Rooming House Declared Public Place By Magistrate Following Police Visit

Liquor And Young People Predominate In Court Case On Tuesday Docket

Highlighting Tuesday's two-hour court session on Tuesday afternoon, was the case of Albert Jolicoeur, rooming house operator, who faced charges of illegal possession of liquor on a permit other than his own, the illegal possession of two beer permits and the illegal possession of a liquor permit.

All this added up to fines totalling $400 plus costs. His rooming house at 28 Second Ave. was declared a public place for a year.

Jolicoeur maintained that the two bottles of liquor found in his room at the time of the police visit had been left there by a roomer who had left for Schreiber early the same day. The permits had all been found under a cloth on a sewing machine in the room.

Explanation for the presence of the permits was that they had been picked up by the housekeeper following the checking out of guests and had been placed in Jolicoeur's room, which also served as the office of the house.

A third bottle was found on a table in the room at the time of the police visit. The bottle was partly empty and two men and a woman were in the room at the time, seated about the table with their coats on. None of them were drinking at the time and said they were just visiting.

During the hearing, Jolicoeur's own permit was produced and in evidence put forward it was found that the permit bore no mark of the bottle being purchased near the date. The man himself was vague in his explanation of the buying date.

Both Jolicoeur and his housekeeper stated that anything found in tenants following the departure of the tenants was taken and kept in the office.

The Crown Attorney then introduced the fact that permits found must be returned to a vendor within twenty-four hours.

Before imposing the fines the magistrate said, "he seems very unlucky with his collections."

Youth Gets Three Months
Henri Pelletier, 19-year-old Timmins youth, of 173 Algonquin Blvd. East, was sentenced to three months following the hearing of evidence surrounding the charges of theft of a car and joyriding on Mar. 20.

Pelletier had been seen by Constable Rivet going up Cedar St. The constable followed and saw the accused get into a car opposite 11 Cedar St. North. He started the car and had gone about twenty feet before being stopped. He could not produce a license, and did not know the name of the owner of the car, Roland Legault.

Constable Craig had arrived at this time and when an attempt was made to arrest Pelletier he resisted and began fighting. He was finally overpowered and brought to the station.

Roland Legault, owner of the car stated he had left his car in front of his home. He did not know Pelletier.

Assault Charge Dismissed
The charge of assault against Charles Howie, residing at the Fern Cottage was dismissed. Howie was alleged to have thrown his wife down a flight of stairs, following a scuffle, causing her to break her arm. The pair had been separated since Howie's return from overseas in December and Howie apparently wanted nothing to do with his wife.

On previous occasions, when his wife had come to his rooms, he informed her that unless she stayed away he would seek police action. On the night of the assault he had been going to the phone at the end of the hall to call the police and his wife had attacked him from behind. In his effort to push her away from his back she stumbled and fell to the foot of the stairs.

Youth Steals Beer
Albert Giroux, 16 years old, 80 Commercial Ave., was placed on a $100 bond to keep the peace for one year and was told to make restitution for some of the beer consumed from a case stolen from the Brewer's Warehouse on Mar. 20. Following the theft, Giroux and Yvon Poulin, 16 years old, of 225 Algonquin Blvd. and Ovilla Carriere of 66-A Mountjoy St. South, were found seated around the case of beer behind Korman's Dairy. Two other boys were fined $10 and costs for consuming beer when under 21 years of age.

Giroux said he had been with another boy on that date who had told him (Giroux) that he got a case of beer every Saturday. Giroux had agreed to carry it for him, although it was the first time they had met.

The boy's father testified that his son had always been a good boy and that this was the first time he had ever been in trouble.

"Will you do it again if I let you go," asked the magistrate.

"No, sir," was the reply. Magistrate Atkinson then informed the boy that he would be placed on bond and that if another infraction of the same type arose again he could be brought back and sentenced on the charge in question.

The Crown Attorney then asked that restitution be made, and the Magistrate told Giroux he must pay for the beer out of his own pocket.

Youths Fined
Douglas Wallace, 19 years old, of 120 Elm St. South, and Arnold Claude Lavigne, 20 years old, of 14 McLeod St. were assessed $5 and costs following their being involved in a slight scuffle near the Esquire Grill during the week.

