

DROPPED Between STITCHES

by Phyllis McCoy

Although we seldom see a 24th of May holiday that can boast sunshine clear through the day, with no snow or rain, we never quite give up the hope for such... and the members of the Timmins Golf Club are especially hoping for the sunny exception to the usually cloudy rule for the 24th, as to-morrow is the official opening of their summer golfing season, which will take the form of a two-ball mixed foursome. A great day is planned, and play will commence at 1.30 in the afternoon, with dinner being served in the Club House at 6 o'clock. In order for the Games Committee to arrange the draw, and the Stewardess to plan for the number of meals, each member was requested to phone Mrs. Smith at 1205 on or before May 18th, stating whether they would be playing, dining, or both. It is to be noted that those who have signed for dinner are expected to attend, regardless of golfing weather.

And if you are not a golf enthusiast, there are still other ways to celebrate the holiday in true pre-war style, and that is to attend the I. O. D. E. Maytime Dance which will be held to-morrow at the Riverside Pavilion with Henry Kelneck's orchestra in attendance. Some invitations have been sent out announcing the date of the dance but it is to be noted that tickets will be on sale at the door. This is the first I. O. D. E. dance to be held since pre-war days, and all members and friends are eagerly looking forward to the event, which was always noted for its high standards and which promises to uphold this fine reputation to-morrow night. The proceeds of the affair will go toward the new I. O. D. E. War Memorial—Dress is optional.

Tonight's the night, so far as the Schumacher Lions Club is concerned. With a bit of a speed-up, you can just make their annual Spring dance nicely. Door prizes up to $50, they say, and rumour has it there will be the odd spot of ingo-bay. It's at the McIntyre gym and Jack Bridges' Top Hatters will be making with the music. In formal—and the proceeds are for community projects. It's a grand night to go dancing—you can sleep tomorrow!

The members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion have a very busy Saturday ahead of them. On Monday night they held a special meeting in the Legion Hall to discuss brief business and to make further plans for the catering they are to do for the banquet on Saturday for the nurses' convention being held here. Numerous delegates from various parts of Northern Ontario will be present for the convention which is an annual affair, but which has never been held before in Timmins. A large program has been planned and promises to be most enlightening and informative.

News has reached us that a very pleasant evening has been planned for Friday, May 31, in the Church of Nativity Hall. The Junior Catholic Women's League plan to hold a card party, and guests will have their choice of bridge, 500, and euchre. A special attraction for the evening too, are the two door prizes which will be offered, and the fact that the town merchants have donated very lovely prizes.

Last Sunday afternoon was such a clear pleasant one for bicycling and because everyone enjoyed themselves so much the bicycle club organized by the Y's Mens Club, are going to meet again this week, weather permitting, of course. Members and friends meet at the Hollinger Ball Park about 2 o'clock and from there cycle out to Cook's Lake and enjoy an afternoon of baseball, archery, or other pleasing sports. The Y's Men are also planning another event to take place on June 10th at the Grand Hotel. On that evening they will attend with their missus, and a pleasant social evening has been planned giving members and wives a chance for all to get acquainted. There will be refreshments and Bill Mackie is looking after the entertainment. The kids will be glad to hear that there is another Teen-Age Dance coming up, and on the very day to celebrate the finish of exams—Tuesday, June 25.

This afternoon little Brian Hardy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hardy, played host to several of his friends in honour of his second birthday. The children all had a wonderful time playing together, and even the mamas spent a very pleasant afternoon. Young Brian had a nice big birthday cake in keeping with the occasion and received many lovely gifts from his little chums. Present were Jimmy Harrison, Tommy Hardy, Dwight Kelneck, Diane Dupuis, Diane Gauthier, Viola Sihvola, and Emmet and Edith McNamara.

Members of the staff of the Mutual Life Assurance Co. of Canada here in Timmins are very sorry that they are about to lose Mr. A. Muter, who has been there with them now for about six and one half years. and to-night they are going to hold a staff dinner in his honour over at the McIntyre. Mr. and Mrs. Muter are leaving next week to take up residence in St. Catharines, and both will be greatly missed by their many friends here in the North. To-night, besides the staff, many agents and their wives, from out of town, will be present for the dinner, and a nice informal programme has been planned for the evening's entertainment. Mr. Muter will be replaced by Mr. Don Moore of the St. Catharines Branch, who has spent the past three years in the Navy.
