W. A. OF MOUNTJOY CHURCH MEET

The W.A. of Mountjoy United Church held their regular sewing meeting, on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. P. T. Moisiey, 110 Maple St. South, with ten members present. During the meeting Mrs. Edleston handed out fancy work to be completed for the bazaar next fall. Mrs. Ramsay and Mrs. Moisiey, conveners for aprons, handed out work in this line.

Following the meeting refreshments were served.

Present were: Mrs. B. Long, Mrs. A. H. Hill, Mrs. MacIntosh, Mrs. L. Harris, Mrs. Gilmour Smith, Mrs. A. Ramsay, Mrs. N. MacInnes, Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mrs. R. Edleston, and Mrs. Moisiey.

fedils with tiny bunnies hopping all around it, were Mrs. Lawrie and Mrs. Bawtenheimer, of South Porcupine.

In charge of the bake table, which had as its background a huge Easter bunny with a pink flower umbrella over its head, were Miss Dorothy Taylor, and Miss Kay MacInnes.

A musical background was provided during the afternoon by girls from each C.G.I.T. group, who gave selections on the piano. Mrs. R. Heath was treasurer for the afternoon.

Two girls from each C.G.I.T. group served, and assisting in the kitchen were Miss L. Mayowna, Miss Kathleen Christopher, Mrs. Sedor, and Miss Joyce Service.

MRS. C. BRIGGS IS W. I. PRESIDENT

Yesterday afternoon the Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting down at the Hollinger Hall, and election of officers was the chief business of the day. However the members discussed the Cancer Fund, and a contribution was sent, and discussions took place regarding the approaching Food for Europe campaign.

Officers elected were: Mrs. C. Briggs, president; Mrs. W. H. Wilson, vice-president; Mrs. W. Crispin, second vice-president; Mrs. A. Welin, Mrs. J. Holson, Mrs. D. Ellis, Mrs. C. Surman, directors; Mrs. Mary McIntosh, secretary; Mrs. A. McCharles, treasurer.

Following the meeting, a social half hour was enjoyed.

Changes In Ceiling Prices Clarified

Further elaboration of items recently suspended from the ceiling has been given by Wartime Prices and Trade Board in a release naming individual products belonging to groups of items taken off the ceiling.

Household remedies suspended from the ceiling include castor oil, cod liver oil, boric acid, epsom salts, petroleum jelly and other products packaged for sale to consumers but not otherwise.

Spices and herbs also suspended from the order include: (1) Spices — allspice, cloves, ginger, mustard, paprika, red pepper and chillies; (2) A variety of seeds, such as caraway, mustard and poppy; (3) Herbs, such as bay, mint, sage, savory, and others; (4) Condiments, including celery salt, chili powder, curry powder, poultry dressing and similar powders.

All seasoning sauces, the Prices Board said, except cranberry sauce, apple sauce, tomato sauce, tomato ketchup and chili sauce, are suspended from the price regulations.

MRS. W. H. PRITCHARD IS W. A. HOSTESS

The members of the W.A. of St. Matthew's church met at the home of Mrs. W. H. Pritchard, 51 Hemlock St., Monday afternoon for their regular meeting. During the business portion, plans were discussed for the forthcoming Diocesan annual meeting to take place here at the end of May.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess.

Present were: Mrs. A. Booker, Mrs. C. Taylor, Mrs. W. O. Langdon, Mrs. J. Keene, Mrs. J. A. Price, Mrs. R. S. Anderson, Mrs. J. Walker, Mrs. A. Neame, Mrs. G. Brown, Mrs. D. Rymer, Mrs. W. S. Ackroyd, Mrs. W. L. Ho-garth, Miss Saunders.

There will be three performances given, the first on Friday evening, Apr. 26, at 8.15 p.m., the next on Saturday afternoon and evening, Apr. 27. Tickets are now on sale.

C. G. I. T. SPONSORS DELIGHTFUL TEA

The C.G.I.T. groups of the district held a most successful tea and bake sale in the basement of the First United Church, on Saturday afternoon.

Guests were received by Mrs. Gilmour Smith and Miss R. Wardlaw, and were seated at individual tea tables each with snowy cloths, gay Easter serviettes, and attractively centred with three bunnies which stood with crisp bows around their necks and fluffy tails, all in pretty pastel shades.

Pouring tea at the main tea table centred with a large bouquet of daf-

MRS. A. GILLIES LEADS W. M. S. MEETING

The W. M. S. of First United Church held its Easter meeting on Apr. 11. In the absence of Mrs. W. M. Mustard, Mrs. A. Gillies conducted the meeting.

An affiliation service of the C.G.I.T. with the W. M. S. was reported by Miss Wardlaw, who spoke in appreciation of those who had contributed to the success of the evening.