Too Many Permits
Roland Boileau, 21 years old, of 22 Second Ave., and Gertrude Belle, 21 years old, of 22 Second Ave., were remanded one week on $500 cash bail and $1000 property bail. They are charged jointly with alleged illegal possession of one liquor permit and three beer permits. Their arrest followed a raid on their room at 1.30 a.m. on March 24. The liquor permit was made out in the name of Ernest Lindsay and the beer permits in the names of P. Barrette, Joseph Joly and Leo Russey.

Traffic Charges
A charge of careless driving against Gaston Dupont of 52-B Wilson Ave., resulted in his being assessed $25 and costs. The charge was laid following an accident in which Dupont was at fault through his failure to come to a full stop at a stop street.

A $15 fine was also imposed on Aime Mousseau for speeding and a similar charge against Leslie King was adjourned for one week. Charges of illegal parking and other traffic infractions resulted in three persons being fined $1 and costs and one re-issue of a summons. Failure to produce a driver's license drew one person a fine of $1 and costs. Fines of $10 and costs were levied on two persons operating rooming houses without licenses.

Fourteen Drunks
Heaviest fine imposed for drunkenness was that against William Asselin of no fixed address who pleaded guilty to second offence drunkenness and

SOUTH PORCUPINE Theft In Mine 'Dry' Brings Six Months

Rape Case Remanded For Higher Court

A long docket faced Magistrate Atkinson in court on Tuesday. Three drunks paid the usual, and eight young men paid $10 and costs for having beer and liquor illegally, and beer was seized.

Joseph Leduc, on a charge of attempted theft, pleaded not guilty through his counsel, Gregory Evans. G. Draper, who is in charge of the "dry" at the Dome Mine testified that on Mar. 16, when he was on duty, he saw Leduc come in to the dry from the shower and as he was longer than usual, he went to look and found the man with his hand in the pocket of a pair of pants from another locker than his own.

He notified Mr. Wilson and went back to work. Mr. Wilson went to investigate and found the pants half-way out of the locker. Leduc, on the stand, had a plausible story concerning his action. The pants, he said, were his, or he thought they were the new ones he had bought earlier in the week. He was looking to see if his name was on the waistband, he stated.

He had worked at the Dome for four years, was married, with two children. He had been convicted once before of stealing money out of lockers and had served 6 months for the offence.

In reply to the counsel, the magistrate said that it did not matter if anything were actually stolen or not, attempting to steal was a crime.

Leduc was sentenced to six months in jail.

Jack Culver, accused of indecent assault by Lois Wojciechowski, when asked by his worship how he wished to be tried, answered through his counsel Gregory Evans, that he wished to be tried by a higher court.

Preliminary hearing was given before he was committed for trial.

The girl gave evidence as to the alleged incident, which took place on the Amor Mine property. Bail was set at $500 cash or $1,000 property.

was assessed $50 and costs of one month. Thirteen other persons charged with drunkenness paid fines of $10 and costs.

THROUGH THE YEARS

TEN YEARS AGO Taxes For Hospital

After spending a solid hour on discussion, ten years ago, Timmins town council passed a resolution to make a donation to the building fund of St. Mary's Hospital of an amount equal to one mill on the tax rate, but not before the town had conferred with the mine operators. P. H. Laporte was the mover, and Dr. E.A.F. Day second, of the proposition that caused more talk in Timmins in that year than any other event.

One of the first helicopters ever seen in the Northland was seen flying over the district ten years ago this week.

False Alarm

The word flashed around Timmins like wildfire ten years ago that quadruplets had been born in town.

While whole families considered moving out of the north the story was tracked down and it was found to be nothing more than a rumor spread, "just for fun" by one person whose friend gave birth to a son.

Twenty-five years in Oddfellowship was recognized at the Timmins Lodge, I.O.O.F. No. 459 ten years ago when Ernest Thompson was presented with a veterans medal. W.M. White made the presentation.

The local board of health started another of their frequent campaigns to avoid smallpox ten years ago. Dr. H. H. Moore, M.O.H., pointed out that everyone owed it to themselves to be vaccinated.

Sports

South Porcupine went down with a 6-3 defeat before West Toronto Redmen ten years ago in the first game of the Ontario Junior Championships.

