

Delinquency Of Adults, Not Juveniles, Is Root Of Trouble, Speaker Says

Rev. J. D. Parks Suggests Wider Use Of School Buildings For Public

Rev. J. D. Parks, of Sherbourne United Church, but for several years stationed in Timmins in the earlier days of the North, was the guest speaker at the Kiwanis Club at the luncheon on Monday at the Empire Hotel. The attendance for the day was above the average and all attending in the expectation of hearing a special message of interest and inspiration were not disappointed.

President G. N. Ross was in the chair, and community singing was led by Kiwanian Gordon Campbell, with Secretary W. H. Wilson at the piano. The president called for volunteer rinks to represent the local club at the Kiwanis bonspiel at New Lickard on Saturday of this week for the Karl Eyre trophy. Several of the curiers present promised to see that Timmins would be well represented at the event.

In introducing the speaker for the day, Kiwanian W. M. Mustard referred to the friendship between old-timers of this part of the North, explaining the special popularity of Rev. Mr. Parks as due to the way in which he had entered into all phases of the life of the community, his kindness and thoughtful helpfulness endearing him to all.

In opening his address, Rev. J. D. Parks referred to the many changes he noted in the town and its people since the days when he lived here. The development had not all been material, but there had been effort to de-velop the human element.

As one of the early members of the Kiwanis Club he was proud, he said, of the good the club had accomplished. It had been chiefly work for the physical side of life, however, and though he hoped it would continue, he urged the members to seek other even more necessary work. "If you saw a blind child, or a crippled child, you asked what could be done about it. The need was obvious, and the money always came to meet the need."

The deepest need to-day, he continued, is the need for greater thought and effort for the improvement of the human mind. While he praised and appreciated what had been done in the modern world for the betterment of the physical and material, the mental side of man's nature had by no means kept pace with the wonders of science and invention.

He expressed anxiety over the mental development of people in general.

The proportion of men rejected by the services, not for physical reasons, but because of "mental instability" and similar causes, certainly should give food for thought. The increasing number in mental institutions was another reminder that all was not right. At the present time there was much talk about juvenile delinquency. "There isn't such a thing," the speaker said earnestly, "it's adult delinquency. We are not troubled by prodigal sons, but by the sons of prodigal fathers."

Rev. Mr. Parks, who was a busy pastor in Toronto during the depression and who served in Canada and overseas in the public relations department of the R.C.A.F., did not "pull his punches" in referring to the difference in the attitude and action of the authorities in regard to the depression and the war.

In the depression there was inaction and "passing the buck." "Where's the money to come from?" was the question then. When the war came along there was no question, "What they couldn't do for kindness and justice, they did all right when scared to death," the speaker suggested.

"Kids who never had a job in their lives, died over there for you and me. If you let the lads who bore the brunt in the last depression and who had the burden of the war to carry, suffer after this war, then I'm with them."

and I'll be against you." "If harmony and purpose can be achieved by such hatefulness, why cannot the world unite for love of humanity?" the speaker asked.

In one of his references to adult education, Rev. Mr. Parks suggested that it would be a good idea to use the schools for night meetings for culture clubs and similar public requirements. Briefly but very sincerely Kiwanian Arch. Gillies expressed the thanks and appreciation of the club for the address.

Fairer Treatment Of Canadian-Born Japs Urged by Presbytery

Need Seen For Two Additional Ministers

Cochrane Presbytery met in Cochrane last week to consider the work of the Crusade for Christ and His Kingdom. All five sessions were presided over by the Chairman, Rev. H. M. Bailey of Kapuskasing. Different aspects of the work and challenge of the Crusade were presented by Rev. J. A. Little, Superintendent of Missions, Rev. A. G. Smith of Matheson and Rev. J. A. C. Kell of Cochrane.

In the discussion that followed it seemed that the various churches had committed themselves whole-heartedly to the work of the Crusade and that problems of the day were being faced realistically.

The Dominion Government was asked to extend the same treatment to Japanese born in Canada that it had extended to other Canadian citizens of alien ancestry. Dr. Brock Chisholm was highly commended for his efforts to have people and children seek and face Truth, but Presbytery deplored his interpretation of Holy Scripture as misleading and his approach to matters of moral neither sound nor satisfying.

In the Home Mission report presented by Rev. W. M. Mustard, Presbytery made request for two additional ordained ministers, one to serve Porcupine, Hoyle and Delnate, the other to serve Hunta, Clute, Island Falls and Fraserdale. Special tribute was paid to Miss Louiza Mayowna for her work in the Porcupine Camp during the last six years.

