Bernard Laurin, 19, of 170 Maple St. North, was convicted of dangerous driving in Tuesday's police court here and given the option of a fine of $100 and costs or 60 days. His license to drive was suspended for one year.

Laurin was also found guilty of a charge of taking a taxi from Dave's Taxi stand, where he was employed, without the consent of the owner on the night of the accident.

On this Laurin was given suspended sentence and ordered to sign a bond for $50 to keep the peace for six

Laurin, employed as a desk clerk by Dave Chaisson, owner of the taxi firm, took one of the taxi's to drive a couple to Schumacher and on his return, about 3 o'clock in the morning, he struck George Sparling and Antoine home from work.

Following the accident, Chaisson stated that he was informed of the fact that Laurin had violated this ruling on occasions previous to the accident. One of the drivers from the taxt firm corroborated Chaisson's state-

When Laurin was called to the stand he said that he had never been informed of the ruling but admitted he had taken the cars previous to the accident. He stated he had taken the car belonging to the previous witness on one or two occasions because the driver did not want to take the call and on another occasion when the driver testifying had been asleep in the stand.

Bush Pilot's Work

Maria Montez gets the first modern role of her career in Universal's latest adventure-romance, now showing at the Palace theatre. She appears with a top-flight cast which includes Preston Foster, Robert Paige, Louise Allbritton, Kent Taylor and Sabu.

The action-packed picture deals with a dancer's death-hunt for her hated enemy, a character known as Balizar. Miss Montez is seen as the huntress and the trail leads from Spain to Tangier, where she meets a young American newspaper reporter who also seeks Balizar, not for vengence, but for a story of international impor-

In Targier, the dancing adventuress and the news-seeking American are aided by a cafe entertainer (Sabu) and their efforts are doubly rewarded. The dancer and the reporter find romance as well as the mysterious Balizar.

As a special added attraction fans will get a thrill out of seeing a section of their own north, country in technicolor in the "Forest Commandos" in which a camera man follows up a bush pilot to film his work in fighting fires, making mercy flights, and generally keeping an eye on things to see that Mother Nature doesn't get into trouble in the northland.

Ziegfeld Follies Comes To Broadway

Biggest and best of the musicals, "Ziegfield Follies of 1946" comes to the Broadway Theatre on Saturday. Starstudded from stem to stern, it should prove the tops in entertainment for fans who like 'em gay and lovely.

Included in the cast are the biggest of the big-name players, such as Fanny Brice, Fred Astaire, Lucille Ball, Red Skelton, Esther Williams, William Powell, Lucille Bremer, Judy Garland, Kathryn Grayson, Lena Horne, Gene Kelly, James Melton, and Victor Moore.

Filmed in technicolor, movie fans will get a chance to see a cross-section of the nation's beauty, daintily wedged in between comedy skits, and smarterthan-smart dance routines.

Code Of The Lawless Is Cartier Feature

The Cartier Theatre brings for its weekend western fans the feature "Code of the Lawless", starring Kirby Grant, Fuzzy Knight, Poni Adams and Charles Miller.

In this film, a newcomer to the Peccs succeeds in smashing a holding company combine which has been levying unwarranted taxes on the ranchers. He does so by posing as the son of the head of the company.

Only when the racketeers have been trapped does he reveal himself as an agent of the U.S. Department of the

Rounding out the program is a Hugh Herbert comedy, "When the Wife's Away", Fox News, and Chapter No. 4 of "The Monster and the Ape", which will prove just as thrilling as the previous chapters.
