Log Cabin Ski Club Enjoys Card Party

The Log Cabin Ski Club held a very successful bridge and cribbage party on Tuesday evening in St. Paul's Parish Hall.

Nine tables of bridge were filled and three of cribbage. A delightful lunch was served after cards.

Prizewinners were, for bridge, Mrs. S. H. Bartman, Mrs. Phyllis White; for cribbage, Mr. Wilmer Fera, Jos. White.

Prizes for the affair were donated by local merchants and the club would like to publicly thank Marshall-Ecclestone, Workers' Co-operative; Consumers' Co-operative, Porcupine Hardware and Grant and Beyerly for their donations.

A handsome pyrex "Whistling" tea kettle, given as a door prize, was won by Jos. White.

The club also is indebted to Mrs. Gerald Rosebrugh who supervised the party and to Mrs. Eade, Miss Vance, Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Clark who assisted.

'46 Club Will Hold Dance On Friday

The newly formed Young People's Club has decided to call themselves the "46 Club"; it was so decided after their inaugural sleigh-ride last Thursday night.

The sleigh ride to the "Springs" road provided fun and afterwards, in the Masonic Hall dancing and refreshments rounded out a merry evening.

At the short business meeting following the ride plans were discussed for a dance to be held on the local arena on Friday Mar. 8. Nearly fifty young people of town attended the party.

St. John's Ambulance Certificates Given

The meeting of the Nursing Division of St. John's Ambulance Brigade held on Tuesday in the public school, featured the presentation of certificates to the new class members who had qualified to receive them.

Mr. Pat. Murphy, Corps Officer, made the presentation, and in a talk to those present gave an enlightening history of the S.J.A.B., which was enjoyed by all.

Those not present at this meeting who have earned certificates may have them by attending any Tuesday evening meeting.

Certificates were awarded to Mrs. R. Ship, Mrs. Ida Lemay, Mrs. Florence Hodgins, Mrs. T. Cahill, Mrs. C. Kavanagh, Mrs. May Pacione, and Miss Alice McMunn.

Fine Is One Dollar But Costs Are $37.50

Although the fine awarded was only one dollar, Joe LaFord of Matheson Township had to pay an additional $37.50 in costs. The costs were for witnesses' fares. The charge was not having proper lights on his sleigh. The decision was handed down in police court this week.

In another case an offender paid $10 for having beer illegally.

Two offenders were assessed $10 each for having beer illegally, one traffic case was adjourned, an assault case was dismissed.

One case involving neglect of children was adjourned until next week. Four children, one of whom was a four-month-old baby, were left from Sunday until Thursday midnight, according to a statement given by Constable Shaver.

The defendant denied the statement and witnesses will be called.

War Bride Comes To South Porcupine

A new war bride arrived in South Porcupine on Tuesday evening and was welcomed by her husband who, himself, has only recently arrived from overseas.

She is Mrs. Edwin Hughes, London bride of Edwin Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hughes, of 151 Allen St.

Mrs. Hughes was Miss Alice Florence Clare before marrying. She came over on the Aquitania and says she is prepared to like Canada and Canadians.

We are sure that our friendly townspeople will welcome Mrs. Hughes and make her feel that she has come to live among kindly folk. Welcome to Canada.

Anglican Ladies Enjoy Tea, Cards

The Sewing Circle of St. Paul's Anglican Church held a pleasant afternoon bridge and pancake tea in the Parish Hall. This will be the last social affair before Lent.

SOUTH PORCUPINE Mrs. George White Is Hostess To C. W. L.

A Catholic Women's League meeting was held on Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. George White, O'Brien Ave., and was very well attended, over twenty members turning out.

The business meeting discussed plans for a bazaar which will be held later in the year.

St. Patrick's Day is to be observed by a party, details of which will be announced later. A sing-song for which the hostess planned and sang was followed by a very nice lunch. The president, Mrs. N. Sullivan conducted the meeting.

SOUTH PORCUPINE Children Enjoy Ice But Oldsters Do Not

Youngsters had a wonderful time on Wednesday morning getting to school. They were able to slide nearly all the way on the glare ice surface of the road and walks.

Older folks, did not appear to be quite so happy over the difficulties of pedestrian travel.

Rain followed frost, and a freeze-up followed the rain, hence the road hazards. Men found difficulty getting to work as bus service was severely hampered and in some cases, cancelled.

SOUTH PORCUPINE Kiwanis Club Is Host To Lions

The Kiwanis Club was host on Monday night at their weekly dinner-meeting to the Lions' Club of Schumacher.

The meeting was held as usual in the Airport Hotel, and President V. H. Evans presided.

There was no special guest speaker, but a sing-song was held with Kiwanian Lloyd Hunkin acting as soloist. He received great applause for his two numbers: "Danny Boy" and "Irish Lullaby".

After the meeting some of the guests, under the auspices of Kiwanian Lee Sauder, went to the curling rink for a friendly game while the rest attended the hockey game between the Junior Red Wings, which is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, and the Timmins Lions' Juveniles. The Red Wings won 6-4.

Autopsy Results Not Yet Available

The results of the autopsy conducted on eight year old Carmel Delorme following her death on Tuesday morning are not available as yet. Dr. R. P. Smith who conducted the post mortem said that official results will not be known until tests are made in Toronto.

"The little girl fainted on Monday night following a day at school, during which she had been in highest spirits. Rushed to hospital following her collapse she remained unconscious until her death at 2:20 a.m. Tuesday."

and parents to come together to discuss views on different subjects, thereby eliminating any misunderstanding that may exist.