Among those attending were Rev. J. Breckenridge, Mrs. G. Shippam, Mrs. J. C. Hough, Rev. E. G. Smith, Rev. W. M. Mustard, Mr. A. Gillies and Miss Ruth Wardlaw.

Legion Ladies Enjoy Cards; Plan Supper

Mrs. J. Cowan, Mrs. S. Crews and Mrs. T. Conway took the three ladies prizes in the order of their names, at the Canadian Legion Ladies Auxiliary on Tuesday evening.

Winners of the men's prizes were Mrs. M. Sears, Mrs. E. Chevreslis, and Mrs. Ruth Johnstone.

Auxiliary plans for the future include a "500" card party next Monday evening in the Legion hall, and a chicken supper on Mar. 2.

Club and Church Activities

Beaver Club Meets at Mrs. Pennie's Home

On Thursday evening the members of the Beaver Club met at the home of Mrs. C. Pennie, 27 Patricia Blvd.

The evening was busily spent knitting garments for the Red Shield, and a number of articles were completed and ready to turn in. The members were commended for their fine work which is indeed appreciated by the needy people all over the world, who benefit by it.

During the evening a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Pennie, and the mystery prize winner was Mrs. J. Trevehan. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. Baxter, 5 Hart St.

A letter, to be sent out to the young people's association of the other churches, was also read to the members present, informing them that the young people's associations would be invited to a party to be held on Feb. 23.

Marcos Club Told Of Immigrant Problem

The Young Married Couples Club (The Marcos Club) of First United Church held their regular semi-monthly meeting on Tuesday evening at 8 p.m., with a very encouraging attendance.

The meeting opened under the leadership of co-president Janet Moyle assisted by Betty Haylock.

After the reading of the minutes by secretary Lloyd Black, the business portion was conducted by co-president Art Moyle. Plans were made for meetings slated for Feb. 26, and Mar. 12, and for a sleigh ride party, Mar. 5.

The speaker of the evening, Miss L. Mayowna, of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church was introduced by the president. In a very touching and tender way, the speaker told of her work in the immigration department at Quebec City and St. John, where she, with her ability to speak several European languages, acted as an interpreter and comforter to the worried and bewildered immigrants, making their plight somewhat easier. The local situation, the problem of bringing the New Canadians into our circle of fellowship, was also outlined by the speaker and suggestions put forth.

Bill Black, in thanking Miss Mayowna, was sincere in his expression of the club's appreciation and thanks. Following the meeting, the members enjoyed a social period, and refreshments were served. The Young Married Couples are cordially invited to attend the next meeting on Feb. 26.

SCHUMACHER Mrs. Arthur Wilford Heads Ladies Guild

The Ladies Guild of the Schumacher Anglican mission held their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon in the church hall. Rev. Canon Cushing conducted the devotional period. Mrs. Arthur Wilford, president of the Ladies Guild was in the chair for the business session. The ladies decided to hold a sewing meeting at the home of each member. The election of officers was held and the following ladies were appointed to office: President, Mrs. Arthur Wilford; Vice-

Trinity W. A. Holds Successful Tea, Sale

The Women's Association of Trinity United Church held a very successful Valentine Tea and sale of homebaking Wednesday afternoon in the church hall.

The hall was nicely decorated with Valentine decorations. The large tea table was very attractive with white cover and white candles in Valentine motifs. The centre piece was a pot of lovely red tulips.

Pouring tea from the silver tea services were Mrs. P. A. Boyce and Mrs. Stan Kitchen. Mrs. Harold Grist, president of the association, received the guests.

Small tea tables were nicely arranged and were very attractive with Valentine decorations. Serving tea were Mrs. J. G. Malkin, Mrs. Dave Killens, Mrs. Byron, Mrs. E. Nelson, Mrs. H. McCarthy.

The bake table had a very large selection of lovely home-baking for sale; Mrs. George Shippam, Mrs. Alf Hill and Mrs. Peace were in charge.

The kitchen convenors were Mrs. James MacKenzie, Mrs. Sandy Fulton, Mrs. Jack Matthew, Mrs. Alex Stirling.

Kinettes' Valentine Party Is Gay Affair

New "Formals" Brighten Dance At Pavilion

Bright red hearts, and gay Valentine posters formed a setting at the Riverside Pavilion on Friday evening for the Valentine Dance held by the Kinetite Club, which was a tremendous success, and which met with the approval of all the dance critics.

The large number of couples present formed friendly groups throughout the evening, and their main purpose seemed to be to make this a happy event, well worth remembering. Varieties of dance numbers were played by Henry Kelneck and his orchestra, and novelty dances and special polkas were also a part of the musical program which added to the enjoyment of the evening.

