

DROPPED Between STITCHES

by Phyllis McCoy

One week from tomorrow night, July 19, is the date set aside for an evening of fun and frolic. Such is promised in the long remembered fashion, to those who attend the tenth annual Intercollegiate Dance which is being held down at the Riverside Pavilion with Henry Kelneck and his orchestra in attendance. Folks have always had a grand time at these dances, when favors are given out, dance programs are presented at the door, and novelty numbers all add to the evening's fun. Dress will be optional as in other years, and this has usually meant that the gals get all dressed up in their best evening wear, and the guys can tag along in almost anything. These dances are put on by the university students in the district, the proceeds going to some worthy organization, this year to our local Y.M.C.A. Tickets may be obtained at the door, or from any student or member of the Y's men's Club.

Another treat in the offing is something in a new and different light. Beginning Tuesday, July 30, and each following Tuesday, dancing and a floor show will be presented in the newly remodelled Croation Hall in Schumacher. A very special attraction from the stage will be an amateur show featuring our own local talent, and this amateur half hour will be broadcast weekly over C.K.G.B. So how about some of you talented young people coming forth and taking advantage of the opportunity. We also note that we can request all our own favorite pieces to be played during the dancing hours, and another attraction is the serving of refreshments, as food and young people seem to go together. This new and different program is being presented by Peter Hanch.

We dropped in to see Mrs. F. Widomski, 219 Hemlock St., yesterday afternoon, and found her busily packing more parcels to be sent to the needy people of Poland. Mrs. Widomski is indeed to be complimented and congratulated on the hard, but successful work she has been doing, washing, ironing, mending, packing, and shipping off the twenty pound bundles which are nearing the thirty mark now. She conscientiously marks the age groups on children's clothing, makes sure that all shoes are properly mended, and in all sends only clothing that is in Grade "A" wearing condition. "Scraps were no good" she noted as the articles would be in great need for about five years. Mrs. Widomski has received clothing donations from many people, and from the used apparel, has turned out things in the best condition. She also received donations which were already in excellent condition, but for both these she has been most grateful. Her only wish is for more heavy coats for the cold weather. Mrs. Widomski, to use her own words, was old country born, and American raised, and receives addresses of the needy from relatives, friends and their friends in Poland. Each package contains a little of everything, including all manner of clothing, and several food necessities. She is hoping to receive a few more donations that the parcels may be received before the cold weather sets in.

The Summer Skating classes are now open at the McIntyre, and this probably explains why there are so many strange but very pretty young ladies wandering around our town these days. Among them is Doreen Dutton who is returning as a professional this year, and who has just completed a holiday in the Canadian Rockies with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dutton, of Drumheller, Alberta, where Mr. Dutton is deputy Mayor. Doreen entered the Canadian Championships with the Porcupine Club two years ago, and secured the Ladies Junior Figure Skating title. Since that time she has been training under Hedy Stenuff for her American Gold medal. We must also mention the fact that several years ago Miss Dutton directed, produced and had a starring role in the Great Falls, Montana, Figure Skating Club's annual show, the "Alpine Ice Fantasy", which was a tremendous success. As club instructor, Miss Dutton supervised 250 skaters for the annual spring performance at the Civic Centre. We hope that you will have continued success Doreen.

Among the other artist members of the Summer Skating School are Barbara Anne Scott, the North American S. Ladies Champion, and Canadian Ladies Senior champion, Yvonne Sherman, runner-up for the American junior ladies singles champion, and for the junior pairs championship in the Eastern States. Patty Scully, former ladies Ontario Junior champion. There are numerous girls at the school this summer and all of them champions or runners-up in their own clubs. They hail from as far away as Boston, New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Western States and Canada. We must note too that there are three very special little stars-to-be with us this year, who are only eight years of age. They are Barbara Burgoyne, of Cleveland, Diane Williams, of Calgary and Sylvia Sundene of Chicago. Each Thursday night there will be exhibition skating featuring dancing and solos, with the McIntyre Band accompanying. These displays are similar to those put on every McIntyre Field Day, and the Field Day this year will be on August 5.

Of Interest to Women

By PRUNELLA WOOD
LITTLE girls (size Seven to Fifteen) always like black frocks . . . as what woman does not, any size?
Here is a youthful black frock for hot summer days, in town or country, enlivened by ruffles of white eyelet embroidery which march down the skirt front, and over each sleeve cap.
The buttons are white pearl; the fabric is spun rayon. With or without a hat, this frock is good teen size fare for ordinary, or slightly formal occasions.