The theme for the program and worship service was "Ye Shall be My Witness"; Mrs. S. Hansuld, assisted by members of the executive, was in charge of the program. Assisting were Mrs. Ralph, Mrs. A. Jackson, Mrs. G. Golden, and Mrs. J. P. Teeple.

The special evangelical effort of the United Church of Canada was stressed in the development of the theme. The part that women were privileged to take in this work was emphasized.

Mrs. W. Rinn, at the piano, supplied the music for the meeting. Members and friends enjoyed a social half-hour at the close of the meeting.

Hello, Homemakers! Many a tiny tot mimics her mother by serving her best-loved dolly sandwiches and tea "jes' like Mommie's bridge party." It's a wonderful opportunity for a child to imitate poise and daintiness. Your junior hostess will be educating herself to take the part of mother's helper before you know it. Don't you think these tea parties should be encouraged without too much concern in the gossip with Dolly. Give your daughter some dainty sandwiches and tell her how they are made and why they're good to eat. Help her to arrange a few sandwiches on her own dolly dishes and garnish with carrot sticks. When your back is turned every word with the same infection will be whispered to dolly perched up in a great big chair.

- ### CHILDREN'S PARTY SANDWICHES
- Trim the crusts off the neatly sliced bread.
 - Cut a few squares or circles depending upon the number of children to be served.
 - Spread with butter mixture: 1/2 lb. butter beaten with 1 cup milk and chilled for an hour in the electric refrigerator.
 - Make several open-faced ones:
 - a slice of peeled orange
 - a slice of hard-cooked egg
 - tinted cheese
 - pureed prunes or dates
 - a whole sardine
 - Make dainty filled ones:
 - finely minced meat moistened with salad dressing
 - creamed cheese
 - mashed cooked fish with a salad oil
 - chopped hard-cooked eggs and onion creamed with a little milk
 - bananas mashed with boiled dressing
 - shredded lettuce sprinkled with lemon juice
- NOTE: Do not season fillings highly for children. Salt is sufficient.

CABBAGE ROLLS

Into a mixing bowl put 1 1/2 lbs. of ground beef, 1/2 cup bread crumbs, 1 beaten egg, 1/2 cup of milk or tomato juice and 1 1/2 cups cooked noodles. Season and blend thoroughly. Add the centre tender leaves of a small cabbage which have been chopped and sauteed in a little bacon dripping.

Place mixture on the well-washed outer leaves of the cabbage and roll up each one and fasten with a toothpick. Brown in a little dripping and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Arrange in baking dish. Pour in stock to a depth of about 1 inch. Cover and bake in a electric oven 325 degs. for 1 1/2 hrs. Arrange rolls on hot platter. Make gravy with dripping in pan, using a bit of top milk and strain mixture over the rolls.

Bake potatoes at the same time and choose an oven-cooked dessert and thus utilize oven heat to the best advantage.

Mrs. B. C. asks for a moulded fruit dessert using a small amount of sugar, and available fruit.

LEMON SPONGE

We made this lemon sponge pudding the other day, adding less sugar and a little more flour than usual. Instead of 1 cupful of sugar we used 3/4 cupful and found it sufficiently sweet. To the 3/4 cup of sugar add the juice and grated rind of 1 large lemon, 2 1/2 tbsps. flour, 1/4 tsp. salt and beaten yolks of 2 eggs. When smooth and well blended, gradually stir in 2 1/2 cups of milk and 1 tsp. melted butter, and fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the 2 eggs. Pour into greased casserole or baking dish, set in pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven 35 mins. or until it is firm on top. Serves 4.

FRESH ORANGE DESSERT

2 tbsps. granulated gelatin, 1/4 cup cold water, 1 cup hot water, 1/4 tsp. salt, 1/2 cup orange juice, 1 tsp. lemon juice, orange sections. Soften gelatin in cold water for 5 mins. Add sugar and salt and hot water and stir over heat until gelatin is dissolved. Add orange and lemon juice, mixing well. Pour 1 cup of the mixture into a lightly greased mould and chill. When it begins to thicken arrange orange sections in it. Chill remaining mixture and when it thickens whip until frothy and thick, then pour into the mould. Chill until firm in electric refrigerator. Unmould and garnish with additional orange sections.

Mrs. J. T. asks how to serve canned cut beans. Butter is scarce at her house and they don't like cream sauce.

GREEN BEANS, CREOLE

2 1/2 cups canned green beans, 3 tbsps. bacon fat, 2 tbsps. finely chopped onion, 1/2 cup chili sauce, salt and pepper.

Drain beans. Melt bacon fat and add onion. Cook slowly until onions are soft. Add tomato soup or chili sauce and beans. Toss together well. Cover and heat through over electric element turned "low". Yield: 4 to 6.