Fire Alarm Costs

The installation of fire alarms at South Porcupine and Schumacher would cost $12,000 it was learned at a meeting of the council of the township of Tisdale ten years ago this week.

Irish Concert

The Irish concert put on by the Roman Catholic church in the New Empire theatre in 1926 was most successful. With Father Theriault as chairman, and Jas. Gellis and Jas. Cowan, a large number of musical selections were enjoyed. Among those taking part were Mrs. Jos. Theriault, A. J. Downey, Patrick Cherry, Margaret Easton, Helen Chisholm, H. McCullagh, Jas. Gellis, W. Ramsay, Mrs. C. Wilkins, J. T. Hefferman, Jos. Everard, Betty Jaterson, W. R. Dodge, and R. Johnston.

Moving Made Easy

After his return from the Red Lake rush in 1926, Joe Rutherford of South Porcupine found the roof of his shack leaking like a sieve. Joe, never one to do things by halves, picked up his blankets and moved out into the great open spaces to sleep beneath the stars.

Blacksmith Murder Mystery

The murder of Henry Jones, Porquis Junction blacksmith, remained unsolved in 1926 as one man was acquitted of the crime in a preliminary hearing before Magistrate Atkinson. A. C. Brown defended the accused and it was through his rugged cross-examination that much of the evidence at the inquest was broken down. The accused man was held after the hearing on a charge of theft of $200 from a North Bay woman. It was stated that he admitted stealing the money but held that Jones was alive and well when he had seen him last.

TWENTY YEARS AGO Charges Dismissed

Bribery charges against two Timmins men, elected to council in 1926, were dismissed by Magistrate Atkinson ten years ago in a lengthy judgement in which it was pointed out that by law canvassers could be paid. He did not find that any evidence had been presented to show that two girls had been given money to pay for votes. The magistrate, however, felt that the court had not been treated with the frankness it deserved and that he was only satisfied with the evidence presented by one party. Reports were current at the time to the effect that the case would be appealed.

Fourth Fiery Cross

The fourth fiery cross of the Klux Klan burned in Timmins twenty years ago this week. According to rumour at the time, a cross had to be burned at the four sides of a town before the organization was complete. At this last burning the fire department was summoned and a large number of citizens turned out to see the affair.

THIRTY YEARS AGO First Dog Race

The first Porcupine dog race was held on Saturday, Mar. 25, 1916, and the whole of the district turned out for the event. The weather was of the spring type with the course being heavy and poor going.

The full course covered thirteen miles, extending from the Imperial Bank corner and out along the Moneta road, up around the Crown and Vipond Mines, along the road to the Dome from Dome to South Porcupine and back to Timmins on the main road through Schumacher.

In the drawing for place, Joe Brisson got number one, P. McDonough second to start. A. H. Sanction started last. Joe Brisson was the winner with his time at 1 hr., 32 mins. 37 secs, Len Newton was second with 2 mins 14 secs, longer than Brisson. The next team was ten minutes behind Newton's, the following is the order of the teams according to times made:

Brisson, Newton, Blanchette, Bisantahl, Wallingford, T. Durak, Sanction, H. Darling, McDonough. The latter was disqualified as he lost one of his dogs on the course.

Timekeepers were A. R. Globe, C. M. Auer, and N. J. Everard.

Ladies Hockey

On Mar. 23, 1916, there was a large crowd at the Haileybury rink to see the hockey match between the ladies of Timmins and the ladies of Haileybury. The result was 4-2 in favor of the Haileybury girls.

The line-up for Timmins was: goal, Miss Brewer, point, Mrs. M. Hamby, cover, Eva Powers, Left wing, Grace Blanchette, right wing, Jessie Alexander, cover, Olive McGuire and centre Frankie Jamieson.

Mrs. Frank Evans who was to play goal for Timmins was taken ill on the way down to Haileybury and Miss Brewer of Cobalt substituted in her position.

SPORTS

On Mar. 22, 1916, the Cochrane French Canadian Hockey team was trimmed 6-1 by the Timmins Canadians. The reason for the defeat was thought to lie in the fact that Joe Bernier, who was formerly one of Cochrane's greatest rosters, had moved to Timmins and therefore would not dare root for Cochrane.