"We should have a broad, high aim," he stated, "and should make certain to keep the vision of our goal, fresh."

Mr. Brown advised the creating of harmony at the beginning of the school day and a continual harmonious mood in the classroom so that the memory of school days will be a happy one, to the pupil.

In order for a teacher to attain high ideals, the speaker stressed the need of years of hard study adding the need of sound scholarship and high professional skill. Years of intensive preparation and robust health of mind and body were also required.

Mr. Brown pointed out the characteristics of a teacher should be, maturity of judgement, integrity of character, sympathetic understanding, enthusiastic devotion to duty and a wholesome attitude towards life.

"Besides these," he stated, "it is well to have personal magnetism and leadership."

"In short, he continued, "prospective teachers should be the most capable and most promising of all young people graduating from our schools and colleges."

The speaker was ably thanked by Ross Beattie at the completion of his address.

At the beginning of the banquet, Father Martindale said Grace following a Toast to the King.

Seated at the head table were Mr. R. L. Ship, Mr. C. A. Brown, Father Martindale, Rev. Breckenridge, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. R. Beattie, Mrs. Armitage, Mr. E. Bartlett, Br. G. Jenkins and Miss F. McDonald.

Previous to the address of Mr. Brown, Mr. Eastman expressed the deep loss sustained by the teaching profession in the passing of Dr. C. K. Greer and asked the resolution committee to consider donating a certain sum towards the Greer Memorial.

Previous to the reports of the committee, a sing-song was led by Messrs. Jenkins and Bartlett and later in the evening Mr. Bartlett played as violin solos; Dreaming, Gypsy Dance and Melody.

The evening closed with the singing of "O Canada."

The Officers appointed for the Institute during the coming year were: Hon. President, W. H. Brown, C. P. O'Neil, Inspector of English Separate Schools, past president, R. L. Ship, president, J. MacRae, vice president, Miss R. Kelly, treasurer, L. Small, secretary, H. Wilson, librarian, Miss M. Lynch.

THE MIXING BOWL

BY Anne Allan
HYDRO HOME ECONOMIST

Hello, Homemakers! What constitutes true economy in buying foods? It is simply a matter of looking for bargain price tags on everything? Is it taking the tired head of lettuce, the wilted celery in order to save the difference in cost between them and prime produce? Of course, it isn't!

You can afford good quality if you're wise and eat more of what you pay for. Buy those plump, golden oranges and that three-rib roast, but use every last bit of them. Orange peels make a good sweet pickle and a beef bone is the soul of a soup!

It is all in knowing how. You have to know how to salvage the vitamin value that lies in the outside lettuce leaves. You should know how to capitalize on the flavour hiding in the celery tops that the less skillful cook throws out. And you need good recipes like these:

SWEET PICKLED ORANGE PEEL.
Cut in pieces 1½ lbs. orange peel; cover with water. Cook 15 mins. Drain. Boil together 3 cups sugar, 2 cups vinegar and 2 tbsps. whole pickling spices for 5 mins. Add peel; cook, stirring occasionally, 1½ hours. Makes 3 pints.

BEEF BONE SOUP
Cover leftover roast beef bones and scraps with water. Cover; simmer 1 hours; remove bones. Add 1 cup diced carrot, ¼ cup chopped onion, salt, pepper. Cover. Simmer 45 mins. Add 1½ cups cooked or canned tomatoes; heat. Garnish with lemon. Serves 4.

GREEN LEAF SALAD
Wash outside lettuce leaves; place in saucepan. Add boiling water to ½ depth of leaves. Cover, cook 10 minutes. Drain. Chill. Chop; add French dressing. Pack into oiled individual moulds; chill. Unmould; garnish with hard-cooked eggs and watercress.

CREAMED PEAS WITH CELERY TOPS
Melt 3 tbsps. butter; add ¼ cup flour. Gradually add 2 cups milk; cook over hot water, stirring, until thick. Add 2 cups cooked or canned peas, ½ cup chopped celery leaves, Season with salt and pepper. Garnish with toast points. Serves 4 to 6.

TAKE A TIP

1. Tea is orange pekoe, probably to you. Did you know that you should say pek-oh, not peek-oh, and that the word is an index of size of the tea leaves, not of flavour?

2. Oranges are usually navel (navel) oranges at this time of year. They are easily segmented and easily served whole instead of juiced. They are best for marmalade, too. The Valencia we buy during the summer are more juicy.

3. The lemons on our market dry out easily. If there is no room in the refrigerator or no refrigerator, keep lemons in cold water. It's an old-fashioned stunt that also refreshes those that are getting dry and hard.

SUGGESTION BOX

Mrs. N. C. says: Dish towels, hung straight after washing and then dried, are more absorbent if they are not ironed.

Mr. N. J. says: Old corks will protect the points of scissors, ice picks, etc.

Mrs. G. E. suggests: BAKED SPARE-RIBS.—

3 to 4 lbs. spareribs, ½ lb. prunes, salt, pepper, flour.

Select two sections of spareribs. Soak prunes in old water over-night or for several hours, and drain. Put the sections of spareribs together with the prunes between and tie to hold in place. Season the meat with salt and pepper and rub with flour. Place it on a rack in an open roasting pan and sear in a hot oven, 450 F., until lightly browned. Reduce the heat to moderate (325 F.) and continue cooking for about an hour longer or until the meat is tender. Baste occasionally with the drippings in the pan.
