HOSPITAL AUXILIARY TO MEET

The Women's Auxiliary to the Porcupine General Hospital will meet on Thursday afternoon June 6, at 2:30 in the Masonic Hall.

Recital Planned For Children's Fund

Mrs. Lelyan M. Tessier is holding a recital by her pupils with guest artists on Tuesday June 4, at 8:15 p.m. in the Finnish Hall.

Proceeds of this recital will go to "Save the children fund," the Canadian Headquarters of which is at 113 Mainland St., Toronto.

Matthew H. Halton, Canadian journalist, in a special message from Germany says "The vast legions of children in Europe who now are friendless, homeless, diseased or starving, and there are several millions of them - for these children there is still hope if the parents of more fortunate ones will act in time. That means today."

O. E. S. Officers Pay Visit to Local Lodge

On Tuesday evening a banquet was held in the South Porcupine United Church by the local chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star to celebrate the official visit of Mrs. Doris Wanless, Worthy Matron of the Ontario Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star of Ontario.

Accompanying Mrs. Wanless were: Mrs. Florence Glover, Past Worthy Grand Matron of the Michigan Grand Chapter, Mrs. Ona Tipper of Kirkland Lake, Grand Ruth, Mrs. Grace Fisher, Toronto, Grand Esther, Mrs. Helen Wallace, District Deputy Grand Matron and Mrs. Houghton of Cobalt.

It was also the occasion of the Chapter's silver anniversary and a large birthday cake graced the table. Mrs. Margaret McCaffery and Mrs. Jennie Bannerman, two charter members of the cake. Mrs. Jennie Bannerman and Mrs. Louella Armstrong poured tea. The tables were gay with spring flowers and decorations were carried out in blue and silver.

The Evening Auxiliary of the United Church catered for the event and a wonderful menu delighted all present. A meeting held in the Masonic Hall followed the banquet and addresses were given by Mrs. Doris Wanless, Worthy Grand Matron, and other visitors.

A beautiful blue glass sandwich plate was presented to Mrs. Wanless to commemorate her visit to the South Porcupine Chapter.

Visitors to the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Butcher of Iroquois Falls. Mrs. Butcher is Past District Deputy Grand

Manner - Olki Nuptials Celebrated In Double Ring Ceremony

On Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock the South Porcupine United Church was the scene of a very lovely wedding when Sirikka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armas Olki, Strachan Ave., became the bride of Arne, son of Mrs. Eva Manner and the late Mr. K. Manner.

The church, which was crowded with friends of the young couple, was decorated with dark red snap dragons, calla lilies and pink gladioli.

The ceremony, in which the bride and groom exchanged rings, was performed by Rev. F. J. Koski, Timmins, and Mrs. Leah Koski played the organ.

While the register was being signed Mrs. Helmi Tolvanen sang "Oh, promise me" and a Finnish hymn "Sain Paljun Loujatta armahain."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked stately in a gown of white frosted organza, with sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. The full skirt ended in a medium length train. The net veil which was arranged as a coronet on her head, with sprays of bouvardia, was heavily embroidered, and fell in graceful folds to the hem of her train.

She wore a single string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom and carried a bouquet of crimson roses and bouvardia.

The bride's sister, Hilka, was maid of honor and was pretty in a gown of pale pink sheer, with embroidered neckline and cap sleeves. She wore long white gloves and carried a bouquet of tea roses. White ostrich was prettily arranged on her hair to look like a crown.

Miss Doris Henderson, of Port Arthur was bridesmaid and wore a graceful gown of turquoise taffeta, with short sleeves and an arrangement of ostrich feathers on her head. She carried a bouquet of butterfly roses.

Little Ella Olki, sister of the bride, was flower-girl and looked dainty in pale blue organdie with an old-fashioned nose gay bouquet of deep pink roses, and a cap of pale blue flowers.

After the ceremony the dinner and reception was held at the Airport Hotel. The bride's mother, who wore a rose crepe suit with navy accessories and a corsage of pink carnations, received, together with the groom's mother, who wore a dress of lime green and black print with black hat and accessories, and a corsage of deep pink carnations.

