

KINETTES DISCUSS WORK IN SHELTER

The March meeting of the Kinettes was held yesterday evening at the Fern Cottage with the president Mrs. C. Bowker, in the chair. Mrs. Ed Reid was welcomed as guest.

Mrs. Henry Ostrosser gave the roll call which was answered by 22 members.

Mrs. Len McKerrow, convener of the milk bottle committee, displayed a sample of the new donation boxes and it was decided that these would be painted in the Club colours.

During the suggestion period it was decided that in future, invitations would be extended to the wives of new Kinsmen to attend the meetings as guests during the first few visits. The past procedure has been to make them members automatically at the first meeting, but in future the guest will have the option of deciding whether she wishes to become a member or not.

Treasurer Mrs. Caverley gave a report on the Club funds and stated the recent Valentine dance had been a financial success. All proceeds from the event will be used for work at the Children's Shelter.

The Shelter committee will be left in charge of the amount of work to be done at the Shelter, but this will include at least the decorating of the play room, linoleum, blankets, etc. Since taking over this work the Kinettes have provided numerous smaller articles and along with other funds, anything collected from the milk bottles is going toward this work.

In the future, mending nights for the Shelter will be held on Wednesday with each hostess having the option of entertaining at her home or at the Shelter. Mrs. Wm. Alexander's group will be the first to meet, next week; the next will be Mrs. James Henderson's group.

Mrs. F. E. Robinson asked that each hostess phone her the Saturday previous to the meeting night, so that a reminder may be furnished in the Kinettes Bulletin. A late spring rummage sale was also discussed.

The president brought forth a request from the head of the Girl Guides in this district that any member interested in Guide work attend a meeting in the Central public school tonight at 8 p.m.

The next regular meeting will be held on the first Wednesday in April.

LUCY WOYTAS WED IN CHURCH OF NATIVITY

Given in marriage by Mr. Rutchynski, the bride wore a graceful gown of white satin, with long fitted torso, long sleeves coming to a point over the wrists, and sweetheart neckline. Satin buttons ran from the back of the neck to the waist, and the skirt was very full. Her long embroidered veil was caught by a flowered coronet, and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. P. Rysak, who chose black crepe with a blue violet hat.

Bridesmaids were Anne Rysak, wearing pink net, and a hat of pink roses and lily of the valley with short pink veil, and Susie Boychuk wearing blue net, with a similar headdress in blue. They carried bouquets of pink roses.

Flower girls were Dianne and Charlene Mira.
