in attendance, Mrs. C. Bowker, the president, presided.

The guest artist, Mr. Walter Synder, formerly of Sudbury, played several well-known selections on the violin accompanied at the piano by Mr. Ron Jones. The president extended thanks to the guests of the evening on behalf of the club.

A short discussion took place on the by-laws of the Kinettes' Club, which were read by the secretary, Mrs. O. Carter, to acquaint members with established rulings.

Mrs. C. Calverley gave a report on the fall dance and it was decided that the club will sponsor a dance on Feb. 15th, 1946 at the Riverside Pavilion; all proceeds to go to the Children's Shelter Fund.

Mrs. L. McKerrow will continue to be in charge of the distribution and collections from the milk bottles, donations from which will be used to furnish the playroom at the shelter.

It was noted that Kinsmen Club has taken over the building of a playroom for the shelter and members discussed the decorations of this addition.

Members were asked to use any free time they have to assist with the darning and sewing at the shelter and each member will buy a personal Christmas gift for one child.

At a recent meeting of the executive it was decided that a suggestion box would be placed at the next meeting to be used by the members for any new ideas that they may have in regard to club work or organization.

The standing committee for the shelter were appointed as follows:—Mrs. A. Smith, convener, Mrs. B. Sturgeon, Mrs. J. Hebburn, Mrs. S. Robinson, Mrs. S. Ennis, Mrs. W. Alexander.

Members are asked to remember that they will no longer be reminded of future meetings with telephone calls and that each meeting will be held on the first Tuesday in each month except the next meeting, which will be on Jan. 8th, 1946 as the first Tuesday is New Year's day.

Children's Aid Care For 174 Children

The Children's Aid Society of Timmings have 174 children in care at present, it was learned this week.

This figure is inclusive of eleven children in the shelter, and out of this total figure there are a considerable number of children ready for placement in foster homes on adoption probation.

A concise explanation of the work carried out by the C. A. S. was given by the late J. J. Kisko, the founder of the movement, and for some years an active head of the movement.

A social hour was then enjoyed during which a tasty lunch was served. The mystery prize was drawn for, the winner being Mrs. T. Charleton.

Those present at the meeting were Mrs. C. Pennie, Mrs. L. Baxter, Mrs. J. Drew, Mrs. J. Trevethan, Mrs. J. Ralph, Mrs. W. P. Bennetts, Mrs. P. Ried, Mrs. T. Charleton, Mrs. D. Allen, Mrs. G. Moore and Mrs. R. Wales.

That troubled and worried parents are given advice and information concerning social laws.

That legal adoption applications are properly prepared.

That unmarried mothers are effectively assisted in their great need.

That infants born out of wedlock are supported by those responsible for their existence.

That educational work is extensively carried on with a view to preventing and limiting social ills.

Boy Scouts To Sell Christmas Trees

Boy Scouts of the Fifth Timmings Kiwanis Troop will commence canvassing the town this Saturday for the sale of Christmas trees.

The proceeds arising from this sale will be used to finance the annual Scout camp at Nellies Lake this coming summer.

The cutting and selling of the trees is the work of the boys of the troop.

Arbutus Chapter Has Christmas Party

Between 50 and 60 attended the Christmas party which followed the regular meeting of the Arbutus Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star at the Masonic hall on Tuesday evening.

The hall was decorated by the entertainment committee in keeping with the festive season. Gifts were exchanged by the members and were distributed by Santa Claus, as one of the members had donned the red suit of the big fat man with the long white beard, and really did a good job in keeping the members happy.

Highlight of the gift-giving occurred when Mr. Nelly of Ankerite received a crocheted necklace with matching ear-rings which he donned and wore proudly.

The tables for lunch were decorated with pine cones and small lighted Christmas trees. Carols were sung by candle-light and unknown friends were remembered.

Beaver Club Plans Christmas Party

A meeting of the Beaver Club was held at the home of Mrs. G. Moore, 79 Third Ave., on the night of Dec. 6.

A number of knitted articles were handed in and plans were completed for a Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. W. P. Bennett at 252 Balsam North on Dec. 20.

A social hour was then enjoyed during which a tasty lunch was served. The mystery prize was drawn for, the winner being Mrs. T. Charleton.

Those present at the meeting were Mrs. C. Pennie, Mrs. L. Baxter, Mrs. J. Drew, Mrs. J. Trevethan, Mrs. J. Ralph, Mrs. W. P. Bennetts, Mrs. P. Ried, Mrs. T. Charleton, Mrs. D. Allen, Mrs. G. Moore and Mrs. R. Wales.

Mrs. B. Rutherford Named President Of Mountjoy Auxiliary

Mrs. B. Rutherford was elected president of the Mountjoy Church Women's Missionary Auxiliary as the new slate of officers for 1946 was presented by Mrs. A. A. Rose.

Others elected were: honorary president, Mrs. Gilmour Smith; vice-president, Mrs. W. Brewer; treasurer, Mrs. William Phillips; secretary, Mrs. Nicholls; Christian stewardship, Mrs. C. Haystead; temperance, Mrs. A. Ramsay; missionary monthly, Mrs. Hill; community friendship, Mrs. Suckman; literature secretary, Mrs. W. Banks; pianist, Mrs. Demille; press secretary, Mrs. W. P. Wilson; happiness fund, Mrs. Severt; hostess convener, Mrs. W. Ramsay; nursery roll, Mrs. McCagherty; supply secretary, Mrs. Rose.

The opening remarks of Mrs. W.

Brewer, vice-president, who presided at the meeting, were warm words of welcome to the four visiting groups who were the Missionary Auxiliary of the First United Church, the Schumacher United Church group, the Mackay Presbyterian Church and the Womens' Association of the Mountjoy Church.

The Christian worship service was enjoyed with chosen sections of the Scripture read and Christmas carols sung, which exalted and praised the Saviour whose birthday is celebrated this season.

Slides on Angola, Africa, were shown and explained by Mrs. Gilmour Smith. Refreshments were served by the hostesses and Mrs. Gilmour Smith and Mrs. William Mustard poured tea. The church hall was attractive in Christmas decorations tastefully arranged by Mrs. Thomas Miller, who assisted by the evening's hostess, was responsible for the beautifully arranged tea table.

The fellowship enjoyed and the experience of spiritual uplift will be a lasting memory for all who attended the last missionary meeting of the year.

CUB NOTES

The 2nd St. Matthew's Cub Pack had its regular meeting on Tuesday, conducted in the usual manner, as it was the last Cub meeting of this year.

The Pack will hold its Christmas party with weiners and buns donated by Mr. Bates, on Tuesday, Dec. 18, at the usual time.

On Tuesday three boys were invested in the Pack: John Irwin, Jack Helperin and Albert Dyer, and all were wished "good hunting", by Cubmaster J. Webb and the Assistant Cubmaster, Miss M. Monohan.

Tests passed during Tuesday evening were: Flags; B. Stock, M. Jones, J. Gibbs and R. Barber; hopping and book balancing D. Hindren, A. Martin, P. Giardine, R. Wilson, R. MacKechnie (plus National Anthem); book balancing, D. Read; national anthem and savings account, T. Bates.