Ladies looked lovely in evening dresses which have been so missed at dress-functions during the war years, and all the latest formal fashions were to be seen. Much in evidence were blacks with gay sequin trim, draped silk jerseys, and lovely pastel sheers and nets.

Prepare For Ski Meet

This coming Sunday a group from the Porcupine Ski Club will go to Kamascotia to make preparations for the coming ski meet on Feb. 23 and 24.

"The country," says a syndicated sage, "is on a strike jag"—and a thought is that it might be whipped up into a film starring Ray Milland, to be entitled "The Lost Year."

of valentines, and so the lovely old custom of disputed origination can again be repeated in its old friendly form.

Going still further afield, for means of poetry solely, can be found the Safety Council posters, one of which is currently on display at the local police station.

This poster brings to mind the suggestion that it might be exchanged by a gentleman who occasionally slips slightly from the dry shore of the brine barrel and a member of the motorists ranks. It reads:

"The guy who walks
"When he's been drinkin'
"Depends on you
"To do his thinkin'"

In the artistic section of the work, the artist has shown a slightly indisposed gentleman comfortably seated on the front bumper of an automobile and clutching a seemingly cherished bottle of X X X in one hand and a hat in the other. The helmet has been raised from the cranium to lend tact to the friendly greeting being accorded the irate motorist by a most colourful proboscis and a pair of very happily lighted eyes.

Another valentine originating with the National Safety Council in the U. S., is being offered to guilty motorists and is addressed to "Suicide Sam". It reads:

"You speed-crazy fiend, you'll end up dead —
"If the tread on your tires was as thick as your head."

And so today is the day when the exchange of cards and cooing takes place. Fortunately there is no shortage

A.Y.P.A. Plans For Party On Feb. 23

The regular weekly meeting of the A.Y.P.A. was held in St. Matthew's church hall last night. The meeting was opened by a devotional period conducted by the president, Gwen Mustato, and following this the minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary treasurer, Barbara Fleming.

A letter, to be sent out to the young people's association of the other churches, was also read to the members present, informing them that the young people's associations would be invited to a party to be held on Feb. 23.

During the business meeting, the program for the concert to be held next week was discussed and planned.

Due to the illness of Rev. A. R. Chidwick, the installation of officers was postponed until the morning services this coming Sunday.

Miss Herschell then took charge of the meeting and led the members in singing. Following this a light lunch was served.

Closing the evening, Bob Kelly conducted a dart-throwing contest between girls and boys, with the girls winning the contest.

Even Police Force Has Valentines

(Continued from Page One) the Saint had made his gifts and had also conceived what we know as valentines.

The valentines were given to the pigeon who distributed them among some of the friends. Believe it or not.

However, the making of valentines has changed much in the passing years. For example, one valentine, pressing its nose up against the window of a local store, shows a pert little miss, placidly parked on a hot stove and surrounded by the words, "You make me boil over." On purchasing the card and opening it, you read:

"Once my heart was cold as ice—
"And things were really HORRID
"But ever since you came my way
"I'm positively TORRID!"

For a slightly higher price one can buy a dainty little composition, artistically bordered with feathery lace and such, which conveys the age old question — "Will you be my Valentine?" — in a more tactful form.

Then there is the bobby sox influence to add to the many conceptions. There are pictures of the zoot suit era, right down in perfect zoot lines. The drape shape to give one that ape shape, and has a length of a car chain with a few keys on one end and the missing link on the other. Included is all the bobby sox lingo and the great conceptions of wolfish manner. (Once again — naturally.)

Some of the serious valentines are conceived in artistic form, and others done in popular style to give the custom, old or not, an enjoyable temper.

Going still further afield, for means of poetry solely, can be found the Safety Council posters, one of which is currently on display at the local police station.

This poster brings to mind the suggestion that it might be exchanged by a gentleman who occasionally slips slightly from the dry shore of the brine barrel and a member of the motorists ranks. It reads:

In North Since 1908 Father Of Fifteen Died On Saturday

George Sutherland Had Hoped To Ice Family Rink In Bonspeil

Mr. George Sutherland, father of William, James, and Douglas Sutherland of Schumacher, and of Earl Sutherland, South Porcupine, died suddenly on Saturday night from a heart attack.

Mr. Sutherland was born at Mickburg Ontario, 79 years ago and moved to Haileybury with his family in 1908.

A father of 15 children, all of whom survive, Mr. Sutherland was especially well known in the curling clubs, formed in the early days of the North country. His wish was to ice an all Sutherland rink, but he died before he could see his sons reunited in the T and N.O. Bonspeil at Haileybury, which got under way on Monday morning.