The happy couple left by car for Ottawa, Montreal and Vermont. The bride travelled in a soft blue gabardine suit with brown hat and accessories with corsage of white gardenias.

Walter Salouka was best man and the ushers were Eino Lahta and Lollo

Mapron, and Mrs. Parkhill who is Worthy Matron of the Iroquois Falls Chapter.

A sum of money was raised at this meeting to be added to a cheque previously sent to the Sunnybrook Soldiers' Hospital in Toronto.

On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Elsie Reed, Worthy Matron of the local chapter, entertained at a luncheon party at the Airport Hotel for Mrs. Wanless, visiting officers and members. Mrs. Wanless and other officials left on Thursday for Iroquois Falls, Mrs. Nora Hall, Mrs. Jean Houston, and Mrs. Margaret McCaffery accompanying them for a visit to the Iroquois Falls Chapter of the O.E.S.

Kiwanis To Sponsor "Mile Of Pennies"

The regular monthly business meeting of the South Porcupine Kiwanis Club was held in the Airport Hotel on Monday evening a 6 o'clock.

In the absence of the president, Victor Evans, the vice-president, Earl Somerville, was in the chair.

Beside the regular members, one guest was present, Kiwanian P. J. Wright of Galt, who expressed his thanks for the friendliness and kindness he had received from the club for the past four weeks and hoped he would have the pleasure of welcoming members of the South Porcupine Kiwanis Club at Galt.

Kiwanian Clarence Anderson gave a report on plans for the carnival which is being held here on July 25, 26 and 27. Many useful ideas were outlined by the members and among others it was decided that the Kiwanis Club would sponsor a Boy Scouts "Mile of pennies" to be held during the carnival, the proceeds of this going to the Boy Scouts fund.

Among the correspondence the secretary, Bill Jamieson read a letter of congratulation from the Kiwanis International Headquarters congratulating the club on winning fourth honorable mention in the white division of Kiwanis International and first place in the white division for their district, for their leadership in civic and community work.

A request for funds for the local Girl Guide Association was read.

Ruth Smith Married To Neil Miller

Trinity United Church was the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding on Thursday afternoon when Ruth Alexandra Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith, Dartmouth, N.S., became the bride of Neil Raymond Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Miller, 74 Third Ave.

Miss Olive Miller, R.N., sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and Kenneth Soucie was groomsmen. Rev. J. A. Breckenridge officiated. Mrs. Blanch James played the wedding music.

The bride wore a smart street-length dress of dusty rose crepe with hat and gloves to match, and black shoes. Her corsage was a pink rose, sweet peas and bouvardia.

The bridesmaid, Miss Olive Miller, wore a smart street-length dress of blue silk jersey, blue hat, white gloves and a corsage of pink roses.

After the ceremony a buffet lunch was served at the home of the groom's parents. Mrs. Smith wore for the occasion a grey flowered silk dress with corsage of mauve sweet peas. Mrs. Miller wore a flowered silk jersey dress with corsage of deep red roses. Mrs. A. Orr of Timmins assisted with the lunch.

In the evening a reception was held and many friends called to extend their best wishes. The young couple were the recipients of many lovely gifts. They will reside on Third Ave.

The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls, to the bridesmaid a gold compact, best man, a wallet and the organist a china broach.

The Masonic Hall was most attractive and spring-like last Saturday afternoon, when the Senior Catholic Women's League held their tea and bake sale.

The table of home baking was presided over by Mrs. Huot assisted by Mrs. J. Costello, and Mrs. Lily Kavanaugh.

Miss Anna Sullivan had charge of the tea-tables, while Helen Fedor and Norma Sullivan served the guests, who were received at the door by Mrs. G. McManus. Also assisting were Mrs. Joe Huot, Mrs. Tom Cahill and Mrs. F. Tokar. The door prize was won by Mrs. Tony Debardini with ticket 252.

Rev. Father LaSalle won a Spode cup and saucer for being nearest right in a bean-guessing contest.

The ladies of the League wish to thank all those who helped to make this tea such an enjoyable and successful event.