Beside the sons already mentioned he is survived by Duncan of Haileybury, George and Gerald of Kirkland Lake who had entered in the bonspiel along with William, James, Douglas and Earl. Also surviving beside the six sons are three daughters, Mrs. W. Lafferty, Coniarium Mines; Mrs. E. Carmichael, Falconbridge; and Mrs. Percy Grozel of Haileybury and another son Kenneth of Vancouver. His wife predeceased him.

Past Matrons Club Enjoy Valentine Tea

The regular meeting of the Past Matrons Club of Arbutus Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, was held at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, 14 Patricia Blvd., Friday evening, Feb. 8, with Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, presiding.

Knitted articles were handed in to Mrs. Mary Ralph, Convenor of Work, for the next sale of work which is to be held in the near future, where aprons and knitted articles appear to be taking a leading role. Mrs. Ralph read a short article entitled "The O. E. S. Garden", this was very interesting and many well known vegetables formed a comparison to the thoughts and deeds pertaining to our Order.

Mrs. Emma Campaign of Hamilton, a member of the Grand Executive Committee of the Grand Chapter, O.E.S. was guest of the evening, and also guest at the home of Mrs. Violet

Day, 82 Hemlock St. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mary Fisher, 19 Seventh Ave., Friday evening, Mar. 1, 1946. This bringing to a close the business part of the evening.

Everyone was in a gay mood, the streamers of hearts and corresponding vases of tiny hearts was the setting for a real gay St. Valentine's party. As a beginning Mrs. Violet Day read a full patriotic report of work done by the Order of the Eastern Star entitled "Through the Dark Valley of War to the Dawn of Victory" which was amazing and most interesting.

Then court whist was enjoyed, the score cards being adorned by the symbolic cupid. Prizes being won with the highest score by Mrs. Violet Day, who received an Irish crocheted dolly set, and low score by Mrs. Nevada Rutherford who received a crocheted vanity set. The lunch table was laid with gaily coloured luncheon cloths and humorous place cards of St. Valentine. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Jackson, the hostess, and a most enjoyable evening came to a close.

Boys Group Attend Trinity United

Trinity United Church was filled to its utmost capacity Sunday morning, as members of the third annual Boys' Convention attended the service. Mr. Bob Fulton occupied the pulpit and introduced Rev. Lora Carlson, travelling secretary of the Ontario Boys' Work Board.

Also taking part in the service were Rev. Allen Smith, Matheson; Lorne Rogers, South Porcupine; and Gordon McCullagh, Matheson.

The theme of the address was "Building Today the Christian Way". The choir sang a lovely anthem "We Would Be Building". Mrs. James Huxley accompanied at the organ.

Rev. Lora Carlson, a former minister of Trinity United Church, conducted the service at the Delnate Church Sunday afternoon and at the Porcupine Church in the evening.

During the afternoon a musical program was enjoyed. Mrs. C. Armitage sang two beautiful songs "One Alone" from the Dessert Song and "I Love Thee" by Grieg. Mrs. Jack Marshall accompanied Mrs. Armitage on the piano. Miss Betty Gilbert sang two lovely solos "My Own" and "Chapel Bells". Mrs. Blanche James accompanied her.

Except that nobody seems to be working, reconversion is now 90 per cent complete, it says here.

FASHION SHOW DISPLAYS TALENT IN BOTH SEWING AND MODELLING

On Friday afternoon, the Hollinger Hall was the scene of a delightfully arranged Valentine tea and fashion show, jointly presented by the Gold Star Women's Institute and the students of the sewing classes at the Timmins High and Vocational School. Regardless of the fact the event had been postponed from Wednesday afternoon due to the inclement weather, and all delicacies prepared for that day had to be given away, and preparations repeated for Friday, the afternoon was a tremendous success.

The Hall was very appropriately decorated for the occasion, each window being centred with a bright red heart framed with red and white interlaced crepe paper, the whole effecting a large and very pretty valentine.

Tea tables were centred with lovely little roses, and a bouquet of colourful tulips graced the piano. A musical background was provided throughout the afternoon by Mrs. C. W. Surman, and Misses Ruth Wilson and Ruth Mustard. A most dainty and delicious lunch of fancy sandwiches, cakes, and cookies, was enjoyed tremendously by the many guests who attended.

Mrs. W. Johnson, president of the Women's Institute, received the guests at the door. Miss M. McDonald, instructress in sewing at the high school, supervised the fashion show. Modelling, where the students of the sewing classes, whose work is indeed a credit to all concerned.

The first to appear through the gayly heart-bedecked doors, behind which the models awaited their turn, were about a dozen little tots, who in their tiny beautifully finished prints, looked like little Valentines themselves. They shyly modelled dresses made them by their mothers or sisters attending classes.

Following these, first-year blouses were presented, featuring sports, and dress blouses, in plain colours, checks and stripes. Then there were first year jumpers in blue and rose, with wide shoulder-straps and pockets finished in saddle stitching. Skirts in blues, greens, yellows, browns, reds and bright plaids, showing front and back pleats were also featured as were a variety of ultra-smart suits. These latter can be seen on the pages of Vogue and Mademoiselle, and each was a beautiful fit, expertly tailored and finished.

There were box jacket suits, chestfield suits, short jackets, and medium length, each with its own special style of neck-line, pocket, and button arrangement.

Lovely dresses were also shown, presenting the latest in fashion with their low neck-lines, two-tone colouring, smooth princess lines, and chic bow and sequin trims.

Doubtless the girls put many long hours into their work, but when it is obvious that the outcome was close to expert it was obviously worth their time, and their while, when each item came to almost less than half the price of a similar store-bought garment.

In charge of the afternoon tea were Mrs. Crispin, Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. Marriott, Mrs. Holson, Mrs. Doughty, Mrs. Sanderson, Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. MacDonald, Mrs. Troyer, Mrs. Cowie, Mrs. Kinsey, Mrs. Turner, and assisting were Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. McLaren and Mrs. Jeffries. In charge of the treasury were Mrs. MacIntosh and Mrs. McCharles. Proceeds of the event were equally divided between the Women's Institute and the students.

Nurses Make Plans For Tea and Sale

The regular monthly meeting of the Registered Nurses Association was held in St. Mary's hospital on Monday.

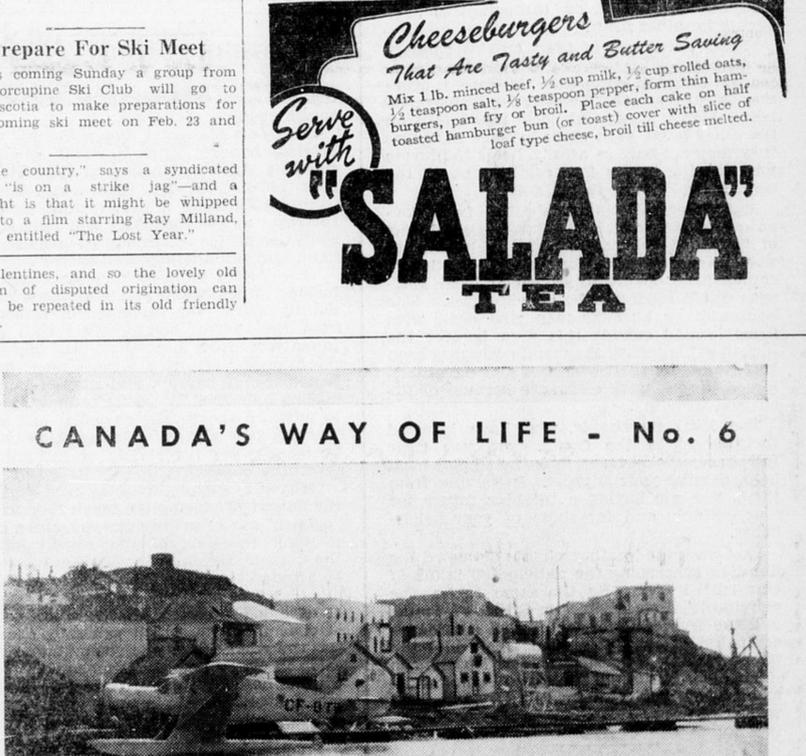

Final plans were made for a tea and bake sale to be held at the home of Mrs. John Dalton Jr. 7 Cedar St. S., on Saturday, Feb. 23.

Mr. Laporte spoke briefly and Dr. Armitage gave a lecture. Several were shown through courtesy of the Timmins Fire Department. The speakers were introduced by Mrs. Briden.

OUT OF THE WILDERNESS...

Out of the wilderness of rock and pine and muskeg, great new Canadian cities have grown. Out of the courage and foresight of the men of the Mining Industry a vast new store of wealth has been opened up for Canada.

From the hit-or-miss methods of the early prospectors mining has developed into an exact and intricate science... A major Canadian industry that pays more than $100,000,000 yearly to its thousands of employees.

It has grown great because men of enterprise were willing to stake their all on their faith in the future.

For that is the pattern of Canada's Way of Life... A pattern that will be repeated as long as men of vision have the freedom to make their dreams come true.
